The members of the United States Senate do not appear to be in crying need of a massuer, as the bill appropriating $1800 for the employment of a masseur to officiate in the marble bathroom in the new Senate office building did not pass. As the Comon Appropriations brought in nia does not, the schooner will be the bill, it provided a force, clerical registered as the So-and-So, of San and otherwise, for the care of the building, including a masseur nud many other attendants of the bath.

Senator Bristow proposed to strike out the entire provision, but specified the baths in his remarks. Senator Warren had reported the apartments. Senator Clapp had been there, but never had tried the tubs. Senator Burkett was sure the baths were in operation, but had no information regarding the masseur,

Discussion developed the fact that the bathrooms had been ordered a long time ago, and the superintenden the building had provided attend ants for them
