EASTERN CLACKAMAS

KELSO.

Web Roberts and Walter Alt have quit school and gone to their homes at Firwood.
Mr. Peterson, a new settler near Gresham, visited at the home of Mr. Johnson here last week. He wanted to purchase a horse and Jersey cow.
Miss Pearl Miller, one of our school teachers fell and fractured a bone in her arm last Saturday. Dr. Short bandaged it for her.
Joel Jari wants to purchase a large young team to haul ties from his mill.
Victor Johnson, and family, and Max Klige, and family, visited at the home of Joel Jari on Sunday.

REDLAND.

The young men of the baseball team will give an entertainment at the Evergreen schoolhouse, April 9th. Everybody cordially invited.
Easter was observed at Bethel and Evergreen Sunday schools. A good programme at both places.
Men are blasting rock at Mr. Ripley's ready for the rock crusher.
Mr. and Mrs. Muir have moved into the neighborhood.
Most of the farmers have their grain in and are planting potatoes and garden.
The goat at the Harding Grange must have been rather fractious last Saturday as one of the parties that was initiated had quite a time with a feeding nose.

EAGLE CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gibson, and children, (Mrs. Dora, Earl, Hazel and Franklin) were at James Gibson's Friday, April 9th. It was Mrs. Gibson's 54th birthday, and they came to help him celebrate the day.
S. A. Douglas and daughter, Mrs. ou Baker, visited with Mr. and Mrs. lex Baker Sunday.
Malcolm Woodie was over visiting in folks at the old home place Saturday and Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson, and Miss Ann, spent a few pleasant hours (Mrs. H. F. Gibson Sunday.
Matt Glover was seen in Eagle Creek Sunday afternoon.
Roy Douglass butchered a beef on Sunday evening, and sold part of it today.
Eagle Creek played their second one of the season with the Estacada on Sunday, April 10 on the home ground. Estacada was very badly defeated by the score of 9 to 1. Estacada was almost entirely outclassed lacking enough boosters and letting their tongues run more than was at all necessary.
Sol Garrison was seen in this neighborhood Monday. He stopped at Wesley Douglass' for dinner.

If you have sore eyes of any kind Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It is good for nothing but the eyes. It is painless and harmless, and is simply the best. If you don't say we will refund your money. Try it and then tell your neighbors. Sold everywhere. 25c a tube.
The ingredients are on the carton. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey contains no bit producing drugs, and always gives satisfaction. Look for the bell in the bottle.

SANDY.

Farm work of sowing grain is about done. Everything looks good in these parts, and prospect for a bountiful crop was never better.
Chas. Kreiss has started up his brick yard and will make many thousands of brick this season.
Everybody is anxious to clear and grade the Hood View road. This will be done this summer. If our citizens can get the assistance promised which will no doubt come forth if the road will be changed from its present location. If such a change is made this stretch of three miles road from Sandy west will be one of the grandest scenic roads in Oregon.
Sandy will soon have a bank. Four different parties were in Sandy the past month, and all are favorably impressed with this country. The last man to investigate is Mr. Olsen, of North Dakota, a banker. He is greatly pleased with this country and no doubt will have a bank before the year is past.
Sandy will also have a new bakery. Also a Fuel, Feed, Lime and Cement store, restaurant and many other men of business are contemplating locating here.
Al Edward's new Queen Ann cottage is near completion, and will soon be plastered and painted.
C. Junker has built an addition to his home.
Alf Bell has greatly improved his place by building a new picket fence in front of his property.
L. O. F. of Sandy is doing up things grand. Every Saturday evening and sometimes twice in a week one can see lights in the hall and hear music and many evidences of enjoyment. About twenty new members were taken in the past month.
Pittman Bros. were in town Saturday evening. They have a large force of men clearing on the Messenger farm. They are experts in their line clearing with a big donkey powder and teams. They have built an immense log pile that covers almost four acres and about 40 feet high.
Work is progressing steadily on the Mt. Hood Railway Company's power site on Bullrun and Sandy Rivers. With the building of the Mt. Hood Railway and laying of the new Bullrun Pipe line and twelve big saw-mills running full blast and hundreds of acres of land being cleared for farmers and fruit growers this country will be a paradise for the laboring man for some time to come.
Sandy Grange had a rousing good old time Saturday celebrating its first anniversary, which was attended by a large crowd of members and visitors from far and near. The lecturer, Ed F. Bruns, had a special programme prepared for the occasion, among the splendid selections rendered, being: Song, Mrs. M. C. Miller, the famous singer of Sandy; recitation, Mrs. Geo. Burnett; song, Misses Marie and Katie Junker. A number of good speeches were made by its members. The Grange will decide at its next meeting as to the holding of a fair. A committee consisting of E. T. Bruns and James Deshazer, and F. E. McGugan were appointed to prepare a prospectus for the fair.

Frank Beers, of Cottrell, was in town. He is one of the active members of the Sandy progressive people and is working to have the Hood view road cleared, graded and planked this coming summer.

Miss Alice Haley is home visiting for a few days.
Mrs. Annie McKinley is visiting relatives and friends here.
Kelso school will have a big entertainment the last Saturday in April, with a basket social.
Bee Nelson, one of our prosperous young farmers, now holds the champion's belt for sawing wood for school farms.

Fire almost destroyed a house at Straus' Mill, but was saved by prompt work of passers by.
Your tongue is coated.
Your breath is foul.
Headaches come and go.
These symptoms show that your stomach is the trouble. To remove the cause is the first thing, and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will do that. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by all dealers.

KINDNESS OF McLOUGHLIN.

General McCarver Wrote of His Humanity to Immigrants.

PORTLAND, April 7.—(Editor Enterprise.)—Among a lot of old letters recently secured from Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur, a daughter of the late James W. Nesmith, a pioneer of 1843, and United States Senator from March 4, 1851, to March 4, 1857, I found the following, which I am sure will be interesting reading to many persons in Oregon City:
"Oregon City, Dec. 1, 1853.

"Dear Sir:
"In reply to your letter of the 30th October, and also to an extract contained in it, received by you from Washington City, asking information relative to your treatment of the early immigrants to Oregon, etc., etc., I can say with much pleasure that on the arrival of the first party for the settlement of the Wallamet valley in the fall of 1843, that your treatment then, and at all times subsequent, has been that of unfeeling kindness and Christian-like humanity. The immigrants were met at the Cascade Falls, in the mountains, with boats and provisions, by your orders, with instructions, as I understood it, to furnish all, whether with or without money, with provisions, and, if practicable, with passage and you also continued to furnish provisions to many of them until they were able to raise a crop. Seed wheat, oats and potatoes, and in many instances, stock of various kinds, was furnished, with the understanding that they should be returned when new ones were raised. It was myself, the recipient of some, if not all, of these favors; and I have not a doubt but that the friendship manifested by you contributing largely towards creating the friendly feeling of the natives with the American citizens who were then strangers to them. And I will recollect your promptness in furnishing me with several kegs of powder, and lead, to defend our infant settlements with when we supposed the Indians were meditating an attack upon the Tualatin Plains settlement, in the spring of 1844, and your assistance in dispersing the Indians, who, we thought, were menacing us.
"I am, very respectfully your obedient servant,
"M. M. McCARVER.
"John McLoughlin, Esq.,
"Oregon City, Oregon Territory."
Mr. McCarver, or Gen. McCarver, as he was generally known, was a well known citizen of Oregon City for a number of years, and was Commissary-General of the Oregon volunteers during the Rogue River War, Indian War of 1855-56. He was the founder of Linton, Oregon in the fall of 1842, Sacramento, Cal., in 1849, and of Tacoma, Washington, in 1868.

SAWYER AND HIS "SHUN."

Publicity Secretary Writes Wittingly of Sidewalk Expectoration.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 7.—(Editor Enterprise.)—The writer has observed that Oregon City is no more exempt than other places from the nuisance of expectorating in public places, on bridges and on sidewalks, although there is a state law against the practice. I presume you have a city ordinance also prohibiting such action. Anyway, the law is apparent, and "more honored in the breach than in the observance." There are the ever-present reasons of common decency, cleanliness and the good health of the community why everyone should not commit such an act, and none whatever why one should. It is probably due more to thoughtlessness than to perverseness or malicious intent. If it becomes necessary to expectorate, the gutter is the proper place to which to go. You do by the following:
After due deliberation,
Full meditation,
Some perturbation,
And real consternation,
I make application
To your publication
To print this communication.
So much expectoration
Gives one inclination
To pronounce deep damnation,
Which should merit approbation,
To declare condemnation
Of so vile an occupation,
If not gratification.
All polite education
Counsels full abrogation
Of such abomination.
That administration
Would earn canonization
That would cause a full cessation
Of so much "expectoration."
With much deprecation
Of such degradation,
The decent population
Gives its denunciation.
Since we've proper legislation
There should be no toleration
Of such flagrant violation
And such lawless desecration.
On the sidewalks of the nation,
Please forgive this dissertation
(With so much reiteration)
But give consideration
For our general preservation.
With a little regulation
(Though with full justification)
I extend my application.
Here I make a termination
Of this worthy peroration.
CHAS. E. SAWYER.
