week and at present is assisting H. C. Tozier with his Labowich bungalow at Daley. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terry and little daughter Ellen, of Silver Springs, departed on Sunday for California, where they expect to remain a year. Mr. and Mrs. Terry resided at Jennings Lodge some four years, where they are very well and favorably known and their host of friends are in hopes that their stay will prove beneficial to Mrs. Terry, who has been ill for some weeks. They will visit for awhile at Los Angeles and Oakland, but expect to make their home at Coronado Beach. Mrs. Gerber drove down from Logan and was a week end guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Davy. Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Newell enjoyed a family reunion on Sunday, when their daughter, Mrs. Watson, and two little folks, of Newport, and Miss Emma and Glenn Newell, of Eugene, and E. P. Newell and wife, of Portland, were their guests, also Mrs. Lucy Newell and a friend, Mrs. West, of Los Angeles, California. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, of Canby, were callers at the home of Mrs. Smith and Monday, and on Tuesday Mrs. Smith and two children left Portland for Manchester, Iowa, where they will visit with her parents, who are prominent farmers at that place. Mrs. Geo. Morse visited with her son and family in Portland, on Wednesday of this week. Mrs. T. J. Spooner entertained the progressive club at her home on the Willamette on Tuesday afternoon. Among the members of the club who were present were Messdames J. Jennings, M. Hart, Will Jacobs and M. Shaver and the Misses Arline Shaver, Dorothy Jacobs and Bronie Jennings. Mr. Tibbitts, of Portland, was a Tuesday caller at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Jennings. Owing to the musical at the home of H. C. Panton and wife on Thursday evening, April 28, there will be no meeting of the Industrial Club until Friday afternoon, April 29, when the members will meet at the home of Mrs. H. Roberts to make all arrangements to observe Mother's Day, which the club will observe at their next regular meeting on May 12, with a fine programme. Mr. and Mrs. Needham, of Saginaw, Mich., who have been spending some time in California, called on Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilcox on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Needham were accompanied out from Portland by Mr. Wilcox's daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Holden, who was a former classmate at the Saginaw high school with Mrs. Needham. Mr. and Mrs. Cushman, of Portland, will occupy the new bungalow near the Emmott residence and Prof. Boyer and wife have leased Rock Lodge for the summer. Mr. Jeager, Sr., and two grandsons, of Portland, were pleasant callers on Sunday and expect to come out about May 1st and occupy their cottage. One of the Jeager brothers and family will spend the summer in Europe, and have leased his cottage to Mr. and Mrs. Reed. Mr. and Mrs. Casson and Mr. and Mrs. Hare have purchased river front from Mr. Roeths and will be domiciled there during the summer months. The above families enjoyed camp life at the Lodge during the two previous seasons. Mr. and Mrs. Morse and Mary Jane Panton drove to Willamette on Tuesday. Rev. Shupp spoke on April 24 at the Chapel on the World's Movement and based his sermon on Math. 28-19: 20, and among the many interesting facts their is at present only one missionary for every 75,000 people in foreign lands, while in America we have one preacher for every 200 people.

Don't Strain Your Eyes

If you are troubled with headaches or dull pains around the eyes you had better consult a skilled optician. We will be glad to attend to your case and can guarantee the best results. Stop in some day and let us find out for you exactly what the trouble is with your eyes. Examination costs you nothing and it may save you a lot of trouble later on. Perhaps your glasses are a little out of shape. We are always glad to straighten them for you free of charge.

A STOPPED WATCH

is worse than no watch at all. We repair the highest grade watches with the same ease that we would a cheap watch. There is no job that we are afraid to tackle, and when we repair your watch for you we put it in perfect shape. We fix tired clocks so that they run again as good as new. WE REPAIR Rings, Pins, Chains, Eye Glasses and such things, and guarantee our work to give complete satisfaction. Leave your repairing in our hands and you will get all that long experience and honesty can give.

JENNINGS LODGE.

About 20 young people were delightfully entertained Wednesday of last week, when they called at the Downing home to meet Mrs. Downing, who recently returned from an all winter's trip in California. Neither Mr. or Mrs. Downing were aware of the plans of the young people until they had entered and taken possession of their home. Amusements of various kinds were indulged in and a merry time was had by the guests who certainly enjoyed the evening most thoroughly. Dainty refreshments were served, and all too fast the evening passed away. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hans, Misses Kruse, Anselton, Harrington, Westerfield, Ryersonson, Hulbert and Morse, and the Messrs. Hallowell, Higgins, Caulfield, Heintz, May, Richards, and Mr. and Mrs. Downing. Many callers were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmons on Sunday. Among those spending the day were Prof. Boyer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Price, and Mr. and Mrs. Cushman. Boating, launching and canoeing are being enjoyed these delightful evenings by many of the Jennings Lodge people. Mr. Baberman, of Grants Pass, is a visitor at the home of his son, N. L. Baberman, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Panton, Mrs. Chas. Clough and Miss Scripture went down to Milwaukie last week and heard Mrs. Shepard, of Utah, who spoke in the interests of the W. C. T. U., and enjoyed this world-wide speaker's address very much. Fred Tozier, of Eugene, was a visitor at his brother's home during last
