

LARSEN & COMPANY

Cor 10th & Main St. OREGON CITY, OREGON.

Wholesale and Retail GROCERIES AND PRODUCE

LAND PLASTER Hay, Grain, Field, Flower and Garden Seeds.

WE PAY CASH FOR COUNTRY PRODUCE

LOCAL BRIEFS

Dr. L. G. Ice, Dentist, Rooms 17 and 18, Masonic Bldg.

Old newspapers given away at Enterprise office.

J. R. Kelso, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on business Saturday.

License to marry was issued Monday to Annie Payne and B. F. Dudley.

A. Clark, of Milwaukie, was in this city Monday morning on a business trip.

Dr. Townley, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on professional business Monday.

Miss Amy Rochester, of Portland, is the guest for a few days of Mrs. Edward Schwab.

T. R. A. Sellwood, a prominent resident of Milwaukie, was in this city Thursday on business.

State Tax Commissioner Charles Galloway, of Salem, was in Oregon City on business Friday.

Dr. Townley, of Milwaukie, a prominent physician of that city, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. Frank Bernier and Harriet Goodell were visiting over Sunday with friends at Newberg.

Mrs. J. W. Norris has gone to Monument, where she will visit with her son, Dr. Rea Norris, and wife.

Miss Laura Smith, after visiting relatives in this city for several days, left Friday for White Salmon, Wash.

Charles Blum, formerly of this city, but now of Portland, is confined in the hospital with typhoid pneumonia.

H. Trembath, who has been seriously ill at Milwaukie for the past year, is improving rapidly, and is visiting in this city.

Miss Zelma Shaver, of Portland, was in this city Friday afternoon on her way to Marquam, where she will visit with relatives.

J. T. Errington, of Dixie, California, who has been visiting with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Schwab, returned to his home Monday.

J. R. Latourrette, an attorney of Portland, passed through the city Monday en route from Eugene, where he had been spending a few days.

Clifford L. Ziegler, who has been the linotype operator for the Oregon City Enterprise, left on Saturday night for Portland, where he has accepted a similar position.

George Hall, who recently returned from Bend, has accepted a position with the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company, and will travel for the company.

Merrill Scripture, who is a graduate of one of the business colleges of Portland, has taken a position with the Portland branch of the Marshall Wells Hardware Company.

C. W. Noblitt, one of the prominent pioneers of the state, whose residence is at Needy, is visiting for a few days with his daughter, Mrs. M. J. Moreland, of 8th and Main streets.

Mrs. J. C. Paddock, who left several weeks ago for Long Beach, Oregon, where she has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Dedman, has returned and is much improved in health.

Mrs. Clara Chute, an old resident of Kansas City Addition, was taken to Portland Friday, where she will undergo an operation for cataracts of the eyes, at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Mrs. S. M. Surfas, of this city, accompanied her there.

Mrs. C. O. T. Williams and daughter, Mrs. C. G. Miller, accompanied by the latter's son, will leave on Saturday for Bend, Oregon, where they will visit with the former's daughter, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence.

Dr. C. H. Trullinger, a well known oculian and really operator of Hubbard, was in the city on business yesterday.

County Judge Dimick has made appointments to deliver addresses at Silverton, May 7, and at Cottage Grove May 14.

The Clackamas County Rose Society will hold its regular meeting at 3 o'clock next Saturday afternoon in the parlors of the Commercial Club.

Dr. Thomas J. Fox, of Portland, has arrived in Oregon City to locate and has taken office in the Masonic Building. Dr. Fox is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Licenses to marry were issued Wednesday to Anna Frederic and Martin Denny, Nora Elrean and J. W. Tohrnberry, Dora Estelle Embree and Hugh Matheson.

Ralph Cronie, of Salem, a former student of the University of Oregon, is rounding up the work of enumerating the people of Canby for the United States census and will have his task completed before May 15.

Norman White and F. E. White, who left here in the early spring, for their homestead in Lake County, have been heard from, and report that while digging a well on their claim they struck salt water and found many sea shells. They had reached a depth of 46 feet.

Lloyd Williams, deputy recorder, has returned from Idaho. Mr. Williams visited at Boise City, Idaho, for four weeks, and on his return he visited with his brother, Dr. A. H. Williams, a dentist of that place. He was joined at Half Way by his wife and children, who accompanied him home.

Mrs. A. L. Blanchard left Monday for Springfield, where she attended the funeral of her cousin, the late L. Marrs, whose death occurred at Salem. Mr. Marrs was at one time one of the prominent residents of Springfield. He leaves five children, Jack Marrs, of Mount Pleasant, being one of the sons.

Mrs. L. J. Gordon, of Stevenson, Wash., arrived in this city on Thursday afternoon and will visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Amen, of Maple Lane. After visiting there for two weeks she will go to Kenton, Oregon, where her husband has preceded her, which place will be their future home.

H. N. Cadell, who has been connected with the real estate firm of W. F. Schooley & Company for the last two years, has retired and will probably move to Portland. Mr. Schooley only recently returned from an extended trip in the East, where he placed in circulation a great deal of literature concerning the resources and advantages of Oregon and Clackamas County in particular.

Kenneth S. Latourrette returned Saturday evening from New York. He has been traveling during the year among the colleges in the Eastern States. He returned by way of California and visited the universities at Stanford and Berkeley. Mr. Latourrette will be here a month, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Latourrette. He will return to New York and at that city will take steamer for China, and will become an instructor in the new Yale University in Central China.

Mrs. J. C. P. Westergard and family, who have been spending the past four years in Europe, have returned, and are now making their home in this city. Mr. Westergard having purchased the business of Alvin Miley. Miss Florence and Miss Melba Westergard have been studying the violin and piano under some of the great masters in Berlin, and have opened a studio at their home at 607 Center street. Mrs. Westergard has also been studying voice culture. Before going to Europe she took an active part in chorus work in concerts given in Portland, her former home. Her children are musicians with a great future before them, and have made wonderful progress with their music since going to Europe.

Jersey Cattle For Clackamas. A great many stockmen from here attended the auction sale of Jersey cattle at Seaplace last Tuesday. This herd is one of the best in the United States. Three fine bulls were brought into this county by William J. W. Vaushan, of Molalla, and Mr. Kaufman, of Needy. The prices ranged from $200 to $400. It is expected that these animals, which are of the best strains in the country, will be exhibited at the Clackamas County Fair in Canby next Fall. The purchase of these high bred animals in Clackamas County will not only benefit the owners, but the county as a whole.

Services at Christian Church. Christian church, Gladstone, services Sunday, May 8; Bible school at 10, preaching at 11 and 7:45. Morning theme, "The Serpent That Bites, and the Adder That Stings." Evening theme, "A Great Victory Over the Greatest Tyrant." Special music, A. H. Mulkey, Pastor.

The fourth anniversary of the Pythian Sisters was observed in a most brilliant manner in the Woodmen hall on Monday evening, when about 150 people attended. Orpha Temple, of Portland, attended in a body and enjoyed the hospitality of the local organization. The reception room, where the programme was given, and the banquet hall were artistically decorated for the occasion. The lodge room was in lilacs, apple blossoms and colors of the order, while the dining room was in white, yellow, blue and red, the colors of the order, the table being very attractive with decorations of white and green. A banquet was served after the following programme was given: Instrumental selection, Oscar Woodfin; quartette, Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Mrs. W. C. Green, Roy Woodward, R. E. Woodward; reading, Mrs. Baker, of Portland; vocal solo, Mrs. Leon Des Larzes; ladies' quartette, Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Mrs. W. C. Green, Mrs. Leon Des Larzes, Miss Grace Shewman; address, Mrs. Geyartz, of Portland; address, Mrs. Hostetter, of Albany; piano solo, Miss Mabel Volkner; address, Judge G. B. Dimick; vocal solo, Mrs. Leon Des Larzes.

The following committees had charge of the affair: Entertainment, Mrs. Bruce Zumwalt, Mrs. M. P. Chapman; refreshments, Mrs. Fred Simmons, Miss Harriet Hayes; banquet, Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow, Mrs. A. L. Blount, Mrs. Barton Barlow, Mrs. C. A. Baxter, Mrs. Otto Erickson, Mrs. A. M. White, Mrs. W. H. Smith. The ladies of these committees had charge of the decorations.

Dancing was enjoyed after the banquet was served. One of the

DISPLAY AT STATE FAIR

CLACKAMAS COUNTY WILL HAVE LARGE AND CREDITABLE EXHIBIT AT SALEM.

FREYTAG WORKS HARD

Every Effort Will Be Put Forward to Secure Fine Display of Products of the Soil and Factories.

Through the efforts of O. E. Freytag, vice-president of the Clackamas County Fair Association, and other officers of the Association, there will be a fine exhibit this year from Clackamas County at the State Fair, which will be held September 12 to 17 at Salem. Mr. Freytag has been appointed superintendent of the pavilion at the State Fair and nothing will be left undone to make the Clackamas County exhibit successful. Already offers have been made for displays.

The Oregon City Manufacturing Company's woolen mills will have a large exhibit of blankets and robes, and it is expected that the paper mills will have their products on exhibition at Salem. Every effort will be put forward by Mr. Freytag and his associates to secure a great display of the products of the soil, along agricultural and horticultural lines.

The State Fair is scheduled in advance of the annual Clackamas County Fair and the exhibits will be brought from Salem and displayed at the Canby pavilion, where it may be seen by those who were not able to attend the State Fair.

ELLIOTT GOES SCOT FREE.

State Fails to Prove Charge Against Eagle Creek Man.

Judge Campbell Wednesday afternoon instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal in the case of the State of Oregon vs. E. E. Elliott, who was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of selling liquor to W. P. Farrel on April 11 last, in Eagle Creek, Precinct, which is dry. Farrel went on the stand and swore that he had never obtained liquor from Elliott on that date and on this showing Judge Campbell ordered a directed verdict. Two witnesses testified they had obtained liquor from Elliott and the State had other witnesses to prove that Elliott had dispensed intoxicants.

MUSICIANS WILL MAKE HOME IN OREGON CITY.

Mrs. J. C. P. Westergard and family, who have been spending the past four years in Europe, have returned, and are now making their home in this city. Mr. Westergard having purchased the business of Alvin Miley. Miss Florence and Miss Melba Westergard have been studying the violin and piano under some of the great masters in Berlin, and have opened a studio at their home at 607 Center street. Mrs. Westergard has also been studying voice culture. Before going to Europe she took an active part in chorus work in concerts given in Portland, her former home. Her children are musicians with a great future before them, and have made wonderful progress with their music since going to Europe.

Jersey Cattle For Clackamas.

A great many stockmen from here attended the auction sale of Jersey cattle at Seaplace last Tuesday. This herd is one of the best in the United States. Three fine bulls were brought into this county by William J. W. Vaushan, of Molalla, and Mr. Kaufman, of Needy. The prices ranged from $200 to $400. It is expected that these animals, which are of the best strains in the country, will be exhibited at the Clackamas County Fair in Canby next Fall. The purchase of these high bred animals in Clackamas County will not only benefit the owners, but the county as a whole.

Services at Christian Church.

Christian church, Gladstone, services Sunday, May 8; Bible school at 10, preaching at 11 and 7:45. Morning theme, "The Serpent That Bites, and the Adder That Stings." Evening theme, "A Great Victory Over the Greatest Tyrant." Special music, A. H. Mulkey, Pastor.

SOCIETY

The fourth anniversary of the Pythian Sisters was observed in a most brilliant manner in the Woodmen hall on Monday evening, when about 150 people attended. Orpha Temple, of Portland, attended in a body and enjoyed the hospitality of the local organization. The reception room, where the programme was given, and the banquet hall were artistically decorated for the occasion. The lodge room was in lilacs, apple blossoms and colors of the order, while the dining room was in white, yellow, blue and red, the colors of the order, the table being very attractive with decorations of white and green. A banquet was served after the following programme was given: Instrumental selection, Oscar Woodfin; quartette, Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Mrs. W. C. Green, Roy Woodward, R. E. Woodward; reading, Mrs. Baker, of Portland; vocal solo, Mrs. Leon Des Larzes; ladies' quartette, Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Mrs. W. C. Green, Mrs. Leon Des Larzes, Miss Grace Shewman; address, Mrs. Geyartz, of Portland; address, Mrs. Hostetter, of Albany; piano solo, Miss Mabel Volkner; address, Judge G. B. Dimick; vocal solo, Mrs. Leon Des Larzes.

The following committees had charge of the affair: Entertainment, Mrs. Bruce Zumwalt, Mrs. M. P. Chapman; refreshments, Mrs. Fred Simmons, Miss Harriet Hayes; banquet, Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow, Mrs. A. L. Blount, Mrs. Barton Barlow, Mrs. C. A. Baxter, Mrs. Otto Erickson, Mrs. A. M. White, Mrs. W. H. Smith. The ladies of these committees had charge of the decorations.

Dancing was enjoyed after the banquet was served. One of the features of the evening was the presentation of a handsome pillow to the Knights of Pythias by two Pythian Sisters, Mrs. Delbert Hart and Mrs. Isaac Purisful. This pillow, a work of art, was decorated with the emblem of the K. of P. in the colors of the order.

Mr. Harrison drew the lucky number, and the presentation speech was made by Levy Stipp. This was a complete surprise not only to the members of the Knights of Pythias but also to the Pythian Sisters.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ream, of Williamette, Wednesday night, when their daughter, Miss Alice Ream, became the wife of Mr. Joseph Walter Thornberry, of Astoria. The impressive marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Bollinger, of Portland, under a white floral bell, which was suspended from an arch of Oregon grape. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengren's wedding march, played by Miss Alice Oliver. The bridemaid was Miss Alma Rowatt, of Portland, who wore blue silk and carried pink carnations. R. D. Seary, of Portland, was best man. The bride was handsomely gowned in white messaline silk, wearing a wreath of orange blossoms, sent by her aunt in California. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses.

After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served. Many handsome gifts of silver, cut glass and Haviland China were presented to the couple.

The reception hall of the Ream home was in white and green, while the parlors, where the marriage ceremony took place, was in corresponding colors, snowballs and Oregon grape being used in profusion. The dining room was in white and lavender lilacs.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornberry left on the 11 o'clock car for Portland, and from there they will go to Astoria, where the groom is manager of the Townsend Creamery. The bride is a well known young woman of Williamette, where she has a host of friends, who extend their best wishes.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benson at Logan, when their daughter, Miss Anna Louise Benson became the wife of Edward Anderson, the ceremony being performed by Judge W. W. H. Samson of this city. The Benson home was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Miss Emma Benson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Douglas Anderson, of Portland, the groom's brother, acted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony a beautiful wedding feast was enjoyed, after which the happy pair left on their honeymoon. Those attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Anderson, Mrs. O. Benson, J. S. Gill, Mrs. H. Gill, Miss Mahala Gill, A. Gill, Miss Ivah Benson, Miss Dorothy Benson, Miss Selma Benson, Mrs. W. W. H. Samson, Miss Emma Benson, Mrs. A. V. Anderson, E. B. Anderson, C. H. Johnson, D. Anderson, H. Gill, R. Benson, M. M. Strite, A. B. Combs, M. E. Strite and L. Lavagetta of Portland. Both of the young people are well and favorably known in this city.

Miss Mabel Summers, of Portland, daughter of Mrs. Agnes G. Summers, and George A. Lee, Assistant Attorney General of the State of Washington, were quietly married in this city Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. S. A. Hayworth officiating. The bride is an accomplished young woman, and has visited in this city on several occasions with her aunt, Mrs. R. L. Greaves. Harry Greaves, cousin of the bride, of this city, and Mrs. Summers were the only witnesses of the marriage ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Summers came to this city by automobile, and upon their return to Portland, the bride and groom took the train for California, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will make future home at Spokane, Wash.

Miss Ethel Walls, formerly of this city, daughter of A. C. Walls, and the late Mrs. May Walls, was united in marriage to J. W. Bailey, state food and dairy commissioner, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Labor, 995 First street, Portland, on Wednesday evening. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. A. B. Minna, ket, of the Immanuel Baptist Church. The bride is well and favorably known in this city, where she resided for some time with her parents, before going to Portland. She was a graduate nurse, and was very successful in her profession. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Porter, of Gladstone, are Mrs. Bailey's grandparents, and were among the 30 guests who witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey are to make their future home in Portland, after their return from their honeymoon throughout the state.

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith at Canemah on Friday evening, the occasion being the 20th birthday anniversary of their son, Louis. The evening was devoted to music and games, which were followed by refreshments. The surprise was complete, and the evening was very pleasantly spent.

Present were Miss Beryl Long, Miss Doss Mead, Miss Verna Mead, Miss Ruth Hedges, Miss Carrie Balcom, Miss Minnie Klenssen, Miss Grace Marshall, Miss Ruby Nuttall, Miss Aletha Jackson, Miss Bunny Owenby, Miss Helen Smith, Messrs. Arch Long, Peter Long, Edson Long, Alfred Bolton, Oliver Frost, Chester Carothers, Herman Rabel, Walter Wentworth, Don Loveridge, Will Freeman, Alfred Klenssen, Beldon Ganonk, William Stokes, Jimmie Budorich, Louis Smith, Edward Smith, Mrs. Frank Schell, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eby, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith.

The marriage of Hugh Matheson to Miss Dora Estelle Embree was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride on Main st, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets. Rev. S. A. Hayworth, pastor of the First Baptist church officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony, which was followed by a light luncheon. Mr. Matheson is connected with the Oregon City Furniture Manufacturing Company.

Mrs. Mary LaForest, one of the old and prominent pioneers of Oregon, was taken by surprise at her home Saturday afternoon, when a few of her neighbors called to remind her that it was her birthday. Several birthday gifts were presented to her,

WEDDING GIFT SUGGESTIONS Libbey's Celebrated Cut Glass 1847 ROGERS BROS Fine Haviland and Hand-Painted China ware

Nothing comes quite so near a bride's heart as the gift of Silver, Cut Glass and Chinaware from her friends, which go so far toward making the new home both comfortable and beautiful.

Those desiring to select articles for gift purposes, combining the useful with the ornamental, and which will be a constant and pleasing reminder of the gift, will find selection an easy task here, yet the price will be found moderate, whatever the choice; probably considerably lower than elsewhere.

Table with 3 columns: CUT GLASS (NAPPIES, BOWLS, VASES, SUGARS, CREAMERS, TRAYS, WATER SETS, SALTS, PEPPERS, VINEGAR JUGS, SPOON TRAYS, ETC.), SILVERWARE (CAKE BASKETS, TRAYS, TEA SETS, BERRY SPOONS, KNIVES, FORKS, SPOONS, Separate and in sets BAKING DISHES, FRUIT KNIVES, ETC.), CHINAWARE (FANCY PLATES, SUGARS and CREAMERS, SALAD BOWLS, BERRY SETS, CUPS and SAUCERS, PITCHERS, CAKE PLATES, COMPLETE SETS of HAVILAND and AUSTRIAN CHINAWARE.)

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN OREGON CITY JEWELERS SUSPENSION BRIDGE CORNER

and all wishing her many more birthday anniversaries. The marriage of Mrs. Maggie Whitlock to Adolph H. George, of Portland, took place in this city last Saturday evening at 9:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church, Rev. S. A. Hayworth officiating.

A home wedding took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Himler, of Parkplace, the contracting parties being Miss Lela Baker and George Himler. Justice of the Peace W. H. Samson performed the ceremony. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Baker, of Heppner, Or., while the groom is a well known resident of this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Himler will make their home at Parkplace.

The dancing party given at the Armory on Saturday night by Milton Price was a decided success. There was a large attendance, and the music furnished by Farmer's orchestra was excellent.

The Women's Club met at the Commercial Club rooms Thursday. A debate was given, which was "Resolved, that woman is governed by sensibilities more than by sense." The judges were Miss Mollie Barlow, Mrs. H. Emmons and Mrs. W. A. Shewman, who decided unanimously in favor of the negative. Mrs. George C. Brownell was the first who spoke on the affirmative, and was followed by Mrs. Downey, of the negative, Mrs. M. M. Charman, affirmative, and Mrs. T. E. Beard, negative, were the others who talked on this subject. The next meeting of the club will be held May 11, when the election of officers takes place.

The engagement of Miss Sybil Lippitt, formerly of this city, but now of Portland, and Mr. Henry Goldsmith, of San Francisco, is announced. Miss Lippitt is well and favorably known in this city, where she has many friends.

The annual May ball of the German Verein will be held Saturday, May 7, in Armory Hall. The German society is making elaborate preparations for the evening and the committee in charge is D. M. Klenssen, L. A. Nobel, H. W. Streibig and Chris Hartmann.

All Grangers While attending the State Grange in Oregon City next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday Are invited to make L. ADAMS Oregon City's Big Department Store their Headquarters Visit the new furniture department

Alberta Farm Land

The Canadian Pacific Railway Track Bow River Valley, Southern Alberta

Fresh land on the market all the time, right on the Railroad—no stumps, no brush.

Sold at low figures, on ten years time—cannot be beat for investment. Buy while it is cheap.

Come with us and see for yourself. Excursions leave Portland every ten days. See Agent at

C. H. DYE'S LAW OFFICE Corner 8th and Main Streets OREGON CITY, OREGON

THE BANK OF OREGON CITY