The Mountain View Improvement Club held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening, the subject of city water on the hill was discussed. We must have city privileges if we continue in the city.

Maple Lane Grange held its regular meeting last Saturday and initiated three candidates. The lecturer's hour was very profitably spent. First a song, "Plover, Spade and Hoe," by the Grange; reading by Mrs. A. A. Swallow; song, "Fair as the Morning," by Mrs. S. A. Gillett; lecture by Hon. G. B. Dingle and C. Schumacher on "Taxation" and other interesting topics; they came out in the automobile in time for dinner, which was much enjoyed by all.

Banks on Sure Thing Now.
"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills again," writes A. Schlegel, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N. Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed." Unparalleled for biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, headache, chills, malaria and debility. 25c at Jones Drug Co.

MULINO.
The light showers last week were of benefit to the growing crops, but a little more rain would have been appreciated. Grain is making a good growth and the prospects are good for a bountiful harvest.

visiting at the home of her brother for several weeks.

Mrs. Reed and daughter, Miss Ruth, visited friends in Wilsonville on Saturday and Sunday.

Children's Day will be observed at the Congregational Church at Hood View on Sunday morning, the 13th, and an excellent program is being prepared for that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Baker spent several days last week at the Rose Fair, in Portland, and at the home of their son, Clyde.

On account of the month of June being the time of blides and roses, the Wilsonville bachelors have been rather absent minded lately, and allowed the Aurora team to beat them in the last baseball encounter, but wait until the 4th of July.

Mrs. Darby, the wife of our genial druggist, has been visiting friends in Corvallis for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wagner have four carpenters at work under the direction of Mr. Chalupsky, and are building quite a few rooms to their home.

Don't miss hearing Professor Alderman, of Eugene, on the evening of the 16th. Admission is free. Everybody is invited to attend.

All the good things are piling up in the entertainment line this month. Miss Brobst's recital on the 24th will be of a high order, and doubtless a large audience will greet this village favorite. Ice cream will be sold at the close of the musical program.

The school picnic on Saturday last was largely attended. Mr. Beethune, the teacher of the school, left nothing undone in order to give all those who were present a genuine good time. The program by the children was especially enjoyed, as was also the baseball game between Wilsonville and Tualatin, to say nothing of the beautiful and splendid dinner topped off with ice cream. Although the home team was badly beaten in the ball game, they were good losers, and no unkind remarks were heard, but the boys are keeping a "stiff upper lip" and are ready to go at it again.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA.

Death, the reaper, came into our midst very suddenly and unexpectedly last week, and took an old friend and respected resident, Mrs. Reuter attended church twice on Sunday, and Monday did her washing with the help of a young granddaughter, then picked up and went to her woodland. Suddenly she was taken with severe pains in the region of the stomach, about noon, but did not send for any one until the next morning, when her daughter, Mrs. Philip Baker, was called, who came with her husband immediately, and neighbors and friends came in. Dr. Mount was then called. Mrs. Reuter suffered intensely until midnight of Tuesday, when she rested easier and fell asleep, and all thinking her better, went home, leaving Mrs. Baker and her daughter alone. About 9 o'clock a change was noticed in the condition of Mrs. Reuter, and she passed away immediately. Mrs. Nemer was called and she performed the sad office of preparing the body for the grave, while Joe Remce mounted a horse and notified Mr. Baker and others, and telephoned from Mr. Powell to her brother, Mr. Shafter, and family, on the Willamette road. Mrs. Reuter will be missed by many. She was of a kindly nature, and leaves a host of friends, besides Mrs. Baker's daughter, of Stafford, and Gottlieb Reuter, a son of Portland, and seven grandchildren to mourn her loss. She was 69 years of age, and had had several attacks of catarrh of the stomach, of which she died. She was buried Thursday afternoon, and 24 hours later her brother, Mr. Shafter, was stricken with paralysis.

Mrs. Gage and little granddaughter went down to St. Helens Saturday to visit her son and family, returning on Tuesday. She found the son, John Q., not very well, but better by Monday night, and the baby of two years afflicted with the whooping cough. Luckily, the other three children had had the disease three years ago.

Miss Mary Schieve, who attended her grandmother's funeral, staid with her mother, Mrs. Baker, who was nearly prostrated with the shock of her mother's sudden death.

Mr. and Mrs. Millem returned to their home near Mt. Taber on Thursday of last week, to remain about a week, and perhaps take in the rose show before their return.

W. B. Smidt and Miss Jessie May Schulte were married by Rev. J. L. Jones at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Paul, Clackamas, on Sunday afternoon, June 5. Mr. Smidt's friends from Portland, the Hargrove, with several others from Clackamas helped to make the occasion a very pleasant one. The bride, one of Clackamas' beautiful daughters, was prettily dressed in steel silk. Mr. and Mrs. Smidt, with Mr. Smidt's three children, will make their home for the present, half a mile west of Clackamas. Mr. Smidt is a contractor and builder and is putting up a fine house for Mr. Paul.

W. B. Reynolds has installed a water plant on his premises, consisting of a gasoline engine and water tank. The latter has a capacity of 500 gallons. The water is obtained from a drove well about 60 feet deep. Piping is laid to his dwelling, to the cottage rented by Mr. Paul, and west across the road to the peach orchard and chicken yard. Hydrants are placed so that irrigation is possible where ever needed.

Mrs. Oleson and Mrs. Kirich, of leth for publication, and a copy given to the bereaved family.

Rev. J. L. Jones and family were relieved from quarantine last Thursday. Officer Dauchey, of Gladstone, came out and thoroughly fumigated the persons and premises. Mr. Jones preached at Parkplace Sabbath morning and at Clackamas in the evening. A large congregation, mostly young people, was present to welcome himself and family to the "keys of the city." Mr. Jones will occupy his pulpit here again next Sabbath morning, Sunday School at 10 A. M.; preaching at 11 A. M.

Mrs. Gage and little granddaughter went down to St. Helens Saturday to visit her son and family, returning on Tuesday.
