Great Mark Down Handled Book Sale

Sweeping Reductions 15 per cent. to 331 per cent. Off Our Former Low Prices. Superb De Luxe Sample Sets and Handled Bindery Reminders Almost Given Away.

At the end of our remarkably successful De Luxe book sales, we find our entire stock consists of sets which have been more or less handled as samples used in counter and window displays. Moreover no further supply of these sets can be obtained exceping "Edition ends," slightly rubbed or marred by careless handling in the binderies.

Therefore not only our present stock but any more of these sets which we may obtain will be sold at the reduced handled set Prices below which eclipse all former bookselling records.

We guarantee evry book perfect inside and the biudings are not really damaged, except for a slight abrasion or scar here and there usually on only or two volumes of a set. Often the abrasion is scarcely noticeable and in no case is the result of handling more than as if the set had been in one's library for a short time. Still the sets cannot be shipped as absolutely perfect, hence these radically cut prices.

Money will be promptly refunded if you are not satisfied with any purchase.
