PASSENGER RATES

"I'll never be without Dr. King's LOCAL MERCHANTS FILE COM-PLAINT TO HAVE LOWER FARE TO PORTLAND

In an effort to secure a reduction in fare between Oregon City and Portland over the line of the Portland Railway Light & Power Company Co., M. E. Dunn, a local merchant, has filed a suit through Attorney George C. Brownell, with the State Railroad Commission. It is contended that patrons of the Oregon City divison pay a greater charge per mile than people living along the line of the Spring-water division; that the fare between Concord and Portland, a distance of 9.51 miles, is 20 cents; while between Kendall and Portland, a distance of 9.32 miles, the fare is only 10 cents. Other similar instances are recited in the complaint, which charges that the rates between Oregon City and Portland are unreasonable, unjustly people went to the Rose Carnival this discriminatory and unduly prejudicial week.
