SANDY.

Showers of blessing have been falling the past week, making the farmers smile the smile that won't come off.

Crops of all kinds are looking fine; some farmers have cut hay. Sandy real estate is moving at a lively rate. Prices are at a good point and many homeseekers and investors are buying land here.

Joe and John Meyer have sold their 160 acres for $9,000. Jonarud Brothers sold 30 acres log land at $140 per acre to A. C. Johnson. Penick & Co. have sold their farm, consisting of 200 acres, for $2,500, including all personal and real property, to a Hood River man, who expects to put most of the improved land into apples.

George Eperon's farm was sold recently for $8,000.

The Mount Hood railway has closed the deal on 400 acres just north of town.

Mr. Moxley, lately from Southern Oregon, has bought 20 acres of Mr. Webster.

Sandy Land Company sold two lots to A. L. Davis, who will build at once. Mr. Davis just sold his farm near Cottrell for $5,000.

L. Davis and Mrs. C. Hollister have both purchased lots in Sandy. Frank Rhodes has also purchased a lot and will build at once.

H. Allen has sold his house and lot on Proctor avenue to Gust Dahms.

Max Davis has his hangar almost completed, and will soon move in.

D. W. McKee has his house completed and moved into it.

George Bornstedt's new bungalow is nearing completion a handsome residence in Yonker's addition.

P. T. Shelley has moved into town to take charge of the blacksmith shop he lately purchased. Mr. Shelley will immediately erect a big building for an implement house, where he will keep for sale everything from a garden rake to a threshing machine.

H. Perrot has built an addition to his blacksmith shop.

Mrs. Lane has opened up a quick lunch counter, which makes the second restaurant for Sandy.

The Sandy M. E. church had a big time. Rev. Zimmerman delivered a lecture with stereoscopic pictures on temperance, and was attended by a large crowd.

A new addition has been opened up where lots will be sold just northeast of town on Cedar Creek, by Renfer & Smith, of Portland. They have already sold eight lots and most of the buyers will build summer homes thereon.

Mr. Kara's new residence is complete and he is now living in it. He will build another house soon to rent.

The Firwood and Dover telephone was consolidated and incorporated and will at once extend its line into every home of Sandy and surrounding country, with Sandy the central.

Sandy will observe the glorious Fourth in a grand old-fashioned style both day and night. An excellent program has been prepared. J. J. Jeffries, of Portland, will be orator of the day. Among the attractions will be singing led by the Sandy Glee Club and quartet. The sports of the day will be a wrestling match between two local champions, wheelbarrow race, foot race, baseball and numerous other sports.

W. A. Proctor and son, Fred, have gone to the Carson Hot Springs.

J. Tawney will move his family to Woodlawn to live in the future.

M. Davis has opened up a photograph gallery in Sandy, and is doing a good business.

M. A. Maroney has gone to Portland on business.

Dr. Lipton has moved into his new home.

Vic Fosberg has sold his house and lot to M. McGugin.

A band of gypsies have been camping near town on their way to North Dakota, so they said.

graduation exercises of her daughter, Ethel.

A. J. Moxley's brother, from Southern Oregon, recently purchased the Webster place.

The Ladies' Mutual met with Mrs. W. Fischer last week, and spent a very pleasant and profitable afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Wm. Botham's, June 30.

Mrs. Anna Boothby and Miss Anna Jari, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mrs. Boothby's sister, Mrs. W. Stevens.

Little Marjorie Stevens celebrated her eighth birthday Sunday, June 19, receiving a number of nice gifts, among them a fine birthday cake.

E. D. Hart was transacting business in Portland last week in the interests of the Firwood-Dover Telephone Co.

Mrs. Reed has been confined to her bed for several days.

The Mt. Hood Fruit Growers will meet Saturday, June 25, at Firwood Hall.

James Lumper left for Portland last Monday, expecting to be away for several weeks. Mr. Lumper has a job of burning brick for a company in Portland, and each Summer he helps them through the busy season.

Next month the library books will be exchanged. Anyone wishing to read any of this set, must get busy. Misses Ethel and Ruth and Master Ernest Hart are spending their Summer vacation on their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Irlt Jonarud, of Kelso, visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Belle last week.

Joe Whigg's daughter, of Portland, is spending a part of her vacation with him.

Warren Wilkins made several business trips to Gresham lately.

H. T. Hart, of Montavilla, spent Sunday with E. D. Hart.

W. Stevens came out from Portland Saturday and spent Sunday on his ranch.

John Sigelair was down from Salmon River Sunday.

If you are not satisfied after using according to directions two-thirds of a bottle of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, you can have your money back. The tablets cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the digestion, regulate the bowels. Give them a trial and get well. Sold by all dealers.

DOVER.

Donald Bodley was a Portland visitor last Tuesday.

At the school meeting Monday H. H. Udell was elected director and C. A. King clerk.

John Roberts is home from Corvallis, where he has been attending school.

Guy Wordie is suffering with a swollen arm. He was in Sandy Monday to consult with Dr. Lipton.

Mrs. Madeline Kitzmiller, Clarke, Murphy and Baker were up to Dover last Monday picking strawberries.

Joe DeShazer and family went to Sandy Tuesday.

Mrs. Bews is able to be up and around the house after a week's illness.

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keith Monday evening, celebrating Gaylord and Helen Keith's birthdays. Games were played, taffy pulled and all left at a late hour wishing the children many more happy birthdays.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The Firwood Progressive Association was well attended. After the business meeting a short but interesting program was rendered.

John Roberts, who has just returned from the Oregon Agricultural College, gave a short talk on the college, and J. F. Brush, who recently came from thicket, N. Y., gave a vocal selection which was greatly enjoyed by all. At the business meeting there was some talk of building a new hall for Firwood, and a committee of five named: B. F. Hart, W. Botham, W. Fischer, A. Malar and E. D. Hart, were appointed to look into the matter.

Clair Corey made a business trip to Portland last Monday.
