Conditions in the town of Estacada relative to the liquor traffic have not been cleared by the straw vote that was taken there last Monday evening. The council called an advisory election to ascertain whether the people wanted regular saloon licenses or whether they wanted even the near-beer stands closed. It is said that the "dry" element did not all vote, but the result gave a majority of one vote for the "wets." This was hardly a majority enough to clear the atmosphere, and Estacada occupies the peculiar position of having negotiations without the revenue that is usually derived from such resorts.

At the June election two years ago the precinct went dry by about 30 majority. Later two resorts were given a license to operate pool, billiard and card tables, at a stipulated fee of $25 per quarter. The council, in view of the attitude expressed by the vote, declined to issue licenses for the sale of near-beer, but the men who are conducting the two resorts at Estacada were given to understand, it is said, that they might dispense near-beer without fear of being molested by the city authorities. The result has been that it has not been difficult to get liquor in the town. Near-beer is sold openly, without license, and it is stated that the real estate is shipped from Portland to Corvallis, and transported from the latter place by wagon.

W. A. Heylman, former mayor of Estacada, was in the city yesterday, and expressed some decided opinions at the existing conditions.
"The City Council has no legal right to issue any sort of a license for the sale of liquor, be it near-beer or any other intoxicant. The council has been advised by City Attorney Bartlett. The only way that the sale of liquor at Estacada can be licensed is for the voters to hold a precinct election and vote the entire precinct wet, and it is impossible to obtain a majority for a wet precinct."

WOMEN CLOSE YEAR'S WORK.

Delegates and Alternates Elected to State Federation.

A meeting of the Woman's Club was held Thursday in the Commercial Club parlors and closed a very pleasant and profitable year's work.
Reports of the secretary and financial secretary were read, showing a total membership of 31, having had 28 active and six honorary members during the year. Reports of the financial secretary show amount of $302.65.

During the past year the club has established and furnished a rest room for the benefit of the public and have accomplished much in the way of civic improvement of McLoughlin Park, also the miniature park on lower seventh street adjacent to the seventh street depot.

Mrs. Hiram Straight and Mrs. W. A. Showman were elected delegates to the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which is to be held in The Dalles. Mrs. Mary Canfield and Mrs. Lewis A. Norris were elected alternates. Mrs. Jennie B. Harding was appointed alternate for Mrs. Norris. It was unanimously voted to extend a vote of thanks to the City Council the Commercial Club and all others who have so heartily co-operated with the club in its several undertakings and made possible the bringing about of a successful termination of the year's work.

JOHN KNAPP HEADS ALUMNI NEXT YEAR

ASSOCIATION HOLDS SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTS ITS OFFICERS.

John Knapp was Wednesday night elected president of the Alumni Association of the Oregon City High School, at a well attended and most enjoyable meeting of the association, held in Knapp's hall. Miss Clara Canfield was chosen vice-president, Miss Marjorie Canfield secretary and Miss Anna Renner treasurer. Mrs. George A. Harding was elected alumni editor of The Hesperian, the high school publication.

The meeting was full of interest to the members of the alumni association. The principal address of the evening was made by F. J. S. Toole, superintendent of the Oregon City schools. His subject was "The High School and How the Alumni May Help," and he infused considerable spirit in the topic. O. D. Eby, a member of the board of education, gave a short address. Miss Anna Renner rendered a vocal number, Mrs. M. D. Latourette and Miss Edna Canfield executed a piano duet and helpful remarks were made by Miss Laura Beale, Miss Mary S. Barlow, President-elect Knapp and Dr. A. L. Bentle.

Toothsome refreshments were served. The following committee was appointed to arrange for the next meeting of the association: Dr. A. L. Beale, Miss Fannie G. Porter, Miss Cleo Barclay Pratt, Miss Myrtle Buchanan, Millard Ghillett,

The Willamette Pulp & Paper Company in a communication to the publicity bureau of the Oregon City Commercial Club today, makes plain its attitude on the question of foreign labor, that has been agitating the public mind for several years. There are probably 100 Austrians and Greeks employed in the paper mills, and the company says the only reason this condition exists is because it has been unable to obtain the services of white men.

"We would rather have American citizens," says the company, "and men who have families, but we have been compelled to employ foreign labor in order to keep our mills running."
However, the Willamette Company seems to be just as anxious to employ Americans as the Commercial Club is to see this brought about, and offers to provide permanent employment, commencing October 1 next, for not less than 100 men with families, at $2 per day and upwards and with an opportunity for advancement.

The publicity committee of the Commercial Club proposes to give wide publicity to the offer of the paper company, with the object of increasing the desirable population of Oregon City, which will mean considerable to the town.

Meet in Historic Residence.

The directors of the McLoughlin Memorial Association held a meeting Monday night at the restored McLoughlin home. This is the first time the home has been occupied in the interest of the movement toward its complete restoration. A caretaker will be selected in a few days and it is planned to give a reception and housewarming in the near future. This affair will be in the hands of the women, who have manifested an interest in the preservation of the historic structure.

Mrs. Bruce Zumwalt Honored.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Chapman returned last week from Portland, where they were in attendance at the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters. Mr. Chapman represented Cataract Temple, No. 42. Mrs. Bruce Zumwalt, of this city, who is at present at Camas, Wash., was elected to the office of grand guard of the Pythian Sisters. The Pythian Sisters of this city are proud of this honor, bestowed upon one of its members, as this organization was only instituted here three years ago.

CHARLES V. GALLOWAY, who will deliver the oration at the Oregon City Fourth of July celebration.

PUBLICITY CALL ISSUED SECRETARY IS MISSION FOR PRIMARY A BUSY MAN

HARVEY E. CROSS IS HEAD OF NEW COMMITTEE FOR COMMERCIAL CLUB.

REPUBLICANS TO MEET JULY 9 TO ELECT DELEGATES TO COUNTY ASSEMBLY.

COMING CHAUTAUQUA SESSION IS RESPONSIBLE FOR GARY'S ACTIVITY.

EFFECTS ORGANIZATION

Work of Continuing Advertising of Oregon City and Clackamas County Will Soon Be Mapped Out.

7 O'CLOCK TIME SET

Movement Said to Be on Foot to Nullify Action of Central Committee in Calling the Assembly.

OPENS EARLY IN JULY

Campers Are Real Backbone of Success of Assembly and Hundreds of Them Have Agreed to Come.

The new publicity committee effected organization Friday night at the Commercial Club, by electing Harvey E. Cross chairman and O. D. Eby secretary. Mr. Cross becomes permanent head of the committee, and Mr. Eby will look after the work of the secretary's office until such time as a permanent salaried secretary is selected by the committee. The personnel of the committee follows: H. E. Cross, chairman; O. D. Eby, George A. Harding, Frank Busch and Linn E. Jones.

The committee is making haste slowly, with a view to perfectly harmonious action. George A. Harding, who was elected a member of the committee by the club's board of governors, resigned, because of other business, and the four remaining members of the committee will recommend a man as his successor.

Just as soon as the publicity committee effects permanent organization and address as to the details of a publicity campaign, a secretary will be chosen to succeed Charles E. Sawyer, whose term expires July 1. There are as yet no applications for the position, which pays a salary of $100 per month. It is probable that an expert publicity man cannot be secured for this salary, and the committee will engage a secretary to look after the office work and the details of the position, while his line of work will be mapped out by the members of the committee.

There is about $1000 on hand in the publicity fund, and before general plans can be outlined definitely, the committee will make a canvass among the business and professional men and property owners in an effort to obtain pledges of funds for the coming year's work.

New Ledge Uncovered at Ogle.

Another ledge has been uncovered at the Ogle Mountain mines in Clackamas County, and Dug Thorn, who came in Friday, brought in some fine samples of ore from the face of the ledge. Twelve hundred feet of tunnel has been made and in the new ledge the miners believe they have discovered exceptionally good prospects.

Sheriff Leaves With Forger.

Sheriff John W. Donahue, of Mantato, Blue Earth County, Minn., arrived here Monday night to take into custody H. H. Tackles, who is wanted in Minnesota on a charge of forgery. He was indicted by a Minnesota grand jury June 30 last, and was arrested upon telegraphic information by Sheriff Beattie, at Milwaukee. Sheriff Donahue left last Monday with his prisoner.

NOW FOR THE GREAT GLORIOUS FOURTH

The Cannon Shall Boom, and the Scramble For Things on the Medicine Shelves Shall Warn Inexperienced Countries Aspiring to Freedom Themselves.

(Copyright, 1910, by G. H. Rieth.)
When the Ballinger trial is ended,
And the jury has said what it thinks;
When the case has been made and defended,
With the wonted political winks—
We shall smile—and gads, we shall need to
That feel it as well had been dropped.
And the Guggenheim crowd will proceed to Resume where it was when it stopped.
The signs shall come down in the timber,
And the patents shall tie up the coal.
The law will get flabby and limber,
And the trusts will do well on the whole.
It always turns out in that manner,
Although we may blush to confess it.
And we do not regard it a banner—
Achievement, exactly, to guess it.

The Fourth shall return to discover Us waiting in battle array,
And what with one thing and another,
Regretting we won, anyway,
For things on the medicine shelves
Shall warn inexperienced countries
Aspiring to freedom themselves.
The dynamite cap and the rocket shall remind us of tyranny thwarted, and the valiant forerunner shall turn in his coffin to see what he started.
The eagle shall mount on his pinions and circle the North and the South, and the rapid-fire orator stand on the platform and shoot of his mouth.
This latter, however, is harmless in a strict pathological way, but remains notwithstanding an evil we must in due season ally. Alas, how deficient is nature that might lay this pest on the self with ruling that shooting his mouth off he gave the lockjaw to himself!

But the youngsters have got to do something
To show what we did to the British.
There never was anything safe in the way the forefathers attacked them, and as for the saner attainments, the old fellows seemed to have lacked them. They simply cast fear to the howlows and waded into the fray, and a boy does not think himself worthy if he can't shoot himself, anyway.
At any rate, Jeffries and Johnson will grow like a couple of poodles and observe independence with beating the hair off their mutual noodles.
They'll alternate making the other leviathan howl for his mother, and if the country at random is lucky they'll manage to kill one another.
It's only a plan to make money, deserting the strictest of strictures, for what they will have is a race war, dividing what's made on the pictures.
We've been pretty mad in this country for dollars, and power, and places, but this is the first time we've trafficked upon the abyss between races.

This tetanus, we are quite certain, has good and defensible uses, and all of its manifestations thus far have been only abuses. The idea, as we regard it, is not that it should be the cause of any more serious matter than locking the orator's jaws.
You know that we never hear of it except on the Fourth of July, and whenever some innocent gets it we forever are wondering why. Well, this is the fact of the matter, and by Jove, we are willing to bet it turns out in the long run that no one but a lot of old windjammers get it.
However, he that as it may be,
And get whom the tetanus will,
The jubilant youth of the nation Will resume with its shooting to kill.
The safe and sane celebration
Will suit us who are not so skittish.

The fat occupant of the White House
Will lie on his back in the grass
Beneath the green Beverly maples Observing the aeroplanes pass.
The chauffeurs will keep right on chauffing.
With seeing it's no one but Bill,
And they'll sigh just to think what had happened.
Had they down over Sagamore Hill.
But not every man can be Caesar, as someone has stated, alas! and in the due course of the matter somebody must lie in the grass. It's hard on a strenuous nation, afflicting us all in a way, but we'll look on the brighter side of it, and conclude it is good for the hay.

However, Time flies is a proverb,
And one day, his foot on his nose,
And his engine back-pedaling, August
Will come aeroplaning along.

Chairman Livy Stipp and Secretary John F. Clark have issued the call for the primaries to be held in every precinct in Clackamas County on Saturday, July 9, to select delegates to the county assembly, which will be held at Oregon City on Saturday, July 16. There will be 20 delegates in the assembly, the representation being based upon the vote for the Taft electors in the 1908 election. Each precinct will be given one delegate at large and one for every 15 votes or major fraction cast for the Republican presidential ticket. The primaries will be held at 7 o'clock P. M. on July 9, and the apportionment of delegates to the county assembly follows: Abernethy, 7; Barlow, 4; Beaver Creek, 6; Bull Run, 3; Boring, 5; Canby, 9; Clackamas, 6; Cherryville, 2; Canemah, 5; Cascades, 8; Damascus, 7; Eagle Creek, 6; Estacada, 9; George, 2; Harding, 4; Harmony, 5; Highland, 5; Gladstone, 6; Killin, 4; Mackeburg, 5; Molalla, 5; Milwaukie, 6; Marquam, 4; Maple Lane, 4; Mill Creek, 3; Neady, 6; New Era, 4; Oak Grove, 9; Oregon City, No. 1, 11; Oregon City, No. 2, 14; Oregon City, No. 3, 2; Oswego, 9; Pleasant Hill, 6; Soda Springs, 3; Springfield, 3; Tualatin, 5; Union, 3; Viola, 3; West Oregon City, 8; Sunnyside, 3; Dover, 2.

There is a movement on foot to nullify the work of the Republican County Central Committee in calling a county assembly to elect 55 delegates to the state assembly, and some of the anti-assembly people are said to be at work in the county districts in an attempt to create sentiment against the county assembly with the expectation that the delegates to the county gathering will be hostile to the whole assembly plan. If this movement is successful, which is doubtful, then, with a majority in the county assembly, that body will decline to send delegates to the state assembly and will, after passing resolutions condemning the assembly plan, adjourn. With the belief that such a movement is being pushed, the friends of the assembly will probably do considerable quiet, active work next week in support of the position taken by the county central committee.

It has been learned that the sentiment among the farmers is greater for the assembly plan in Clackamas County than was originally supposed. In view of the fact that Clackamas is the home of Mr. U'Ren and that heavy majorities were returned for the measure that he stands for, it was supposed that the sentiment against the assembly movement would be overwhelming. But experienced men in political affairs say that there has been a change and the principal reason for the new aspect of affairs is simply that under the direct primary plan of operation, the nominations for county officers have all gone to Oregon City, and the people in the country are getting practically no representation in the courts. This is a condition that is indisputable and one that is not at all satisfactory to the country districts, and while the farmers will deny any attempt to destroy the direct primary law, they think it should be amended in some manner so as to eliminate the objectionable features.

$62,000 WILL BE SPENT ON STREETS

COUNCIL LETS CONTRACTS FOR IMPROVEMENT OF TWELFTH AND WASHINGTON.

Contracts aggregating $62,000 for street improvements have been let to Moffett & Parker, who are now working on the contract for the improvement of Eleventh street. The contract for the improvement of Twelfth street amounts to $24,000. This street will be improved from Adams to Taylor by December 1, 1910, and from Adams to Main by July 1, 1911. The Washington street improvement will cost $38,000, and the upper portion will be completed by December 1 next. The lower part, where there are fills and heavy excavations, will be finished July 1 next year. Only one bid was received on the Washington street improvement. The figures of John Bittner for the improvement of Twelfth street were about $200 in excess of those of the successful bidders. On these streets the council will ask the property owners to pay for cement sidewalks, the cost being about double that of wood, but may be paid for under the Bancroft act in 10 years.

NEW MASTER SUCCEEDS McALLISTER

Board of Fish Commissioners has appointed Edward Clanton, of Grants Pass, as Master Fish Warden, to succeed H. C. McAllister, whose resignation, to take effect July 1, was received several days ago.

Clanton has been serving for the past two years as Deputy Warden in District No. 2, which embraces all the territory south of the Columbia River. He has been a life-long Republican and a resident of Oregon, and was endorsed by leading citizens of Jackson, Josephine, Coos and Douglas Counties. The Board selected Mr. Clanton out of 20 applicants.

Henry O'Malley, of Oregon City, at present in charge of the fish cultural works in the United States Bureau of Fisheries in Oregon, was strongly endorsed for the position. Either Mr. O'Malley or Mr. Clanton was satisfactory to Governor Benson, but when Mr. O'Malley was approached a week ago on the matter, he declined to consider the appointment. Charles C. Babcock, of this city, was also an applicant.

HIGH HONORS FOR EATON.

Student Passes Examination for Admission to the Bar.

Clarence L. Eaton, who went to Salem a few weeks ago to take the examination for admission to the Oregon bar, has passed with honors, and is now a full fledged attorney. Mr. Eaton is a resident of Canemah, and is in the office of Franklin T. Griffith at Portland. He has been an earnest student and has the highest standing in a class of more than 40 applicants.

Improvements on West Side.

Improvements are going on on the West Side. Those who are building are Otto Erickson and Mr. Klingner. The latter has the concrete foundation nearly completed for his new residence. Mr. Bittner is building a new sidewalk, and G. Freeman is building a new concrete walk and new wire fence.

Busier than a rabbit is T. J. Gary, secretary of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly, these warm June days. The 17th annual session at Gladstone Park is responsible for Mr. Gary's activity, and it is falling upon his shoulders to plan the details of the exceptionally fine programme that will be presented for the 13 days. Chautauqua opens Tuesday morning, July 12, and closes Sunday evening, July 24.

There is a bright prospect for campers this year, hundreds of people having already announced their intention of coming to Gladstone Park and pitching their tents in the cool and shady groves. Some of these campers have already selected their sites, and the best of them will be snapped up before the opening day of the session.

Thomas E. Gault, of Gladstone, has been appointed chief marshal and ground manager, and for the purpose of locating intending campers, he will be at the park on the afternoons of the following days:
Saturday, June 25; Tuesday, June 28; Thursday, June 30; Saturday, July 2; Monday, July 4; Wednesday, July 6; Friday, July 8, and every afternoon thereafter until the opening of the session, after which time he will be on the grounds continually.
The campers are the real backbone for the success of the Chautauqua, and inducements have been offered this year to bring as many of them as possible to the Park for the entire session.

WILL NOT STRIKE GRESHAM.

Mount Hood Railway May Build Up New Town.

The Mount Hood Railway and its probable construction the present year is one of the leading topics discussed in Eastern Multnomah County. There is scarcely any doubt but that work will commence soon, as surveys have been busy during the past week resetting grade stakes over a considerable portion of the old right of way, which was abandoned two years ago.

The old route through Gresham has been given up. It went through several expensive pieces of property and was the cause of considerable litigation in the Circuit Court. The new route will go north of the city limits through the property of S. E. Wishard and Charles Cleveland. The last named is owner of the noted Cedar Grove stock farm, but he has given an option to the agents of the railway company for all but a few acres of his farm, and the company probably intends to build up a new town around the railway station which will be established there.

It is reported that the Mount Hood line will go into Portland over the O. R. & N tracks from Montavilla.

Construction camps are located every few miles and will move down the river as fast as their work is done.
