Saved at Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayres, of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Violent liver trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine, Electric Bitters, cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong. For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they're supreme. See at Jones Drug Co."

SCHNOERR OBSERVES FIFTIETH BIRTHDAY

GERMANS FROM MANY OREGON TOWNS HONOR PRESIDENT OF LOCAL VEREIN.

The fiftieth birthday of Gus Schnoerr, president of the German society, in the park at his home at Willamette, was celebrated Sunday. Several hundred guests from Portland, Salem, Gresham and Oregon City were present.

There were flowers and music, presents from individuals and societies, speeches and a fine dinner served at the park to all the visitors. It was a grand social gathering such as the German people can have, where the whole family participates in innocent pleasure.

The address of congratulation was delivered by Mr. Woemser of the Portland German Deutsche Zeitung. Two little sons of the celebrant responded in German. D. M. Kleissen presided and presented Mr. Schnoerr and wife with a beautiful solid oak hall tree and mirror. Otto Kleeman, president of the German Verband of Oregon, presented him with a cut glass pitcher and water service. Frank Busch, of Oregon City, delivered an address of congratulation on behalf of Mr. Schnoerr's neighbors and fellow citizens. Mrs. Schnoerr was extremely overwhelmed when, in consideration of the many years suffering she was alleged to have endured at his hands, she was presented by the ladies of Oregon City with a heavy damask linen tablecloth and damask sideboard cover. Then her husband had to defend himself against all the attacks in a speech. This he was able to do in an eloquent manner, and he spoke from the heart with a great deal of feeling.

REFUSE TO ALLOW PASTOR TO DEPART

CONGREGATION OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH GIVES MINISTER TWO MONTHS' LEAVE.

Several weeks ago the Sission and several other members of his church, noting the ill health of Rev. Mr. Landsborough, the pastor, planned to show their love for him and appreciation for his services by a grant of two or more months' vacation, at full pay, in order that he might try another climate, rest and regain his former strength. In the meantime, however, he intimated a desire to resign and accept a call from another church located under what he thought more favorable conditions of climate. Upon the presentation, however, of his request for release, his congregation, unwilling to give him up if he could possibly remain, promptly and unanimously voted him a two months' vacation, on full pay, and expressed also the desire to increase the time, if necessary, for him to fully regain his health. At the Presbyterial meeting yesterday the representatives, from the church renewed the offer of vacation and asked that his pastoral relations be not now dissolved from the church, but that he try another climate and return here in September if well. Mr. Landsborough acquiesced finally in the request and Presbytery did not dissolve the pastoral relations.

The members of his church and his many friends sincerely hope for him a speedy and permanent recovery that he may continue to live and work among them.

The delegates from this city were George Brown, C. Schuebel, A. E. Frost and F. J. S. Tooze.

REFUSED TO MARRY A PORTLAND COUPLE

JUSTICE OF PEACE SAMSON SAYS NAY AND CUPID FOLDS HIS ARMS.

James Kane and Julia Gundlach came to this city Wednesday for the purpose of getting a marriage license and to embark on the sea of matrimony. They were successful in procuring the marriage license, but were not so fortunate in securing a minister or magistrate to tie the knot that would make them man and wife. It was the intention of the couple to have Justice of the Peace Samson perform the marriage ceremony, and he accompanied the would-be-groom as he went to the courthouse to secure the marriage license. After this had been granted, Miss Gundlach stated that two years ago she had married a man either by the name of Robinson, Robertson or Robbins, she did not know which, as she was hypnotized at the time, and she found that he was a married man with a family. She stated that the marriage ceremony was performed in Vancouver, Wash. She had the man arrested for bigamy and he was sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary at Salem, but was afterwards paroled. She consulted her attorney, who told her the marriage was not legal, and it was not necessary to apply for a divorce. Upon hearing this, Justice Samson refused to perform the marriage ceremony, and up to a late hour the couple had found no one to do this, and left for Portland, whence they came.

CIRCULATION CONTEST ON

able white woman in Clackamas County. To give people residing in different parts of the county a fair opportunity to win a prize, we have divided the territory into two districts. The first district comprises all of Oregon City; the second district includes all territory outside of the corporate limits of Oregon City. As a result of this, any woman of ambition, energy, hustling ability and wide acquaintance may enter with splendid chances of winning a valuable prize, no matter how much or how little they may be able to devote to the contest. It is strictly a competitive proposition in which there will be no element of chance or luck, and the result will depend entirely upon the efforts of each contestant.

The reward for a little work is indeed worth while. The grand prize, which goes to the lady in either district getting the highest number of votes in the contest, is a $425 Eiler piano. It is a splendid instrument. It is backed by an unconditional guarantee—no conditions as to wear, usage, etc., that renders guarantees on many instruments of no value for five years. It is an orchestral upright brand, and the winner may select walnut, oak or mahogany finish. It may be seen at any time at Eilers Piano House on Washington, at Park, Portland.

In each of the two districts three prizes will be given to the contestants. The first prize in each district will be a $50 merchandise certificate—the same as $50 in gold to you. The second prize in each district will be a piano scholarship at the Oregon Conservatory of Music, Portland, or a business scholarship at the Eclectic Business University, Portland. Both are well known for the excellence of their instruction. The latter is not in the business college trust and gives you individual instruction and thorough work. The third prize in each district is a handsome ladies' gold watch.

Now is the time to start. Send in your name at once or the name of a friend that wants a piano and is willing to work a little to obtain one. To the person who first sends in the name of the lady who wins the grand prize in the contest we will give $10 in gold at the close of the contest. To the two persons who first send in the names of the winners of the first prizes in the two districts we will give each a two-years' subscription to The Enterprise. In case of a tie the cash or subscriptions will be divided between the persons tying.

Start right away. Call, phone or write for a receipt book. A little hustling now will pay you big. Fix your eye on the piano and start to win it today.

I can do your family washing easier, quicker and better; save rubbing and save the clothes; make them clean, wholesome and snowy white; brighten colors, soften woollens and kill germs. I use WASHWAX, the new scientific compound that does the work without the aid of soap or bleach; any used in hot or cold water. There is nothing like me. Send ten cents stamps today and I will come by mail in regular size. You will be glad you tried me. Address Washway Co., St. Louis, Mo.
