HAVE YOU REGISTERED?

From the appearance of the registration books it is apparent that one fact that every man must register in order to participate in the primaries is not generally known. Only a very small number of voters have registered thus far. The registration closes for the primaries September 14, and any man whose name does not appear in the registration books will not be allowed to vote in the primary election September 24. The law is rigid and does not permit an elector to swear in his vote at the general election. If you do not register you cannot vote at the primaries. This is a privilege that you should hardly pass by. Register! Do not delay, but register today.

AN UNFORTUNATE SITUATION.

Fifty-four Republicans endorsed a county ticket last Saturday in Oregon City. Forty men voted for and 22 men voted against a motion to endorse a ticket. In a convention at which 221 delegates were entitled to seats 40 men assumed to represent a majority of the party and proceeded to attach their official endorsement to a ticket. This action was taken in the face of strong opposition and against the advice of this newspaper. The endorsement of this small body of Republicans cannot possibly carry with it any considerable strength. It may do the candidates harm, and again it may do them good. It should be remembered that few, if any, of the candidates recommended sought the endorsement, and therefore should not be held responsible for the action of the assembly.

Any number of Republicans has a right to assemble and endorse candidates for office. No one can question their right, but before such action is taken it is well to look ahead and see what the consequences will be. The scheme in Clackamas County was ill-advised, to put it mildly. Few men wanted it, there was no general demand for it, and it has already caused a soreness and dissension in the Republican ranks. Three men who were endorsed have declined to run under any circumstances. Two others have declared they did not seek the endorsement and would rather not have it. This is a condition that does not look rosy for the assembly ticket.

The situation is peculiarly unfortunate, as The Enterprise knew it would be, and said so. There are number of good men endorsed. It is assumed they will have the support of the assembly men, and it is likely they have friends in the anti-assembly camp who will not be alienated by the unexpected action of the 54. It appears that the zeal of the assembly men at this time was misguided. The assembly idea is new. It has not been received with particular favor in this county. The Enterprise advised that an assembly be held to send delegates to the state assembly, adopt a platform and adjourn. All of which goes to show that the "speed maniacs" are trying to add the steering gear.

WALKER IS ENDORSED

Dye was named and refused to act, and Chairman Gibson appointed L. L. Porter and Mr. Eby, of Mackaburg, to act with R. S. McLaughlin, of Oak Grove. Mr. Trembath doubted the presence of a quorum and asked for a roll call. E. P. Carter, of Gladstone, declined to answer when his name was called and said he was present simply as a spectator. Eighty-four delegates answered to their names, when Assistant Secretary Bartlett called the roll, showing 222 entitled to seats. In order to obtain an expression Mr. Lee moved that the assembly endorse a ticket, and Mr. Trembath raised the point of no quorum, but was overruled by the chairman. "The assembly is poorly represented," said George Randall, "and unless we get unity of action, further discussion will be created." "I favor a ticket if a majority of the party want it," declared Colonel Dye. "The people of Clackamas County have a mistaken idea and think the assembly is a blow at the direct primary law. I believe the endorsement of a ticket would be the means of splitting the party wide open."

"There is no harm in setting an expression," insisted Mr. Porter. "We have adjourned to put up a ticket. If the ticket recommended is one that meet with approval, it will be nominated. Every other county has named a ticket. At the dictation of a few men are we going to lay down? Are we going to send Populists and Democrats to the United States senate? I believe it is entirely within the province of these men here to endorse a ticket."

"You are taking the surest method to disrupt the party," exclaimed E. P. Carter. "I have fought the assembly movement because I want to see the party united. If you want to go ahead with 84 delegates, then do so, but you are sacrificing the men you endorse. The leaders of the party assembly are against Statement No. 1, and the direct primary law."

"This is a time for us to get together and get together in harmony," said John F. Clark. "We must give and take a little." Mr. Clark then offered as a substitute for Lee's motion to endorse a ticket, a resolution adjourning the assembly. Mr. Lee wanted a clause inserted endorsing the state ticket and the successful candidates at the primary election.

"Fair minded men should rule the Republican party," said C. A. Miller. "We must have a little charity. I am an assembly man, but I would not knife a candidate because he is anti-assembly. I think the idea of rule or ruin on either side should be dispelled. I favor a county assembly ticket. One or two men are trying to rule the party in Clackamas County. One or two men tried to break up the meeting of the county central committee. One or two men wrote a letter and got another man to sign it. I do not want the Republican party in the hands of one, two or a dozen men."

J. H. Revenue, of Sandy, wanted to know when the Republican party had lost its right to assemble. Clark's resolution was lost by a vote of 40 to 22 and the original motion of Mr. Lee to endorse a county ticket prevailed. Max Telford, of Canemah, presented a resolution, condemning a ticket, but it was lost. Telford explained that he favored organization through an assembly and made a plea for party unity. Nominations commenced. E. W. Bartlett, of Estacada, was nominated by John W. Meldrum for state senator. In a burst of oratory O. W. Eastham placed L. D. Walker, of Canby, in nomination, and Mr. Bartlett, expressing himself as complimented, withdrew his name and moved the unanimous endorsement of Walker. Mr. Lee said Walker had told him he did not care to make the run.

For representatives, Mr. Meldrum nominated Mr. Bartlett, who declined, and George L. Story nominated C. A. Miller, who said he could not run if he wanted to. Livy Stipp named Dr. H. S. Mount, L. L. Porter nominated J. W. Exon, of Dover, and C. A. Miller placed J. S. Yoder, of Needy, in nomination. These three were chosen unanimously. Frank Jaeger, when nominated by R. S. McLaughlin, declined for business reasons. J. W. Reed, of Estacada, nominated John F. Clark for county judge. Mr. Stipp named J. T. Apperson, and L. L. Porter placed Charles T. Toomey in nomination. The vote stood: Apperson, 3; Clark, 13; Toomey, 35. The nomination of Toomey was made unanimous.

Mr. Gibson called Mr. Stip to the chair and nominated W. H. Counsell, of Milwaukie, for commissioner. The nomination was seconded by J. W. Roots, of Boring; T. J. Gary, of West Oregon City; and Dr. Townley, of Milwaukie. O. W. Eastham nominated Nicholas Blair, and M. J. Lee and J. W. Exon seconded the nomination. Blair received 31 votes and Counsell, 20.

M. J. Lee nominated D. R. Dimick for sheriff and then withdrew his name. George L. Story nominated E. C. Hackett, who was given the unanimous endorsement. J. W. Reed named L. E. Williams for recorder, and J. W. Roots nominated E. P. Dedman. The latter received 34 votes and Williams 12. C. M. Lake, of Boring, for clerk; J. A. Tufts, of Gladstone, for treasurer; Dr. Thomas J. Fox, of Oregon City, for coroner, and D. T. Meldrum, of Gladstone, for surveyor, were endorsed without opposition. Upon motion of L. L. Porter the endorsement of precinct officers was left with the assembly delegates at their homes. Upon motion of O. W. Eastham, the chairman was authorized to name a campaign committee of five, and upon the suggestion of J. W. Reed, Mr. Gibson was made the chairman of the committee. It was decided that all vacancies on the ticket, if any occur, shall be filled by a committee, consisting of one Republican from each precinct, to be appointed by the chairman from the list of delegates to the county assembly. M. J. Lee wanted to ratify the state assembly ticket, but Mr. Gibson explained it would not be proper, so long as Clackamas County has a candidate for governor in the person of County Judge Grant B. Dimick, and the assembly adjourned. VACANCIES HAVE APPEARED. Men Endorsed by Assembly Decline to Make the Race. There will be considerable work for the nominating committee of the Clackamas County Republican Assembly, if reports of declinations of the assembly endorsements continue to come in. Charles T. Toomey, of Gladstone, who was endorsed for county judge, Tuesday morning stated emphatically that he would not be a candidate for that office. His business affairs do not permit it. Dr. Hugh S. Mount is too busy to make a campaign for the nomination of sheriff representative in the legislature, for which position he was endorsed by the assembly last Saturday. E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas, candidate for Recorder, and James A. Tufts, of Gladstone, candidate for treasurer, declared their intention of seeking the Republican nomination for the offices they desire three weeks ago, and they decided to go into the voters with the assembly endorsement, but will remain in the race. J. W. Exon, of Dover, and J. S. Yoder, of Needy, who were endorsed for Representatives, will probably make the race, at least Mr. Exon has announced his intention of going out after the nomination. He was formerly a Willamette River pilot, and states he can be of great assistance to the people of the Willamette Valley in their efforts to secure an open river. Mr. Exon is now a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

E. C. Hackett, of Abernethy, for sheriff; Dr. Thomas J. Fox, of Oregon City, for coroner; C. M. Lake, of Boring, for clerk, and D. T. Meldrum, of Gladstone, for surveyor, will accept the endorsement of the assembly. Nicholas Blair, of Killin, who was endorsed for commissioner, is expected to stand in the running. E. D. Olds, of Oak Grove, will enter the lists for the nomination of Representative, and Walter A. Dimick will seek re-election for a second term. Robert H. Snodgrass, of Milk Creek, stated he intended to ask for the Republican nomination of sheriff. D. R. Dimick, of Canby, is expected to enter the race, and this will make three candidates for this position.

WALKER IS QUITE SHY. Canby Banker Takes Some Time to Make Up His Mind. Leroy D. Walker, cashier of the Canby Bank and Trust Company, who was endorsed by the Republican county assembly for state senator, was coy when asked for a definite statement as to whether or not he intended to make the race. If he has made up his mind, after four days, he is not ready to make it public. It is supposed that Mr. Walker has his hesitations on feeling the public pulse in regard to the assembly, in order to ascertain how good or how poor his chances for obtaining the nomination really are, but he is fighting shy of publicity until he secures the information he is after. In other words, Mr. Walker has assumed a clam-like attitude and says he is not going to make an announcement until he is good and ready, or words to that effect.

Should Mr. Walker find it expedient and advisable to decline to make a run for the nomination, the assembly nominating committee will probably have difficulty in filling the vacancy. To the Voters of Clackamas County. GLADSTONE, Aug. 15, 1910. I was informed this morning that I had been honored with the endorsement for County Treasurer, by the Assembly, which met in Oregon City, Ore., on Saturday, July 30, 1910. This was a great surprise to me, as at no time have I endorsed or advocated an assembly movement in Clackamas County, and while I appreciate the kindness of the individuals who gave me this nomination, at the same time I had filed my declaration with the Clerk of Clackamas County, of my intention to become a candidate for the office, prior to the meeting of the Assembly under the direct primary and I do not feel that it would be just or honorable to the people of Clackamas County, or to myself, as not to desire to be placed in a position of sailing under false colors, to hesitate to declare my position.

J. A. TIFFS. Gladstone, Ore. W. H. Bottemiller Will Enter Political Field. W. H. Bottemiller, of Clarks, accompanied by Christian Haag, another prominent farmer of that section of the county, were in Oregon City today on business. Mr. Bottemiller's friends wish him to enter as a Republican candidate for county commissioner at the coming election, but he has decided not to enter the race. Mr. Bottemiller is the owner of a large farm and states that it does not justify him to do so under the present conditions. He has resided in this county for over 22 years and is well known.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA CHIEF GIVES BRIDE AWAY. Former Actor Is Married to Young California Girl. J. R. Bellman and Dorothy Randolph, the latter 16 years of age, were married here Saturday by County Judge Dimick, Chief of Police Burns giving the bride away. The ceremony took place at the instance of Sheriff Juud W. Boyd, of Red Bluff, Cal., who sent the following telegram to Chief Burns: "Dorothy Randolph escaped from custody of probation officer. If Bellman will marry her, release them. If not, hold girl and will send mother there to prefer charges. Wire answer." Chief Burns explained the situation to the pair, and Bellman unwillingly agreed to pay for a marriage license. He came to Oregon City as actor in the "New Darling Stock Co." and was afterwards a bootblack in a local barber shop.

BILLY SUNDAY COMING. Famous Evangelist to Lecture at Oregon City, August 14th. Rev. William A. Sunday, better known as "Billy Sunday," the evangelist, has been engaged to deliver one of his famous lectures in Oregon City on Sunday, August 14, at 2 o'clock in the AMBURY. His subject will be "Booze, Bet on the Water Wagon," and he will sound the temperance slogan. Sunday delivered this lecture at Spokane to 10,000 people. He particularly wants voters to hear him, and is coming under the auspices of four churches. The wide reputation of the evangelist will no doubt pack the hall.

AURORA. A large crowd attended the mass-meeting at Aurora Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George Knus autoed to Willhoit Springs Sunday. Dr. W. W. Giesy and family are camped at Willhoit Springs. E. Yoder and family returned home Monday after two weeks' outing at Willhoit Springs. Mr. and Mrs. D. Snyder, of Portland, and Misses Aletta and Georgie Knus made a trip to Willhoit Springs Sunday. Mrs. A. H. Giesy and daughter, Amelia, made a trip to Portland Monday. Joe Erbsland made a trip to Oregon City Tuesday. A. W. Krous left Wednesday Morning for Newport to be gone two weeks. Lora Giesy made a trip to Newport Monday to be gone two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ryan and Mrs. Schuere made a trip to The Oaks last Thursday. Sickens in the family prevented Miss Loretta from doing much in the contest the past week, but from now on she will surprise the contest manager with the number of subscriptions sent in.

Aurora Defeats Cubs. Aurora defeated the Montavilla "Cubs," by 11 to 1 Sunday, in a hard hitting game. Gravelle, star pitcher of the "Cubs," was hit for a total of 17 hits, including three two-baggers, Baker, on the other hand was in fine shape, striking out 12 men, and allowing but five scattered hits, but for an error, he would have scored a shut out. This makes thirteen wins and only three defeats for Aurora this season, which is a very good record. Next Sunday the Greenfield "Blues," come here to try to take the honors away from Aurora. The "Blues" are the fastest bunch of players out of Portland, having been defeated but twice this season. Everybody should turn out to witness this game as no doubt it will be the best of the season, as both teams have great records and both are equally confident of winning. The game will be called at 2 p. m. instead of 2:30 p. m. as before. The score of last Sunday's game follows: R. H. E. Montavilla "Cubs" 1 5 5 Aurora 11 17 1 Batteries—Grosell and Hargraves; T. Baker and Fred.

APPLE YIELD TO BE LARGE. Fresh Oregon vegetables are arriving into the local markets in large lots, and there is a steady demand. Corn, although slightly high in price, is coming into the market, and by next week the merchants claim that the price will be lower, as there will be plenty. The vegetables need rain, but as many of the farmers are now cutting their grain a rain at this time would probably be a disaster. Peaches are to be plentiful this year, but it is stated that the peach crop will be short. The plum crop is good, and the apple crop will be a bumper one. Gravenstein and Astrachan apples are arriving in the markets, bringing good prices. California melons are arriving at the local markets and some of the Oregon melons will make their appearance. T. P. Lee, of Canby, is the first melongrower of Clackamas County who has marketed cantaloups so early in the season. These were sold in his own home town. Mr. Lee is one of the prominent growers of the county, nearly all of his 26-acre farm at Canby having been planted into melons. There is a good demand for poultry, but the markets are somewhat overstocked in Portland, and very few chickens are being shipped to that place. The price has gone from 18 and 18 cents to 12 and 15 cents for broilers. The berry season is about over and the only berries in the market now are blackberries. The raspberry and Loganberry crops was somewhat shortened, owing to the long dry spell.
