

Valuable Prizes Given Away

TO POPULAR LADIES IN THE ENTERPRISE'S GREAT CIRCULATION CONTEST

First Prize---First District

$50 Merchandise Certificate at Huntley Bros. Co.

KODAK DAYS

Vacation days are Kodak days. No trip however short complete without a Kodak. Prices, $1.00 to $65 and up.

If you don't want a Kodak, you may select other merchandise to the value of your certificate.

First Prize---Second Dist.

$50 Merchandise Certificate at J. Levitt's Big Store

The House of Quality and Low Prices

A complete line of Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Furnishings, Notions, etc. Agent for Schloss Bros. and Stein-Block Clothing, Hamilton & Brown Shoes and other HIGH GRADE wearing apparel.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE 7th AND MAIN

Grand Prize

EILERS ORCHESTRAL UPRIGHT GRAND STYLE E. H. AWARDED GRAND HIGHEST PRIZE AT SEATTLE EXPOSITION.

Recently selected by the Portland Commercial Club, after a most exhaustive test of various makes. It is a Western Piano, made to withstand Western climatic conditions. Finished in choicest of mahogany, figured walnut and quarter-sawn oak, in bright, or French, or dull finish. This piano will be awarded to the contestant having the highest number of votes in the contest, without reference to districts.

Second Prize--Each Dist.

The winner of the second prize in each district has her choice of either a Piano Scholarship or a Business Scholarship.

Piano Scholarship

in Oregon Conservatory of Music Portland

A one-term scholarship in the Piano Department, including Theory or Harmony, with free use of Study Books. Term opens second Monday in September. A school noted for its excellence in instruction and the high standing of its graduates.

Business Scholarship

in Eclectic Business University, Portland

A six-month scholarship in either the bookkeeping or the shorthand course in a high-class school where, when you are graduated, you will "know something." Small classes and individual instruction are always best. You will do better than in a large school. Work more thorough and progress better.

Third Prize---Each Dist.

Handsome

Ladies Gold Watch

No prize will be awarded to any contestant who has sent or brought in less than twenty yearly subscriptions to the Enterprise, or their equivalent. If there are not enough workers in one district to merit all the district prizes, prizes not awarded in such district will be awarded to workers in the other district.

Milwaukee and Northwestern Clackamas

MILWAUKIE.

Miss Olivia Johnson has entered the Enterprise contest and is the only one from this district. Assist her with your coupons and subscriptions.

E. M. Kellogg has opened a post-office in the post-office building on Main street.

Mr. Reed, the shoe maker, has moved from the post-office building to the Shindler building on Main street.

The reading room will be open on the first and third Wednesday of each month from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Merrill Lakin has gone to Newport to spend a week's vacation.

The steamer A. G. Bateman is making regular trips between Milwaukee and Portland by purchasing a 10-day ticket the fare is five cents. Captain Grode is well known at Milwaukee, having run steamers on the same run several years ago.

Leo Johnson is back at work in O. Wisinger's, after a two weeks' vacation spent with Battery "A," O. W. G. encampment, at Stevenson, Wash., and a few days at Seaside.

B. Tschernar has about completed his fine new cottage south of the German M. E. church.

E. W. Barnes and family will move into their large new home on their Milwaukie farm this week. Thomas Toole had the contract and Mr. Barnes may well be proud of his new home, which is the finest yet erected in that part of town, and which cost nearly $2,000.

The Milwaukie Water Company has improved its water system by the addition of over a mile of pipe line along the county road, running east to Wehla. The company also had the water tower raised 14 feet in order to give better fire protection to that part of the town.

F. Birkmeier and wife are expected home this week from an extended Eastern trip.

An unknown man committed suicide in the Hendee field on the northwest of town yesterday afternoon. The body was first discovered by Mr. Rowell, a farmer, passing by on his way home from Portland and he notified Justice of the Peace, J. R. Kelso, who later in the evening held an inquest. The dead man's watch and an empty medicine bottle that had contained carbolic acid was found about three hundred feet from where the body lay. There was nothing on the body to tell who the unfortunate man was and there was no money in his clothing. He was a man about 50 years of age. There is a report current that a man by the name of Fred Lincoln, of Vancouver, Wash., is missing and it may prove that he is the suicide.

Miss Olivia Johnson is representing the Enterprise in the contest. Your support for a Milwaukee girl will help Milwaukee to capture the $425.00 piano.

We Guarantee Every Box

of Dr. Bull's Antiseptic Salve to do what we claim. Try it for ulcers, boils, running sores, better, ringworm, eczema, salt rheum, fever sores, cuts, bruises, pimples, black heads, chaps, feliola, burns or any skin disease. 25c a box. For sale by Jones Drug Co.

OAK GROVE.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lincoln Hart are now in New York City, and they will soon leave to spend the summer with Mr. Hart's mother at her country home, "Hart's Ease-on-the-Hudson." They are accompanied by their two small sons.

Samuel Hilton, of Hamilton, Canada, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Isabel Hilton, and his sister, Mrs. Geo. McArthur.

Miss Evelyn Young, of Rialty Station, was a city visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Voshurg and two sons are camping at Seaside, Oregon, near Dr. Van Waters and family.

Wm. Cook, Mrs. Cook and son, Rony Blackeby, Mrs. Blackeby and daughter and B. Jones, paid a visit to the Oaks, Wednesday evening.

L. E. Armstrong, Mrs. Armstrong and daughter, Hester, E. C. Warren, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Conghonor went to The Oaks, Friday, to hear the band.

Mrs. Lolla Holt spent Sunday with her brother's wife in Vancouver, Wash.

Lucile Clemens, of Portland, is visiting her old friend, Mrs. Elmer Worthington.

Mrs. Elmer Worthington, Lucile Clemens and Gladys Driscoll visited the Sisters' Orphan's home at Oswego Sunday.

J. Rosenthal, of Milwaukee, is campaigning here trying to organize a lodge of Fraternal Brotherhood. Any one interested will be called on.

Miss Potters returned home Saturday after several months' visit in the East.

Ether Kunze, of Beaverton, Oregon, is visiting her old friends, Lillian and Alma Richter.

Mrs. B. Lee Paget and son, Lowell, visited The Oaks, Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. Farr, of Baker City, spent Sunday with Mrs. J. B. Evans, Miss Opal Wood, of Eastern Oregon, and on Monday visited with Mrs. Vale, of Medford.

A party was tendered for Miss Lillian Westerfield on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. M. Hart. Twelve young people responded to the invitation.

Mrs. Spaulding and Midge Ellis returned Saturday from Silverton, after enjoying a week in the country. Mrs. Bushnell spent Tuesday with her son and family in Portland.

L. E. Armstrong was in Selwood on business Friday.

Samuel Hilton and sister, Mrs. G. McArthur, were city visitors Tuesday.

The Oak Grove Telephone Company held its monthly business meeting Monday evening. All officers were present.

Chas. Risley's horse and buggy was standing in front of the telephone office. The horse became frightened by a piece of paper blowing by him. He ran and upset the buggy and broke his harness, wrecking all, but was not injured himself. A few dollars will repair the damage in a short time.

Chas. Voshurg returned from the coast Friday, after seeing his family settled in their quarters for the summer months.

Mrs. Brown, of Courtney Station, accompanied by her sister, Miss Aldrich, spent Wednesday in Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Conghonor, of Payette, Idaho, spent the day Friday with E. C. Warren and family.

Oak Grove defeated the Milwaukee club team July 31. The score being 12 to 6. Batteries—Oak Grove, Callman and Risley; Milwaukee, Briston and C. Worthington. A home-run was made by Fred Rosenrader of the Milwaukee team.

August 7, the Oak Grove team will play the Estevada team on its grounds. Everybody go and help the home team.

Church Notes.

M. E. Church—Sunday school, 10 a. m.; Mrs. G. McArthur, superintendent; services by the pastor, James Moore. All invited.

Ladies' Aid held its regular meeting in the church basement Thursday, after a business meeting the usual quilling took place.

Brownell at Oak Grove.

George C. Brownell, candidate for state senator, will deliver an address at Oak Grove, on Saturday, August 13, and will clearly define his position as to the direct primary and the assembly, and will tell something of the political history of Oregon.

JENNINGS LODGE.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Simmons, of Portland, and Mrs. Lillian Smith, of Clatskanie, were in the city on Tuesday. Mrs. Simmons and her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Smith, were in the city on Tuesday. Mrs. Simmons and her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Smith, were in the city on Tuesday.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Roberts were the chaperones to the children's picnic held in Mayme's Park Friday of last week. The young people being taken over to Vancouver, Wash., after a visit with her sisters at that place.

delightful visit with her mother at Seattle and was accompanied by her sister. Paul Rosthe has the basement dug for his new home on the old homestead at Covell.

Thursday evening a party of young folks had an evening picnic on Cedar Island, which was a very happy event and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Early in the evening a joyful crowd gathered and in boats and canoes went to the island, where Mr. Clark had already planned a huge bonfire for them. Those attending were Messrs. Downing, Canfield, Richards, Hollowell, Sievers, Harrington and Woodward, of Portland, and Mrs. Downing, Misses Morse, Hulbert Hollowell, Rynearson, Ivah and Pearl Harrington.

Mrs. Del Mar, of Portland, was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Halmer Emmons on Friday.

The camp-meeting closed on Thursday evening with a lecture on South America by Rev. G. Heimiller, of Cleveland, which indeed was very interesting, which many availed themselves the opportunity of enjoying. The Tabernacle was comfortably filled.

Mrs. Beaulieu and little daughter, Violet, of Gladstone were callers at the Lodge on Tuesday.

Rev. Heverling preached at the Chapel Sunday, July 31, at 2:15 p. m. and services will be held there each Sunday as follows: Preaching at 2:15; Sabbath school at 3:15 till 4:15; prayer meeting on Thursday at 8 p. m. All are welcome and an invitation is especially extended to those who do not attend services elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Pease and a party of Portland friends will occupy Rock Lodge during the remainder of the summer.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Clough entertained Rev. Heverling, wife and children and Rev. Stoker, of Portland, Rev. G. W. Pines, of Salem, to a 12 o'clock luncheon.

Work on the arch across Jennings avenue has been commenced under the direction of Messrs. L. Wilcox and Bert Russell. This will give this place some prestige and we are in hopes new sidewalks and lights may soon be added, and also the large crop of thistles on the east end of Jennings avenue will be harvested.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans, of Oak Grove, were callers at the Walter Besker's home on Thursday evening. With a party of Portland and Oregon City friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. Downing, Miss Morse and Mr. Helutz left Sunday morning for Mt. Hood, where they will spend a week, after which the party will return here to take the steamer for Ocean Park, Wash., where they will sojourn for some time as guests of Mrs. Geo. Morse who has taken a cottage there.

George C. Brownell, candidate for state senator, will deliver an address at Oak Grove, on Saturday, August 13, and will clearly define his position as to the direct primary and the assembly, and will tell something of the political history of Oregon.

George C. Brownell, candidate for state senator, will deliver an address at Oak Grove, on Saturday, August 13, and will clearly define his position as to the direct primary and the assembly, and will tell something of the political history of Oregon.

George C. Brownell, candidate for state senator, will deliver an address at Oak Grove, on Saturday, August 13, and will clearly define his position as to the direct primary and the assembly, and will tell something of the political history of Oregon.

George C. Brownell, candidate for state senator, will deliver an address at Oak Grove, on Saturday, August 13, and will clearly define his position as to the direct primary and the assembly, and will tell something of the political history of Oregon.

THE TIME HAS COME FOR TELLING WORK

(Continued from page 1.)

Many have inquired about the scholarships. The young ladies who win the scholarships have the choice of selecting a piano scholarship in the Oregon Conservatory of Music at Portland, one of the most thorough and well-equipped musical conservatories on the coast, or a business scholarship in the Eclectic Business University at Portland, a school popular with its students and graduates on account of the excellence and practical nature of its work. When you graduate from this school you are prepared to go into an office, give satisfaction and progress upward.

The first prize in District No. 1 is a $50.00 merchandise certificate at the Huntley Bros. Co. store. You can select anything you want in their store, when you wish, except possibly a few contract machines. They carry a large stock of Columbia phonographs, kodaks, books, stationery, drugs, leather goods, toilet articles, etc., etc. Quality, service and price are always satisfactory at Huntley's.

The first prize in the second district is a $50.00 merchandise certificate at Levitt's Big Store at the corner of Seventh and Main. They end on Saturday one of the most successful sales ever conducted in Oregon City. Everybody has commented on the splendid values, the big bargains offered, and everybody seems to have gone in and bought at great saving. Valuable premiums in cut glass, dinner sets and Rogers Bros. silverware are given away free. Sale ends Saturday night so you will have time to come in and secure what you want at a big saving.

Miss Mollie Mitchell, who has been connected with the Duane Ely store, and who recently left for Mount Hood to spend the summer, met with a serious accident about two weeks ago when the horse that her brother, George, was driving, ran away, becoming frightened at a passing automobile. Miss Mitchell and her brother met with two runaway accidents the same day while they were driving. The first runaway the horse upset the buggy and threw them out, badly damaging the vehicle, but the occupants were uninjured. They had gone but a short distance after the buggy had been repaired and another auto met them. This time it was on a narrow grade, and as the horse reared and plunged over the embankment Miss Mitchell jumped and injured one of her limbs. She was picked up and taken to her home at Sandy, where she has been confined to her bed. It is probable that she will be brought to Oregon City for medical treatment as she is suffering from a severe injury to the knee.

MOLLIE MITCHELL SEVERELY INJURED

SANDY YOUNG WOMAN JUMPS OVER BANK WHEN AUTO FRIGHTENS HORSE.

Miss Mollie Mitchell, who has been connected with the Duane Ely store, and who recently left for Mount Hood to spend the summer, met with a serious accident about two weeks ago when the horse that her brother, George, was driving, ran away, becoming frightened at a passing automobile. Miss Mitchell and her brother met with two runaway accidents the same day while they were driving. The first runaway the horse upset the buggy and threw them out, badly damaging the vehicle, but the occupants were uninjured. They had gone but a short distance after the buggy had been repaired and another auto met them. This time it was on a narrow grade, and as the horse reared and plunged over the embankment Miss Mitchell jumped and injured one of her limbs. She was picked up and taken to her home at Sandy, where she has been confined to her bed. It is probable that she will be brought to Oregon City for medical treatment as she is suffering from a severe injury to the knee.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Say! We have shingles with a five-inch clear butt at $1.25 per thousand. Builders' Supply Company, 14th and Main street.

Be pure and take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you when starting on your trip this summer. It cannot be obtained on board the trains or steamers. Changes of water and climate often cause sudden attacks of diarrhoea, and it is best to be prepared. Sold by all dealers.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Mrs. Noble Thrown From Car. Mrs. Charles Noble was badly cut and bruised Monday night at East Morrison and Water streets in Portland. She was stepping from a Mount Tabor car, when the motorman threw on the power and Mrs. Noble was thrown heavily to the ground, being rendered unconscious for a few minutes. Her injuries will not result seriously, though they were painful and she suffered an unpleasant shock.

We Do Not Recommend Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for anything but the eyes. It is a speedy and harmless cure for granulated lids, scrofulous sore eyes, styes, weak eyes and dimness of vision. Sold everywhere 25c. For sale by Jones Drug Co.