

Valuable Prizes Given Away

TO POPULAR LADIES IN THE ENTERPRISE'S GREAT CIRCULATION CONTEST

First Prize---First District

$50 Merchandise Certificate at Huntley Bros. Co.

KODAK DAYS

Vacation days are Kodak days. No trip however short complete without a Kodak. Prices, $1.00 to $65 and up.

If you don't want a Kodak, you may select other merchandise to the value of your certificate.

First Prize---Second Dist.

$50 Merchandise Certificate at J. Levitt's Big Store

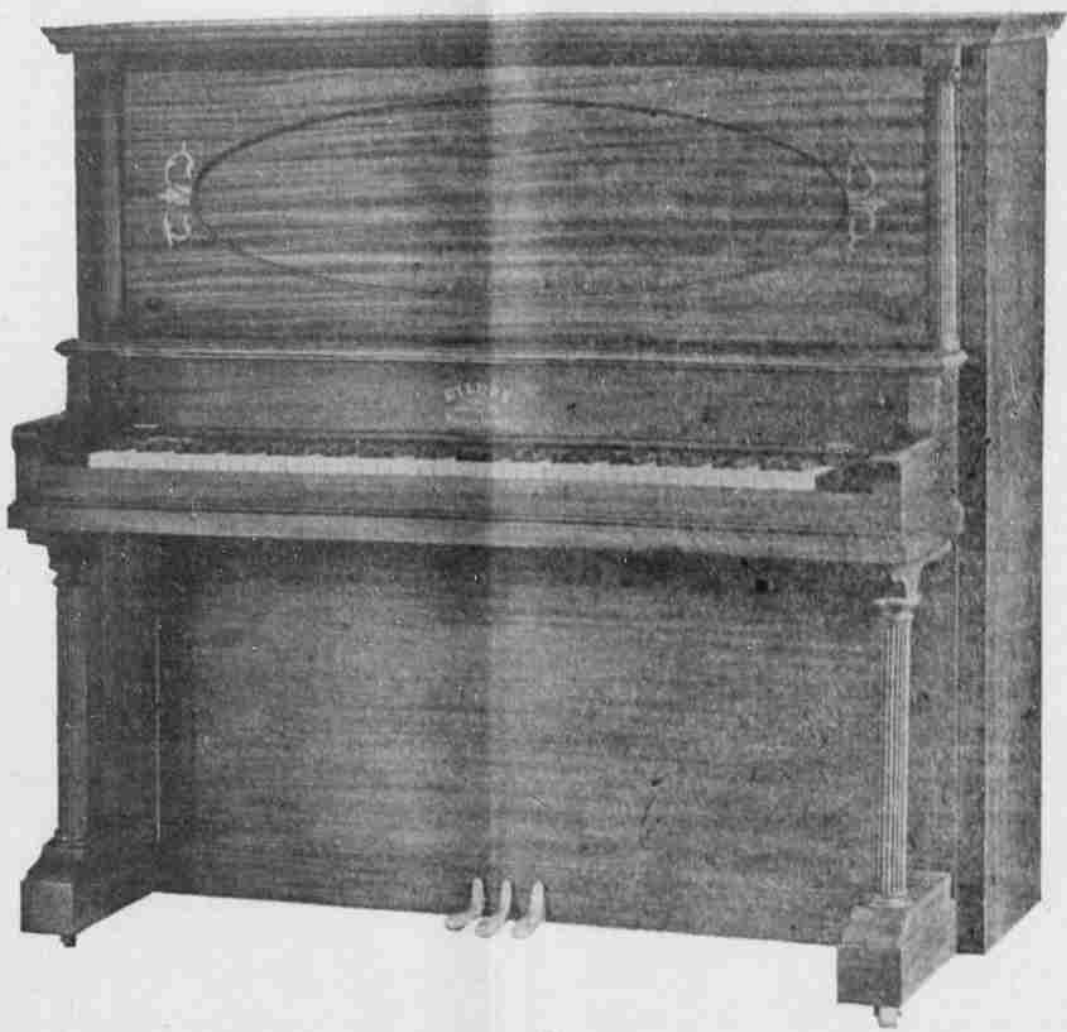

The House of Quality and Low Prices

A complete line of Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Furnishings, Notions, etc. Agent for Schloss Bros. and Stein-Block Clothing, Hamilton & Brown Shoes and other HIGH GRADE wearing apparel.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE 7th AND MAIN

Grand Prize

EILERS ORCHESTRAL UPRIGHT GRAND STYLE E. H. AWARDED GRAND HIGHEST PRIZE AT SEATTLE EXPOSITION.

Recently selected by the Portland Commercial Club, after a most exhaustive test of various makes. It is a Western Piano, made to withstand Western climate conditions. Finished in choicest of mahogany, figured walnut and quarter-sawed oak, in bright, or French, or dull finish. This piano will be awarded to the contestant having the highest number of votes in the contest, without reference to districts.

Second Prize--Each Dist.

The winner of the second prize in each district has her choice of either a Piano Scholarship or a Business Scholarship.

Piano Scholarship

in Oregon Conservatory of Music Portland

A one-term scholarship in the Piano Department, including Theory or Harmony, with free use of Study Books. Term opens second Monday in September. A school noted for its excellence in instruction and the high standing of its graduates.

Business Scholarship

in Eclectic Business University, Portland

A six-month scholarship in either the bookkeeping or the shorthand course in a high-class school where, when you are graduated, you will "know something." Small classes and individual instruction are always best. You will do better than in a large school. Work more thorough and progress better.

Third Prize---Each Dist.

Handsome Ladies Gold Watch

No prize will be awarded to any contestant who has sent or brought in less than twenty yearly subscriptions to the Enterprise, or their equivalent. If there are not enough workers in one district to merit all the district prizes, prizes not awarded in such district will be awarded to workers in the other district.

Milwaukee and Northwestern Clackamas

JENNINGS LODGE.

Jesse P. Strom has purchased acreage on Hill avenue and will erect a dwelling house this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, of Portland were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson over Sunday.

The National Realty Company has issued some neat little pamphlets advertising Vandemere Park, formerly known as the De Spinney place. It contains some choice lots on the Willamette river and county road and lies between Jennings Lodge and Medrum. Some very fine fruit and garden tract has been raised on this 20-acre tract, which has now been planted in town lots.

Mrs. Beckwith, of Courtney, was a business caller at the Lodge during the week.

C. P. Morse, who spent his vacation on his ranch in Yamhill, returned on Monday and will again take up his work as credit man at the Portland Seed Company's office in Portland. Mrs. Morse and Calvin will remain out on the farm until October 15th.

This week two of our well known and highly respected Lodge families have removed from our midst, Mr. Westerfield and family removing to their ranch on the Abernathy and the J. A. Soesbe family to their summer home at Newport. Mr. Soesbe and family expect to remain a year, hoping the salt sea breezes will be beneficial to their son, Jesse's health. While these two families will be greatly missed, the best of wishes go with them to their new homes.

The archway across Jennings avenue has been completed under the direction of L. Wilcox and L. A. F. Russell and cost about $200, which was raised by subscription. Mr. Wear doing the lettering, which stands out in bold relief with a white background and can easily be read from several blocks away.

Mrs. M. L. Smith, of Canby, after spending a fortnight with her grand daughter, Mrs. J. P. Strain, will visit with other Iowa friends at this place before she returns to the new home of her son, H. R. Smith, which he recently purchased at Green Point.

Dr. Hart has been quite ill of late, and Dr. Meisner, of Oregon City, is in attendance.

Misses Helen Paulson and Mabel

Morse returned from their outing at Ocean Park, Wash., the first of the week.

William Gardner and Ernest Walker, of Medrum, who have enjoyed camp life on the Willamette near Oak Grove, returned with the launch Dixie the latter part of the week and were accompanied home by Mrs. Walker and Miss Anne Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Pease are entertaining Miss Tzsgard, of Washington, D. C., at Rock Lodge during the past week.

Mr. Davy has moved into his pretty new cottage on the county road.

P. J. Newell is enjoying a visit from his little grandson, Robert Watson, of Seaside, having accompanied his grandparents home when they returned from this popular beach resort last week.

Arthur Roberts and Clyde Simmons have returned from their outing at Ocean Park and Washcotta Beach.

George Morse drove to Yamhill County to visit at his son's ranch and returned home on Monday.

H. C. Painton and Hugh Roberts visited the large peach orchard at Ottawa Lodge on Friday and brought home a number of bushels of the luscious fruit, which is of a very fine flavor.

Mr. West, of Fargo, N. D., and Mrs. Spaulding, of Bellwood, visited with Alex Gill last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Soesbe and son Kenneth, of Portland, visited with the former's brother, J. A. Soesbe, on Sunday.

A number from here attended the lecture given by "Billy" Sunday in Oregon City on August 14, when he spoke on "Booze, or Get on the Water Wagon" at Shively's open house.

On Sunday a very pretty birthday was observed at the home of Mr. Vyoyou Dent, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Covers were laid for members of the Halleck and Dent families, Mrs. James Welch, sister of Mrs. Dent, preparing the dainty birthday cake for the occasion. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with sweet peas and ferns.

Mrs. Jessie Landers and daughter, Miss Mabel, of California, arrived on Sunday for an extended visit with Mrs. T. C. Rice on Adelle street.

W. L. Haberman has returned from the Coast and the Nehalem valley after an absence of a week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Boardman received a telegram announcing their son Charles' illness with typhoid fever in Sherman County and expect to leave for his home and bring him to the Portland hospital for treatment.

Elmer Boardman, of Aurora, will look after his brother's business interests, and spent Sunday with his parents at this place previous to his departure for Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Will B. Jennings came down from Seattle for a few days and are renewing old friends and acquaintances at this place.

Mr. Tozier took the boat for Ottawa Landing on Monday and spent the day with L. Marx.

Mr. Gill has commenced to burn his kiln of brick. He has about 240,000 brick now and will furnish the brick for the new high school in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Cushman entertained a number of guests, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rich, Mr. and Mrs. William Hudson, of Seattle, Mrs. Roman Hector, and Mr. and Mrs. Bon, of Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Parrish came out in their automobile on Sunday evening. Mr. German, of Portland, was looking over real estate at this place this week.

W. L. Haberman has returned from a trip through the Nehalem valley, having spent three days at Nehalem.

OAK GROVE.

Hilda Mensinger entertained Hester Armstrong and Ruby Storer Thursday afternoon at her home on the river. Music, games and refreshments made the time pass quickly and the girls were sorry to say goodbye to their hostess when evening came.

Sunday, the 7th, was missionary Sunday and Miss Rose Pfeiffer's class of boys used the banner for the largest collection for foreign missions.

Jack Jones, wife and daughter, of Marquam, spent a week with Mrs. Jones' brother, L. E. Bentley, and family.

E. G. Allen and family returned home Monday from California, where they have visited relatives for the past six weeks.

Mrs. Walter Terwilliger and daughter Ruth spent Wednesday in Portland.

L. E. Armstrong, Mrs. Armstrong and daughter Hester spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Guy Degolla's mountain home out from Cherrville, returning home Tuesday well pleased with their outing.

Miss Gussie Brant left for Tacoma, Wash., to visit her brother for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Warren returned home from Chico, Cal., Thursday after ten days' absence. Mr. and Mrs. Warren were called to California by the death of Mr. Warren's only brother, a wealthy commission merchant.

Sunday, the 14th, the little friends of Albert Terwilliger celebrated his sixth birthday at his home on Court street. Games of all kinds were played, a beautiful lunch was served by his mother. All the little tots did justice to the goodies. Albert received several nice presents and good wishes for many more birthdays.

Mrs. Julia Holt is spending a week with her parents in Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Ada Cosgriff returned home Saturday after a two weeks' outing at Long Beach, Wash.

Miss Sally Warren was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Well and Geo. Hansen were in Oregon City Saturday on business.

E. C. Warren was in Oregon City Saturday on business.

Mrs. Herrin was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Isabel Hilton is quite sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. McArthur.

Mrs. Clyde Swinney and son Merriam, of Risley station, are domiciled at Seaside for the balance of the summer.

A. B. Ling, the new proprietor of the confectionery store, will be pleased to meet all of the old customers, as well as new ones, and will try and please everyone desiring anything in his line.

A large and attentive audience listened to the political speeches made by George Bronnell, of Oregon City, and Dan Markey, of Portland, Saturday evening in Green's Hall.

Mr. Austin, the new barber, is a fine artist and will make you look like new money, give him a call.

Miss Alice Coulburn was a Portland shopper Wednesday.

Mrs. Bushnell was in Portland Wednesday visiting her son's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mensinger, daughter Hilda and Miss Lena Warner spent Sunday in Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Lucy Graham is sojourning at Long Beach, Wash.

Charles Graham spent Sunday at Long Beach with his mother and family.

The atmosphere, this little village is a busy, happy place. Many improvements are going on. There are no idle men and Masher's Corner is almost deserted so far as loafers are concerned.

A fine new residence is going up on the Brodie farm. Fred Paterson is the architect of the foundation and first story, the same being well built of cobblestone laid in cement. It is understood that the second story is to be of logs. The building is fifty feet square and will be a picturesque addition to the town.

Mather is making preparation to improve the sidewalks around his corner by having a wall laid against the bank of cobblestone laid in cement.

Mr. Mather has made large improvements in his store building and around the premises this season.

Mrs. M. Thompson is having a fine residence of the bungalow type built. Alex Robinson and J. R. Landes are the carpenters employed.

Mr. Isaac Smith is putting up a fine new house at his ranch on the Oregon City road. Mr. C. Rick is the workman.

R. B. Holcomb has a fine water plant, consisting of gasoline engine, water tank holding 750 gallons, installed on his ranch. Beside house hold conveniences, hydrants for irrigation are conveniently placed.

A. O. Hayward and family are occupying their new home, a neat, comfortable bungalow of four rooms. Mr. Hayward has a fine woodshed, stable and chicken house built and the lots tidily fenced.

We are told that the Dupont Powder Company is building new powder houses over in the canyon east of town and the present ones, which have long been a menace to the place, will be removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keller, of Portland, with their two little children, were weekend visitors at the home of Rev. J. L. Jones.

The union Sunday school picnic of the two churches recently held was largely attended and well enjoyed.

There will be reaching service Sunday morning at the Congregational church.

W. W. Smith has recently bought a fine team of young horses.

Non-picking is the next matter of importance to be considered.

E. P. Dedman will begin shyned oesches this week. The crop is unusually good.

HARMONY.

All the farmers are busy stacking their grain. Some have already threshed.

Ava Hayman, who is working in Wilsonville for his brother-in-law, was at home Sunday.

Many of the folks have gone to the Coast.

Carl Bohles has left for California for a visit of two or three months.

Harmony Home Coming day will be held on Saturday next, August 20, on the "Old Pioneer Campmeeting" grounds near Sandy Crossing.

Mr. Boatman's new barn received a coat of paint this week.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Mrs. Chapman and children, from Cornelius, are here visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. C. G. Millard.

Night Judges—John Flanucan, Fred Ely, Sol Walker.

Oregon City No. 3.

Day Clerks—F. M. Darling, Elmer Dixon, E. H. Cooper.

Day Judges—Elmer Lankins, Frank Betzel, Levi Stehman.

Night Clerks—L. C. Bridges, F. J. Meyer, S. P. Davis.

Night Judges—E. W. Randolph, C. D. Roberson, S. V. Francis.

Oswego.

Day Clerks—A. L. Walling, G. Kiser, W. R. Wilmot.

Day Judges—C. C. Borland, E. B. Gates, J. P. Cooke.

Night Clerks—W. W. Todd, P. H. Zimmerman, John Van Horn.

Night Judges—W. Dyer, Tom Fox, H. W. Koehler.

Pleasant Hill.

Clerks—Frank Brobst, W. F. Young, C. L. Catkins.

Judges—S. M. Kelso, M. C. Young, Ed Baker.

Soda Springs.

Clerks—Frank Gray, Geo. N. Wills, Louis A. Daugherty.

Judges—John Nightingale, Frank Scott, J. I. Sharp.

Springwater.

Clerks—C. M. Folsom, James Marry, John Reed.

Judges—F. Millard, John Storer, W. W. Tucker.

Sunnyside.

Clerks—Fred Zinser, N. Leicht, Adolph Stoll.

Judges—Chas. Arnett, J. N. Besellen, J. P. Davis.

Tualatin.

Clerks—Wm. Killemeier, L. H. Axtell, Geo. Aden.

Judges—Z. Ellingsen, J. L. Kruse, W. S. Sharp.

Union.

Clerks—L. A. Miley, F. J. Dolson, Herman H. Smith.

Judges—C. D. Wilson, Sidney Graham, W. L. White.

Viola.

Clerks—Geo. Armstrong, A. Kitchem, L. Tenny Jr.

Judges—W. M. Stone, J. M. Hayden, L. Funk.

West Oregon City.

Day Clerks—Jos. Gray, R. A. Junken, M. A. Magoon.

Day Judges—Geo. F. Horton, D. C. Howell, Geo. De Boch.

Night Clerks—Robt. Baker, John W. Draper, H. Berdine.

Night Judges—Frank Capen, G. G. Graves, John Lewthwaite.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

Nelson Party Home From Hunt.

Fred J. Nelson, Hug Nelson, Frank Caldwell and Dr. H. R. Littlefield have returned from a hunting trip at the head of Cow creek, 40 miles east of Glendale in Douglas County. In five days they shot 11 deer and a bear that weighed 600 pounds. Good hunting is reported in the Douglas County mountains.

COUNTY COURT

(Continued from page 6.)

New Era.

Clerks—Wm. Herdt, Frank Engle, H. H. Eastman.

Judges—D. McArthur, Gilbert Randall, W. M. Dustin.

Needy.

Clerks—C. E. Miller, H. A. Wolfer, Asa Thompson.

Judges—J. S. Yoder, Thos. Ogle, R. I. Garrett.

Oak Grove.

Day Clerks—J. W. Graale, John R. Oatfield, Henry Thiessen.

Day Judges—R. E. McLaughlin, P. T. Oatfield, L. E. Armstrong.

Night Clerks—M. L. Higgins, O. H. Naef, Chas. Vosburg.

Night Judges—D. F. La Ferre, John Risley, Ed Roethe.

Oregon City No. 1.

Day Clerks—C. W. Pope, Alex. Schram, J. E. Rhodes.

Day Judges—John C. Bradley, J. W. Cole, I. W. Trembath.

Night Clerks—Al Price, Percy Canfield, Eber Chapman.

Night Judges—Geo. Randall, David Williams, John Cooke.

Oregon City No. 2.

Day Clerks—Chas. W. Kelly, Chas. Babeock, E. G. Roberts.

Day Judges—F. E. Burke, Mark Chapman, David Canfield.

Night Clerks—V. R. Hyde, Roy E. Cox, John Humphries.