

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MARQUAM.

Thrashing is about over with the exception of a few jobs.

Top picking in full blast, but they are generally light.

We had a fine rain here last week which settled the dust and also cleared the smoke away.

No dusty areas yet in this part, although while helping to thresh for Tommy Bentley, a load of grain caught fire from the thrashing machine.

Quite a band of Warm Spring Indians camped near town on their way to the Hartman hop yard.

Dolph Meyers, Jo Ross and others left for Table Rock Sunday to be gone a week after huckleberries.

Miss Hazel Watkins, of Meadow Brook was up to visit her cousin, Echo Watkins, a few days last week.

Miss Doll Marquam has been quite sick, but at this writing is improving; also P. J. Ridings is on the sick list.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we will like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints.

COLTON.

The dry weather still seems to continue. A few good showers of rain would be welcomed by everybody on account of the fire and dust.

Frank Countryman purchased a colt from his brother, A. B. Countryman, at Meadowbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ball have moved to Colton. Mr. Ball will help his father-in-law, Mr. W. E. Bonney, put up a shingle mill this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and family of Brooks, Oregon, were visiting their friends at Colton last week.

The board of directors of District No. 72 have selected Miss Esther Dahlstrom as teacher for the coming year.

Misses Josie Hubbard and Florence Haggraves are visiting at the former's sister, Mrs. Will James, at Colton.

No wonder Claude Winslow wears that big smile that won't come off, for he is papa of a big son.

Mr. Demileon had his house newly painted, which gives it a fine appearance.

Several new houses are going up in the neighborhood. Colton is booming all right.

Mrs. Dix and sons, U. S. and I. O. and the latter's wife, were visitors at Dix Brother's saw mill last Tuesday.

California rustle is being hauled for the "mansion."

Mr. Engstrom is back again from Scappoose and is improving on his place.

Corbett Brothers have been busy hauling hay from the Phillips place last week.

Thrashing is all over with and nearly everybody is away to the hopyards.

Mrs. Mudgett, of Highland, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Stromgreen, attended church at Colton Thursday.

Will Dix was at Colton Monday to see his brother's engine log with for their saw mill at Shuble.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wall were visiting in Cooper Colton Sunday.

Hinie Warner has been on the sick list, but is able to be up and around again.

Nearly everybody who went to the mountains for huckleberries, have returned.

H. E. Warden, his daughter Ruth and brother W. Warden, have gone to Portland for a visit.

H. Warner was a Sunday visitor at J. Putz's.

W. James left for Oregon City Tuesday to get some haling wire.

I. O. Dix burned his slashing last week.

Likewise brothers, of Clarks, were hauling their telephone posts Monday.

Wonder if Ole Anderson has returned from the "Happy Hunting Grounds" yet? He had quite a large time did he?

I. O. Dix put up a telephone on division 13 on the Molalla line last week.

E. Lindstrom did some business trading at Colton Monday.

LOGAN.

Kirkens brothers report that on their recent visit to the Austin hot springs they found many people in the mountains and wardens on the lookout for violations of the law.

Miss Pearl Johnson and Samuel Lyons were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Johnson, on August 28th.

NEW AND SECOND HAND

FURNITURE, STOVES, RANGES, TINWARE, GRANITWARE, SHELF HARDWARE, NOTIONS. I Pay Cash and Sell for Cash. Get my prices and see if I can save you money. J. H. MATTLEY 905 7TH STREET

A horse belonging to Henry Huber injured his leg so badly in a barb wire fence that he had to be killed. There will be a dance at the hall on October 8th.

Stubborn As Mules are liver and bowels sometimes seem to balk without cause. Then there's trouble—Loss of Appetite—Indigestion, Nervousness, Despondency, Headache.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hettman, from the Bee Hills, were in Beaver Creek with his mother, Mrs. C. Hettman, last Sunday, and their baby was christened by Rev. W. H. Wettlan.

Mr. J. Kirkland was on the sick list last week on Monday.

Mr. Sam Elmer finished thrashing on Wednesday of last week.

There was a fierce fire near Mr. Cummins' house; it came near the old man Cummins' house but they called for help and the house was saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Muller is helping Mrs. Clark cook for their prune pickers.

The Grossmiller girls are picking prunes for the Clark Bros.

Mr. Haag went hop picking last week to Aurora.

Zelma Cummins came back from Eastern Oregon.

Mr. Schreiber's buildings are in great danger of forest fires at present, fire is around his saw mill.

Mr. Marshall's boys were hauling hay for Alex Scherrube on Monday.

Alex Scherrube chopped grain for Rev. Wettlaufer last week.

Mr. Bottemiller and family made a trip to Clark Bros.' prune orchard last Sunday. They said it is a splendid crop of prunes, and they started to dry prunes on Tuesday.

Alex Scherrube spent Sunday with his brother, Dave, near Oregon City.

Mr. Sullivan went to town on Saturday last week.

Boys' School Suits New Fall style suits, made of durable fabrics, well tailored and have strong linings.

Mrs. Yost is haling hay and straw for Wallace Ashby, Woodside and Churchill this week.

Archie Dougan left Monday on a visit with Linn county relatives.

A goodly portion of the population of Mulino have gone to the hop yards.

Miss Inez Snodgrass has been engaged to teach the Beaver Creek school this fall, while Mr. Ross Eaton will wield the birch in the Mulino district.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray, of Macksburg, were Mulino visitors Sunday, at the home of Mr. McLaughlin.

Dan Graves went to Oregon City Monday with a load of hogs and veal.

Fred Churchill took a load of hides to Canby one day last week for Dan Graves.

Merchants Praise Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, J. W. McDaniel, Eberhart, Ills., says: There is no medicine which equals it for croup, colds, grippe, asthma and bronchitis.

Wm. Flynn is building a new residence in our village, and will rent the property which he now occupies as soon as the new house is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thornton entertained Mr. and Mrs. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Jaeger of Portland, on Sunday.

Mrs. France has been visiting relatives near Wilsonville for a couple of weeks.

Several college friends of Doris Young came from Corvallis to assist in the hop yard.

The Walters Hotel served three automobile parties with some of their noted good things to eat, on Monday.

Mr. Chalupsky is building a large modern house, which will be fitted out with gas and all latest improvements, for Homer Kruse, about two miles from Wilsonville.

Rev. Exon presches every second and fourth Sunday in the A. O. U. W. hall. Sunday school at two o'clock. Everyone cordially invited.

Several new buildings are in the course of erection in our village, among which are Mr. Peterson's and Mr. Butson's. The latter will be occupied by Mr. Bethune.

A fire occurred at the Chinaman's hop yard on Thursday, several sheds being burned while the hop pickers who occupied them were at work in the yards.

Matt Baker and Mr. Stallnecher are through picking hops and their yards have turned out well this year. John Butson has rented his real estate office for a residence and is now occupying an office room at the Hotel Lawrence.

Our village bank is found to be a great convenience to our farmers, especially during the hop picking season, for not many places the size of Wilsonville can boast of such splendid banking accommodations as are furnished by Thornton & Son.

There will be political speaking at Wilsonville on Monday evening, the 12th, in the A. O. U. W. Hall. The names of the speakers have not been announced, but it is understood that they will be anti-assembly men. The ladies are especially invited.

Joe Kpler's orchestra will give a dance in the M. B. A. hall on Saturday evening, September 10th, and a good time is promised those who attend.

Peters & Aden are doing such a big business that it has been found necessary to increase their store and warehouse room, and after serious consideration, this progressive firm of general merchandise men have decided to dissolve partnership, and Mr. Peters will go into the general hardware business.

We hear with regret that Mrs. J. Q. Gage had the misfortune to get her leg partly dislocated on Friday of last week. By bathing with hot water and salt and rubbing with alcohol the swelling was reduced so that on Sunday night the doctor and her husband succeeded in putting it in place again, and it is hoped no serious results will follow.

Mrs. Smith Turner is reported very sick.

The Ellegens burned their slaying on the Sarver place on Saturday.

List of unclaimed letters at the Oregon City postoffice for the week ending September 9, 1910.

Mrs. Holton and children are stopping with her mother, Mrs. Gage, a few days.

We have no service on the Pacific States Telephone and the people are becoming disgusted. We understand the owners of the line to Willamette want $200 for the wire and right of way which seems rather a high price or replaced with new ones.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Mrs. Holton and children are stopping with her mother, Mrs. Gage, a few days.

We have no service on the Pacific States Telephone and the people are becoming disgusted. We understand the owners of the line to Willamette want $200 for the wire and right of way which seems rather a high price or replaced with new ones.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

Result, 32 against 7 favorable; for new building on old lot, no 23 yes 7; repairing old building, no 21 yes 12; fencing lot, no 25 yes 5.

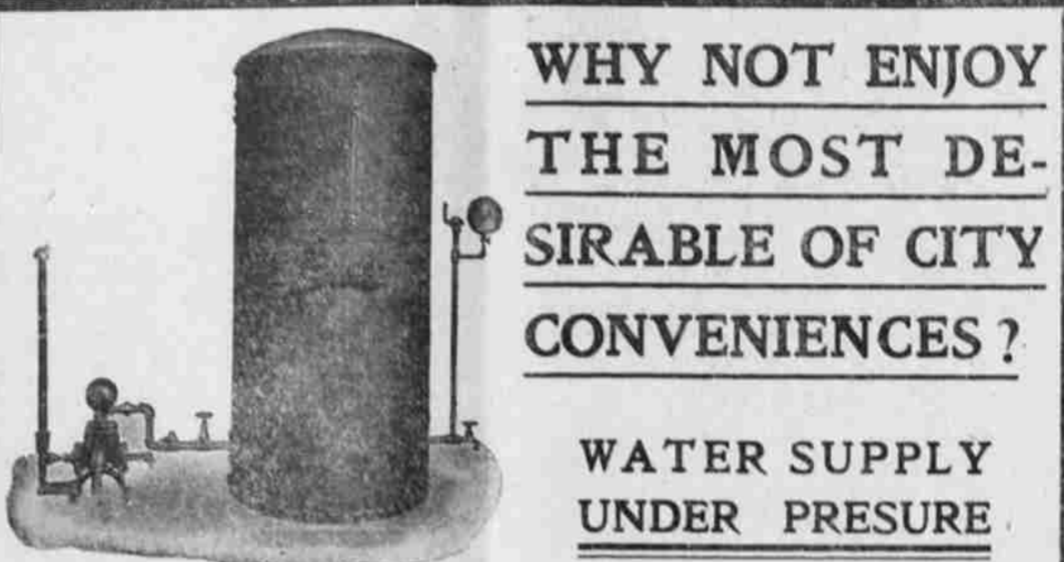

The old building is very small, poorly ventilated, poorly lighted, and last winter hops had to be driven from the spring before drinking water could be had.

The teacher was sick about a month from using the water, scholars were often sick, still the very enterprising people of Maple Lane down every and all improvements.

Water Wagon Quits. Today is the last of the water wagon in this city.

The Fourth of July Committee having the funds from the celebration held here on the Fourth donated the amount of money left for the water wagon to be used on Main street, Seventh street, Fifth and Center streets and Molalla avenue, which has been greatly appreciated by the residents and business men on the streets where the wagon has been used.

Maple Lane School Patrons Censured. Oregon City, Aug. 31.—The Maple Lane school district held a meeting this evening to vote for a new school house in a new location.

WHY NOT ENJOY THE MOST DESIRABLE OF CITY CONVENIENCES? WATER SUPPLY UNDER PRESURE

YOU NEED A Leader Water System IN YOUR HOME. No doubt you have often envied your city friends and wished for the conveniences afforded by modern water supply under pressure, in your home.

Write Today for Catalogues or call on W. J. WILSON & CO. OREGON CITY. J. J. SANDNESS GANBY, OREGON. Portland, Oregon. Mitchell LEWIS & STAVELAND IMPLEMENTS VEHICLES

WARE BUSINESS, keeping vehicles and all sorts of farm implements, and is building a fine new store which will be ready for occupancy some time in November.

Sore Eye of Three Years Standing cured. Miss Effie Pauliner, New Castle, Pa., writes: Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve cured me of a case of sore eyes of three years standing.

STAFFORD. The dry spell continues although it sprinkled a little Tuesday.

Ed Sharp has three children sick with what Dr. Mount, the attending physician, diagnosed as the new disease, infantile paralysis.

Miss Ida Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the family home on Center Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, of infantile paralysis.

Miss Ida Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the family home on Center Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, of infantile paralysis.

Miss Ida Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the family home on Center Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, of infantile paralysis.

Miss Ida Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the family home on Center Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, of infantile paralysis.

Miss Ida Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the family home on Center Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, of infantile paralysis.

Miss Ida Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the family home on Center Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, of infantile paralysis.

Miss Ida Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the family home on Center Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, of infantile paralysis.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson. In Use For Over Thirty Years. CASTORIA. Exact Copy of Wrapper.

EASTERN CLACKAMAS

E. I. Palfrey, of Molalla, accompanied by his son, Ernest, and his nephew, Dick Palfrey, of Hope, North Dakota, came over to his farm in this vicinity last week, returning with a load of farming implements.

Miss Bertha Douglas and Miss Missa Douglas were Etateada visitors one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and family of Springwater, were the guests of James Gibson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie, of Dover, were down this way the first of the week calling on relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James DeShazer, of Firwood, were visiting at the home of Mrs. DeShazer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Douglas, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gibson Sunday.

Mr. Douglass went huckleberrying last week and returned home with 14 gallons of berries. Henry Udell accompanied him.

Mr. Clark is in the neighborhood with his hay baler. He is haling some straw for Wesley Douglas.

Mrs. Cora Udell visited with James Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. John Reid Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Huntington called on Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Douglas Sunday.

Lou Baker and family, Alex Baker and family, G. W. Baker, S. A. Douglas and Ward Douglas, returned Sunday evening from the Warm Springs, where they had gone for an outing.

S. L. Chapman, Macas, Ky., says: I used Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve on my hands, which were sore, and find it the best I ever tried. It cured them completely. For sale by Jones Drug Company.