

STUPID PEOPLE.

Couldn't Tell What Grew Up Straight and Was Bred on Toast.

Never ask any one to supply you with a missing word, says a writer in the Atchison Globe, and if the experience which he relates is typical it is good advice. A woman was engaged recently in writing a letter to a friend, in which she was telling of what they had to eat at a party. She was getting along very well when all of a sudden she stopped to think. "What," she called to her family, "is that green stuff that grows up straight?" "Evergreen trees," some one replied. "Oh, no," said the woman; "I mean something to eat."

ABSURD FASHIONS.

Hairdressing and Hats in the Time of Marie Antoinette.

Some of the fashions in France during the reign of unfortunate Queen Marie Antoinette were exceedingly absurd, particularly hairdressing and hats, which were trimmed with such an extravagant wealth of feathers that the coaches had to have their seats lowered. According to Mrs. Campion, "mothers and husbands murmured, and the general rumor was that the queen would ruin the French ladies."

Her Only Criticism.

Little Dorothy not only liked her tea and coffee to have the appearance of being "real and true," but she also liked to taste the favor of each. One afternoon her mother took her to a friend's home where tea was served at 5 o'clock.

Another Meaning.

A traveler to the north on the Great Northern railway, having delivered his luggage to the care of an alert railway porter, proceeded to make himself comfortable in the corner of a first class smoking compartment. The porter, having performed his duty, came to the carriage to report, not without expectation of acceptable reward.

First Potatoes in Scotland.

It is claimed by a correspondent that the first person to grow potatoes in the open field in Scotland was Thomas Pentlow, a day laborer in the West Barony of the parish in Glasgow, near Chapel Green. That was in the year 1728. It was about four years after that date that the "Pentlows" entered the market with them and was very successful with his experiment, as he made £300 of it, which he sunk in double interest and died at Edinburgh in 1762.—Glasgow Herald.

Strictly Legal.

"What is a young man to do when his attention has been arrested by a pretty girl?" "Why, carry his case to court, of course."—Red Hen.

Sarcastic.

"Is she a great singer?" "No, I should call her great. You can understand every word she sings."—Detroit Free Press.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For Coughs, colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and Lung trouble, its supreme. 50c $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Jones' Drug Company.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first natural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by all dealers.
