PRETTY WEDDING CEREMONY IS PERFORMED ON THURSDAY EVENING AT CANBY.
 One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized on Thursday evening, September 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gordon, in Canby, when their daughter, Miss Ivah Gordon, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter S. Wells, of this city. At 8 o'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March rendered by the Des Larzes orchestra composed of Miss Iva Rojke, cellist; Miss Louise Huntley, organ; Lora Des Larzes, violin. The two bridesmaids, Miss June Charman, of this city, and Miss Nellie Bell, of Portland, followed by the bride entered the parlor, where they met the groom and his best man, Forbes Barclay Pratt. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Proctor, pastor of the Congregational church, of this city under a bower of ferns and lavender Chinese naters. Banks of asters formed the background making a very pretty effect. The bride and groom stood beneath a large bunch of white roses tied with white satin ribbons, when the impressive ring ceremony was used that made them man and wife. After the ceremony the Mendelssohn's Wedding March was rendered by the orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Wells received the best wishes and congratulations of their friends and relatives, after which a delicious luncheon was served.
 The bride was handsomely gowned in white satin messaline, made train and trimmings of pearls. Her long tulle veil was caught in place with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses.
 She wore a beautiful necklace of pearls and coral, the gift of the groom. Miss June Charman was becomingly attired in lavender silk messaline with silver trimmings, and Miss Nellie Bell, of Portland, wore a very pretty gown of lavender silk messaline. The bride's maid carried gracefully arm bouquets of lavender

GOOD WAY TO USE HYOMEI FOR CATARRH.
 Besides breathing through the inhaler a few times a day, many catarrh sufferers write that they find inhaling HYOMEI (pronounced it Hilly-mee) from a bowl of steaming water quite a relief before retiring a great aid in curing stubborn cases.
 Fill a bowl half full of boiling water; pour into the water a teaspoonful of HYOMEI, cover bowl and bowl with a towel, and breathe through the nose and mouth the pleasant, medicated, antiseptic and healing vapor that arises.
 You can get a bottle of HYOMEI at drug stores everywhere, or at Huntley Bros. Co. for only 50 cents. Ask for extra bottle HYOMEI Inhaler.
 But bear in mind that a HYOMEI outfit which includes inhaler and bottle of HYOMEI costs $1.00.
 HYOMEI is guaranteed to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, colds, asthma and croup, or money back. Try it on that generous basis.
