

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

WILSONVILLE.

Mrs. Clyde Baker is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alison Baker. John Butson went to Portland on Saturday.

Mrs. Stinebaugh has been spending a few days at her old home. Pearl Bailey, of Sherwood, spent Thursday at Corral Creek district.

Miss Bailey was the fortunate one out of ninety applicants to secure a position in the school at West Oregon City.

A great number of our village people attended the State Fair at Salem. H. Averill, of Portland, agent for the Oregon City Commission Company, was buying hay and other produce near Wilsonville on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Contractor Chalupsky is building Jake Peters' new hardware store, will be finished in November. Judson Seelye has returned from Eastern Oregon, where he has been for several months.

One of the chief officials of the Oregon Electric, was in Wilsonville on Monday. Norman Say and sons, John and James, spent Monday in Portland.

Mrs. Kiser and Miss Ransdell, of Portland, spent Sunday in Wilsonville, where they are interested in property on the river bank, which is to be used for a nurses' club house.

John Butson has sold 60 acres of the Salton farm. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Enler spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

The local school will open Monday, September 19, and the merry whistle of the school bell will again be heard in the land. The high school directors are trying to arrange to have high school begin soon also.

Beef and pork buyers from Portland have been making their rounds of the different farms. An artistic school booklet, containing information in regard to the high school course in Clackamas county, was sent out last week by the superintendent of schools at Oregon City.

The new high school at Oregon City is surely going to be a school of which our county residents may be justly proud.

About fifty guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges, on Sunday at high noon, to witness the marriage ceremony of Miss Georgia Fuller and Mr. John Esberg.

The bride wore a very becoming gown of cream albatross, while the groom was attired in conventional black. An elegant wedding luncheon was served by Mrs. Hodges, sister of the bride.

The young couple have left for their home in Portland, where the groom is a valued employee of the Simonds Saw Co.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Misses Olga McClure and Genevieve Capin, were guests of the Misses Mabel and Hazel Francis Wednesday of last week.

Ralph Grove had a new roof put on his blacksmith shop last week. Lyman Mack had his hay and straw baled last week.

Frank Bullard, with a crew of men, is working near Oswego on the new electric line which is under construction.

Albion Gerber, who has been sick at home for a week, returned to his work in Portland Tuesday morning.

W. G. Hall has a brother-in-law visiting here for a few days. Mr. Clarence Parsons, of Osborn City, Kansas, who is on a three months' tour visiting in Denver, Salt Lake, Salem, McMinnville, Oregon City and Portland, then he will go to California, where his parents are residing.

Mrs. Horan Williams and her daughter Mrs. A. A. Williams in Dover this week with Mrs. Olive Eva Exon.

Mrs. Wilmer Fisher and baby went to Mulino Tuesday on the automobile to spend a week with her mother, Mrs. Addins, and family.

Fred Erickson has sold his property on Duane street to a man from the Dalles.

J. M. Gillett is painting Mr. Shocke's house, out near the Henrick school house.

The hop pickers are coming home every day. Mrs. Quinn and daughter, Bessie, and Mr. O. W. Griffin and children, came home last week, Saturday on account of the rain.

Mrs. Mann and Walter and Mrs. West and children, who went to McKee to pick hops, are expected home Thursday.

Mrs. Selby and children are camping this week out on Beaver Creek, where Mr. Selby is cutting cord wood. Frank and Curtis Selby returned from the logging camp in Washington last week.

Mrs. Forward and children of Mount Pleasant, were calling on friends here last Monday.

A. Maust is building a wood shed for Tom Carrier. Geo. Gillett, who was hurt by a falling snag in the forest fire at Everhart's mill last month, is able to be out again.

Mrs. E. A. Oamond is on the sick list and Miss Alma Mack is staying with her.

Mr. Lyman is at home from the mill this week, in bed with an attack of pneumonia.

Grandpa Stewart is seriously ill with general debility. He is 94 years old.

Alvin Brandt broke his leg last week while riding after cattle.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

CLARKS.

Mrs. Scherruble and her daughter, Mrs. Hartman, from Oregon City visited Alexander Scherruble on Sunday. Alex. Scherruble is hauling hay to town.

W. H. Wettlaufer hauled a load of hay to town last Saturday.

NEW AND SECOND HAND FURNITURE, STOVES, RANGES, TINWARE, GRANITWARE, SHELF HARDWARE, NOTIONS.

I Pay Cash and Sell for Cash Get my prices and see if I can save you money

J. H. MATTLEY 905 7TH STREET

STONE.

The union high school at Stone will begin on Monday next, September 19th with Miss Marshall, of Portland, in charge. Pupils wishing to attend from outside the district can do so by paying a very moderate rate of tuition.

Miss Marshall is a graduate of Oxford, Ohio, College, and a teacher of experience. Mr. Kirk butched a fine lot of pork Monday for the Canby market.

Uncle Dave Robson was on our streets Monday shaking hands and talking politics. Mr. Mayfield and wife have left the Hotel De Perry and have located in Molalla.

Mr. Calvin and family are taking to the fair at Portland this week. Roy Dougan was in town Tuesday shaking hands and renewing old acquaintance.

We hear of wireless telegraphy, wireless telephone and barbed wireless fences, but the latest is Mr. Schafer's wireless barrows.

For use on Face and Hands Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve is the best. It is a creamy snow white ointment and one 25c box will last three months. For sale by Jones Drug Co.

We have been threatened with rain at various times but as yet little has fallen in this part of the county. Last Saturday but 1/10 of an inch fell here.

The northern part of town has been visited with two forest fires, fortunately the damage was very light.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

SHUBEL.

Fall plowing is pretty well along. Mr. and Mrs. Will Hettman had their baby baptized at the Forna, his old home here last Sunday.

E. F. Gintler, Robert Schubel and Robert Gintler have returned from the mountains where they spent a week huckleberrying and fishing.

The Misses Jessie and Lucia Morrison, of Seattle, after spending several weeks at the home of C. Hornschuh, enjoying country life, returned to their home in Seattle.

Raymond Gintler visited with his friend, Hurley Fellows, of Highland, today.

Henry Massinger has gone with his sister, Johanna, to Aberdeen, Wash., where he will attend High School this year.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we will like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

Light showers Saturday and Sunday but looks now like the rain was over. It didn't rain enough here to settle the dust good, but reports come of heavy rains south of here.

The danger from fires seems to be over for the present. Many slashings have been burned in spite of the warnings of the press.

Hop picking is over and the Mulinoites have all returned home. A short job this year.

Miss Mabel Seaward is spending a few days at the Wallace home this week. It is reported that she expects to make this neighborhood her permanent residence in the near future.

Lewis Churchill went to Canby Saturday after Bob Snodgrass' horse which was so badly injured in the runaway at that place last week. They think they can save the horse if blood poisoning doesn't set in.

Arthur Mallatt went to Silverton Thursday. Work was commenced on the steel bridge across Milk Creek at this place Saturday, and will be rushed through to completion as fast as possible.

This is a much needed improvement as the old bridge was a dangerous place for teams to meet automobiles.

Mr. Husband is building a house for Oscar Daniels at Mulino. Our town is building up slowly.

An Awful Eruption of a volcano exists brief interest, and your interest in skin eruptions will be as short, if you use Huckle's Arnica Salve, their quickest cure. Even the worst boils, ulcers, or fever sores are soon healed by it. Best for Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Chilblains and Piles. It gives instant relief. 25c at Jones Drug Co.

Died, at his home, one mile south of Molloy, Christian William Camehl, aged 83 years and two months. Mr. Camehl was born in Gomsen Province, Hanover, Germany, July 8, 1827, and came to America at the age of 27 years. He returned to Germany the next year to remain only one year, when he returned to America in 1857, and in the same year was married to Miss Elizabeth Lehr, October 26, 1857, settling in St. Peter, Minn., where he followed the stone mason's trade until 1862, when Mr. Camehl left his family and crossed the continent to Portland, Oregon, where he spent the greater part of '63 and '64 in the small village at work as a stone mason and carpenter on some of the now historic buildings of our present metropolis. Returning to Minn., by water late in 1864, where he remained until 1890, when, with his family, he moved to Oregon, locating on a farm near Wilsonville, where he has continuously resided with his wife and son Albert, until his death. To Mr. and Mrs. Camehl were born five sons and one daughter, the two eldest having died in Minn., at the ages of 4 and 6 years. He leaves to mourn their loss his aged wife, three sons, Hierman, Ernest, and A. W., and the daughter, Ida. Mrs. Theodore C. Wendland of Portland, and three grandchildren, two sons and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendland. The remains were laid to rest in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery Sept. 3. Services were conducted by Rev. Coleman, of Sherwood, assisted by the Hood View choir.

WOOD WANTED—Six cords of first growth. Inquire at Enterprise office.

DOVER. George Wolf is having the ground cleaned for a new residence. Mrs. Cooper is building a new fruit drier. Miss Hettie Woodie is visiting this week with her brother, Guy, and family.

The neighbors are all lending a hand in hauling lumber for Mr. Widgrove's barn. Joseph DeShazer and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller.

Harry Mowrey, wife and two boys, of Sellwood, visited last week with the Keith family. Mr. Mowrey was very favorably impressed with this part of the country, and is thinking of investing in some property here. He is book-keeper for the East Side Mill Company.

Birch Roberts went to Portland last Saturday. Stubborn As Mules are liver and bowels sometimes seem to balk without cause. Then there's trouble—Loss of Appetite—Indigestion, Nervousness, Despondency, Headache. But such troubles fly before Dr. King's New Life Pills, the world's best Stomach and Liver remedy. So easy. 25c at Jones Drug Company.

Sore Eye of Three Years Standing cured. Miss Effie Faulkner, New Castle, Pa., writes: Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve cured me of a case of sore eyes of three years standing. I cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a remedy. For sale by Jones Drug Company.

MEADOWBROOK. Meadowbrook school opened Monday morning with Miss Mabel Chindgren as principal. The attendance was good.

George Williams has been hauling in feed the last few days preparatory for a winter's lodging.

Paul Lamb is preparing to build a dwelling.

Dr. Morey made a business trip to town Monday morning.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.

Mr. Jubb said that the questions at issue in this election are the most important since the civil war. Almost all that spoke made it known that they are anti-assembly candidates.

W. A. Dimeck and E. P. Carter were the only ones that made political speeches and they left no doubt that they are against the assembly from start to finish.

There are four Logan hay-baling crews in the field. Two of them have been working in the Gresham country.

Several of the Republican aspirants for nomination at the primary, were at the Grange hall on the 8th. Fred Gerber called the meeting to order and called on T. C. Jubb to preside.