SOCIETY

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erickson of Fourth and Madison streets, when Miss Henrietta Esther Bruner, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Bruner, and sister of Mrs. Erickson, was united in marriage to Dean B. Silva, of Portland. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Landsborough, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The bride was prettily gowned in white batiste, and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and asparagus ferns, while her bridesmaid, Miss Edna Simmons, was becomingly gowned in pale blue silk, and carried pink carnations. William Silva, of Portland, brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served on the lawn, which was brilliantly lighted with Chinese lanterns. Five long tables were spread beneath the trees, and these were prettily decorated with trailing clematis vines. The bride's table were seated 20 relatives of the contracting parties, there being four generations. The bride's table was decorated with bride's roses and white satin ribbons. Many handsome wedding gifts were received by the young couple. The bride and groom presented the bridesmaid with a beautiful gold ring with amethyst settings, the birthstone of Miss Simmons, and the best man was presented with a scarf pin of amethyst and pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Silva left on the late car for Portland, where they will reside, the groom being in business at that city. Mrs. Erickson's home was artistically decorated for this occasion. The living room where the ceremony was performed was in white Chinese asters, clematis and bride's roses. An archway, where the bride and groom stood during the ceremony, was in white lilies and clematis. The dining room was in lavender, asters being used in profusions, intermingled with trailing vines. Those assisting Mrs. Erickson and Mrs. Bruner were Mrs. Fred Shannon, Mrs. J. H. Kellogg, Mrs. A. J. Wilson and Miss Mattilda Meyer. Those attending the marriage ceremony and reception were Mrs. M. E. Wilson, of Montesano, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Silva, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yount, Mrs. Julia Both and daughter, Mrs. Frank Sherwood, all of Rainier, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Archer and baby, Clifford, William
