

Stringent French Customs.

Tourists must not fail to note the stringency of the French customs as to the stinking materials they may innocently bring with them.

CANBY

J. S. Yoder, of Needy, who won the M. J. Lee special prize, a silver cake basket, for the best six boxes of apples, has the apples on exhibition in the window of Fred Roth's office.

R. S. COE, winner of many premiums at County Fair.

Stefani were conducted by Father Matthews, of New Era Sunday afternoon, the interment being in Zion cemetery. The services were in English and Italian.

Reception to M. E. Pastor. Rev. C. L. Cressy, having returned to the Canby M. E. Church as its pastor for another year, the members and friends of the church are preparing to tender him and his excellent wife a public reception on Friday evening of this week.

work at their homes since their wives have found what they can do in that line. The men were all well fed, and there was no complaint about the bill of fare.

Return of Canby Pioneer. Rev. A. J. Joslyn, for forty years pastor or Presiding Elder of various churches and charges throughout Oregon, Idaho, Washington and latterly of Nome, Alaska, from which he has just returned to Canby, near which he settled with his parents in 1853.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Barlow is the proud possessor of city water works. We are pleased to know the directors have had city water put into the school house.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

COUNTY FAIR CLOSES

(Continued from page 6.)

Never before had the Barlow Progressive Club a better exhibit than at this year's fair. H. T. Mevin, who stated that he was a State No. 1 man, and who had charge of the exhibits ably assisted by Mrs. L. L. Irwin, that all of the exhibits were No. 1, and all who viewed it agreed with him.

On the second floor was a dairy exhibit, where the freshest butter was to be found. M. S. Shrock, deputy dairy and food commissioner, was in charge, giving demonstrations.

The new machinery hall that had been built during the summer on the fair grounds was occupied by Andrew Koehor, of Canby, who had a full supply of Oliver (Chilled plow goods, a line of the John Deere Plow Company, wagons, sulky plows, seeders, disc harrows, manure spreaders, Kentucky drills, etc.

The livestock parade on the race track was witnessed by many thousands of visitors, and a fine showing was made in this department. Some of the best blooded stock in the state was seen at this fair.

Hundreds of chickens, ducks, rabbits and English hares were found in the buildings, which had been built this summer west of the big pavilion. This department was in charge of Fred Dougherty, of Molalla, who had charge of this department at last year's fair.

One of the features of the fair on Friday afternoon was the wrestling match between Carl Busch, the noted wrestler, and "Auk" Smith, of this city. Busch threw his opponent three times in succession, the first time in nine minutes, the second in three minutes and the third in three minutes.

On Friday morning the baby show took place, when over 50 babies were entered by their proud parents. This was in charge of Mrs. G. E. Freytag, Fair ladies, fair babies, smiling babies and crying babies were found among this grand display.

Best sutured baby—Mrs. W. M. Randall first, Mrs. Ralph Miller second. Largest baby—Mrs. C. W. Fallert first, Mrs. Edgar Waldron second. Youngest—Mrs. D. E. Bok first, Mrs. Arthur Blanchard second.

Oldest—Attorney C. H. Dye, of Oregon City. Owing to lack of space the premium list will be published in next week's Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, of Scotts Mills, accompanied by their daughter, were in Canby last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" Taylor and Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson.

Miss Florence Spencer, who has been ill for the past few days, is improving. Arthur Chase, Sr. and son, Arthur, of Oregon City, were in Canby the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Briggs, of Gladstone, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huiras, of this city. The former recently lost their home at Gladstone by fire, but are to build on their property at that place in the near future.

Fred Howard and Clifford Willis, who have been spending the summer in Eastern Oregon, have returned to Canby.

Ransom Soper, of Falls City, has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. E. W. Hutchinson.

Miss Loran has arrived in Canby and is assisting in the care of little Christina Loran, who is very ill at the home of her parents, suffering with infantile paralysis.

Dr. H. A. Dedman has gone to Callfornia and Dr. E. Gieser, of Aurora, has charge of his practice.

Mrs. J. E. Eger, of Roseburg, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bissell.

Mrs. Charles Lucke, of Portland, who has been visiting at the home of George Koehler, returned to his home on Wednesday afternoon.

The Canby band will give one of its enjoyable dances at the city hall on October 15.

Word has been received of the death of Raleigh Dimick at Monitor. The young man had visited with his uncle in this city and was well known here.

George Swisher, a well known horseman, who spent several days in this city viewing the horse races at the fair, has returned to his home in Eugene. Mr. Swisher expects to return here this winter.

Mr. Robbins and family, who left here in the spring for Eugene, where they spent the summer, have returned to Canby. Mr. Robbins has some very fine horses, and it is probable these will be wintered on the race track at the county fair grounds.

J. S. Yoder, accompanied by his son, R. E. Yoder, of Needy, attended the fair. The latter camped during the session.

Robert Britt, a well-known horseman, who came here to attend the fair and visit with friends, has returned to Salem.

Mrs. M. E. Roberts and daughter, Violet, of Red Bluff, California, who have been spending the summer in this city and in Portland, returned to their home this week. They will return to Canby in March.

Petitions for County High School Fund. William Knight, clerk for school district No. 86, has been circulating a petition for the establishment of a county high school fund.

Professor Buchanan is instructor of the high school, and it has been found necessary to have assistance. Mrs. Buchanan has been engaged by the directors to assist, and teaches in the forenoon of each day.

There are 23 students taking high school work in Canby, and by the first of the year there will be many more. There are over 125 pupils enrolled in the public school.

CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

O. D. Eby, Democratic candidate for State Senator, was born in Oregon in 1872; came to Oregon City 1901, studied law and admitted to the bar in 1904, and by hard work and persistence now has a large practice.

Has made good in whatever he has undertaken and will make good as Senator. (Paid advt.) O. D. EBY.

BOUND VOLUMES

MAGAZINES

ONE OF OUR SPECIALTITS

Have Your Magazines Bound and Preserved

BLANKBOOKS

LOOSE LEAF DEVICES

PRINTING

STEEL DIE EMBOSSING

OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE

Best Equipped Plant in the State, outside of Portland