SOCIETY

The Women's Club held their first meeting since the summer vacation at the Commercial Club parlors Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance, among those being in attendance were Mrs. Hugh Platt and Mrs. Louis Tidball, of Portland.

There was a great deal of important business brought up for discussion, the most important being the taking up of the discussion as to the annexation of Multnomah and Clackamas counties. It was decided by the club that each member correspond with personal friends stating that they are against the annexation. It is thought that in this way much can be accomplished.

The matter of organization of a Junior Civic Improvement Club was taken up for discussion, and it was decided to organize into sections of the different schools of the city, committees being appointed to take charge. These committees are composed of the following: Canemah—Mrs. Shank, Miss Ada Bedwell, Mrs. S. S. Mohler, Willamette—Mrs. Viola Godfrey, Mrs. George DeBok, Mrs. Downey, Mount Pleasant—Mrs. A. C. Warner, Miss M. L. Holmes, Eastham—Mrs. D. C. Latourette, Mrs. Frank Betzel, Mrs. David Caulfield, Barclay—Mrs. E. E. Sallisbury, Mrs. W. A. Shevman and Mrs. George C. Brownell.

At the State Federation of Women's Club meets at the Dalles on October 25, 26, 27, delegates were appointed to attend to represent the Oregon City Women's Club and these are Mrs. J. W. Norris, Mrs. H. E. Straight, Mrs. W. A. Shevman.

The matter of the rest room was taken up, and a report made of the financial condition. At the recent cook food sale held in the Beaver building over $24 were the net proceeds, and this will go towards the rent of the rooms in the Masonic building. These rooms are visited by many visitors of the city, where they enjoy some of the late magazines and rest in comfort. Many of the young women of this city who are employed had this a most desirable place to spend their non-hour, where they may partake of their lunch, and rest from their morning's work.

The social part of the afternoon was devoted to the relating of "vacation stories," many of them being interesting and amusing. Among the most interesting was that of Mrs. J. L. Waldron, who told of her experiences at Mount Hood when the forest fire were raging in that section.

At the home of Mr. Anton Heinrich, at High Noon Sunday, occurred the marriage of Lena B. Dane, of Logan to Anton Heinrich, of Clackamas. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Christoff John, of Courtney, and the wedding took place under an arch which was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and bells. Promptly at 12 o'clock, the bride couple, bridesmaid and A. Dane best man, entered the room to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Lulu Hayward, of Clackamas, and after the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where a bountiful repast was served by Mrs. Marie Heinrich and assistants, after which the newly-wedded couple left by automobile for their wedding tour and a shower of rice. They received many beautiful presents. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dane and family, of Logan, Mrs. Marie Heinrich and son, of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mundhenke, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. J.

The marriage of Miss Josephine Chase, niece of Mrs. R. D. Wilson and the late James Chase, of this city, and Mr. George H. They will also visit Washington, D. C.

The bride is well known in this city, and is a very popular young woman and has many friends here. The bridegroom formerly resided in this city, where he was superintendent of the finishing department of the Oregon City Woolen Mills. He is now connected with the woolen mills of Waterloo.

Mrs. Bebb was on a visit in New York, where she has been since May, and her friends were taken by surprise upon hearing of her marriage.
