

Milwaukie and Northern Clackamas

MILWAUKIE.

The citizens of Milwaukie held a convention Tuesday evening, Nov. 22, in City Hall and nominated the following ticket: Present Mayor, Streib, was unanimously nominated, W. P. Lehman and Warren Knight for councilmen, C. R. Hanson, recorder, W. H. Grasse, treasurer, Henry Phillips, marshal.

A. H. Dowling was elected chairman and Dan Mathews, secretary. The best of spirit prevailed. L. S. Mullin refused to become a candidate for councilman and nominated Warren Knight. J. A. Keek was running against Mr. Hanson but lost out for recorder. J. E. Wetzler was Mr. Grasse's opponent for treasurer.

There were four candidates for marshal but Mr. Phillips received the nomination. Everyone is well pleased with the citizens' ticket and hope it will carry in the December election.

The taxpayers will hold a convention Wednesday evening, Nov. 23 and nominate their ticket. It is presumed ex-Mayor Shuder will head the ticket. J. A. Dowling of Oak Grove, formerly of Milwaukie, received a letter from his brother in Pennsylvania, stating their father, who is 85 years old, is well and enjoying the best of health.

Mrs. Ennis, daughter of Captain Shaw, is training and has full charge of a three act drama which will be given Dec. 2 by the Milwaukie band.

The Milwaukie Commercial Club will hold a meeting Friday evening, Nov. 25, in City Hall and select delegates to the Oregon Development League which will be held in Salem, Oregon, Nov. 28-29-30.

T. E. A. Sellwood has been quite poorly since his return from the east and is confined to his home with a severe case of La Grippe.

Milwaukie Grange held a fine meeting Saturday. Nineteen visitors from Oregon City, Oswego and Portland were present.

Grange Bazaar. Saturday, Dec. 3, open at 10 a. m. Fancy articles, aprons, rugs and comforters, home made candies, cakes, pies, jellies, fresh fruits and vegetables. Cafeteria lunch all day and evening. Ice cream. Program 8 p. m.

Mrs. Ike Mullin was taken home from the Sellwood hospital Tuesday where she underwent a serious operation. She is slowly improving and we hope for a permanent cure.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cooper of Oregon City, were visiting friends in Milwaukie Saturday.

C. S. Wood is digging a well on his property in Minthorn. He dug down 90 feet and drove 8 feet and has not struck water yet. Mr. Woods says he is bound to have water so will keep on digging.

Mrs. Susan Naeff was buried from the German Methodist church Wednesday afternoon. Interment in Milwaukie cemetery.

Births. Tommy Toats and wife are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the birth of a nine pound boy, born Nov. 16. Mother and child doing fine. Dr. House attending.

The wedding of Mr. Stickney and Miss Leta Miller took place Nov. 24 at the home of the bride's father, John Miller at Milwaukie Heights at 12 o'clock noon by the Rev. E. Radebaugh of the Evangelical church. Only a few friends and immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Stickney left for their new home 10 miles from Vancouver, Wash.

Deaths. Mrs. Mary Ann Emmill, mother of John Emmill, died Nov. 17 at 2 a. m., aged 80 years, 4 months and 15 days. Mrs. Emmill was born July 2, 1830 in Alleghany county, Penn. She came to Oregon in 1900 and has made her home in Milwaukie. She leaves two sons, one daughter, 29 grandchildren, and 15 great grandchildren. The remains were shipped to Middleton, Or., for interment, the home of one of her sons. The funeral was held at the Evangelical church Friday. The services were conducted by Rev. E. Radebaugh, pastor.

Church Notes. Evangelical church—Sunday School, 10:30 a. m., John Grasse, superintendent. Services 11:30 a. m. by the pastor, Rev. E. Radebaugh. Evening services will be the Thanksgiving services, which were postponed on account of Mrs. Emmill's death. Y. P. A. at 7 p. m. Teachers' training Tuesday evening. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Choir practice, Thursday evening.

The new building to be built of cement blocks by J. E. Wetzler, on his property on Main street, formerly owned by J. W. Grasse, is to be 50x60 feet, and to be for his own office, and the pool room which now adjoins the postoffice. It was rumored that the postoffice was to move there but the original frontage which the plans showed, only allowed about 11 feet front for the postoffice and this would cause the postoffice boxes to be placed lengthwise of the room, and this was not favored. Several other locations have been offered for the postoffice but Mr. Ganiard has decided to stay where he is providing he can have a little more room added to his present quarters. The quarters were originally intended for the post office, clear through the entire building but were cut down to accommodate the bank. Now that the bank and pool room are to be permanently housed in other quarters Mr. Ganiard will try to arrange for more space where he is, as the department does not approve moving a postoffice unless objectionable features cannot be remedied. This, in a measure, has been accomplished.

The new depot is almost completed and is a neat structure. It is centrally located and an ornament to Milwaukie.

A meeting was held Tuesday night to nominate a city ticket for the coming election. Streib was the choice for Mayor and W. H. Grasse for treasurer. There is to be another meeting Wednesday evening and the taxpayers will nominate Wm. Shinder for Mayor and John Wetzler for treasurer. The former favor bonding the city for $200,000 for streets and sewers; the latter believe in going at it on a smaller basis and gradually making improvements where they most need it. The outcome is looked upon with interest by both factions.

A Regular Tom Boy was Susie—climbing trees and fences, jumping ditches, whiffling, always getting scratches, cuts, aprons, and bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. But laws! Her mother just applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and cured her quick. Heals everything healable—boils, ulcers, eczema, old sores, corns or piles. Try it. 25 cents at all drug-gists.

PARALYTIC STROKE CLAIMS MRS. NAEF

PROMINENT OAK GROVE WOMAN DIED SUDDENLY MONDAY MORNING.

Mrs. Susanna Naeff, wife of Otto Naeff, Sr., one of the prominent residents of Oak Grove, died at the family home Monday morning at 4:25. Mrs. Naeff was in the best of health yesterday, but Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock she suffered from a paralytic stroke, and at 4:25 suffered from a second stroke, which was the cause of her death. The funeral services were held at the Milwaukie Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Naeff, whose maiden name was Susanna Wyder, was born at Zurich, Switzerland 53 years ago. She was united in marriage to Mr. Naeff in 1881 and with her husband and two sons came to America 23 years ago. They have made their home at Oak Grove, and Naeff's Station, on the O. W. P. line having been named after Mr. Naeff. Mrs. Naeff leaves a husband and two sons, Otto H. and Ernest, who reside at the family home. She will be deeply missed by her family as well as her large circle of friends.
