MOLALLA.

Merry Xmas to the Enterprise family. Weather clear; many are plowing. The Molalla school closed today for a two weeks' vacation. Our teachers, Prof. Owens, Mrs. Joy and Miss Lay, will attend the institute at Portland. When Molalla heard that Geo. C. Brownell was elected mayor of Oregon City she threw up her political bonnet skyward from the corner stone where the old Confederate cross roads are supposed to have crossed. Levy Robbins is having built on his farm, one of the nicest houses in the neighborhood. A few weeks ago there was a notice in one of our county papers that Mr. Meldrum, of Meldrum Station, had installed the first residence electric lighting plant in the county. Two years ago J. W. Thomas installed at Oak Point farm, an electric lighting plant of 25 lights, run by a gasoline engine or by water power. The arrangement of the plant accommodates the residence, poultry house, barn, shops and garage collectively or independently. By gasoline power the cost per month runs about $5 to $8, by water power the cost is only 10 to 25 cents per month. Born to the household of Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, Dec. 17, a daughter. Dec. 19 Mrs. Gilbert Engle presented her husband with a girl baby for a Xmas present. Russell and Henderson have returned from their trapping expedition, reporting a good catch. Chas. Thomas and Mrs. Lett returned from Seattle last Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Bell, who will spend the holidays at Oak Point farm. Mrs. Clara Darr, Virgil, Myrtle, Elsie and Alma will spend Xmas with relatives at Stone.

COLTON.

The entertainment given by the Colton school Saturday evening was well attended and everybody reports a good time. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stromgren and daughters took a trip to Oregon City last week. J. Putz was helping E. Lindstrom butcher dogs and beef last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Will James, of Colton, were visiting with the latter's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Morse, at Dodge, Sunday. W. Gorsett has been busy putting in a new sidewalk the past week. J. A. Stromgren is on the sick list. Henry Schriener, of Clark, was a visitor at J. Putz's Sunday. Alfred Berglund was busy hauling telephone poles Thursday. John Scott, of Elwood, was a business visitor in our burg last week. Pearl Stromgren, who had been absent from school on account of illness, started again last week. Joe Carlson left for Oregon City Saturday. Quite a number of Springwater's young folks attended the entertainment at Colton Saturday night.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as secretly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them. Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print in every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashby went to Salem Saturday on a visit, returning Monday. Fred Wallace went to Saint Helens Saturday. Inez Snodgrass went to Portland Tuesday to attend the teachers' institute. The Mullino school closed yesterday for a two weeks' vacation, after which Mr. Saxon will continue to wield the birch for another term. Bert Wallace is able to be at work again but Mrs. Wallace is still bed fast and improving very slowly. Bill Bohlander and wife have taken up their residence on the farm of R. H. Snodgrass at Meadowbrook. Mr. Crook bought a cow of Mr. Cooper this week. A telephone meeting was held at the Grange hall Saturday evening to elect a director, resulting in the election of J. A. Davis to fill that position.

Eczema is considered hard to cure. Try Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve and you will change your mind. You will see an improvement from the first application. Sold by Jones Drug Co.

CLARKES.

Clarence Lee got a load of oats from Alex Scherrulle for Mr. Cummins. Alex Scherrulle has moved to his brother, David's, for the winter. Messrs. Strongren, Burglund and Axcene are putting up their telephone posts. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas, a daughter. Mrs. Scherrulle has gone back home to Portland. They had a special tax meeting on Saturday in Highland. It was voted down; no special tax for next year. Jack Wallace, from Highland, bought Alex Scherrulle's bees last week. Mr. Wetlaufer made a trip to Portland last week on business.

The greatest danger from influenza is of its resting in pneumonia. This can be obviated by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as it not only cures influenza, but counteracts any tendency of the disease towards pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

J. Lewellen is building new sidewalk for J. R. Fairclough near the store of Everhart & Hall. J. Hofstad returned from Canada last week, accompanied by his brother, who will spend the holidays here. Mrs. Frank Bullard was shopping in Portland Saturday. Mr. L. H. Newman has bought two lots from Miss Mollie Holmes and expects to build soon. Rev. J. H. Quinn held services at the Mountain View church Sunday evening.

HEWETT, BRADLEY & CO.

Highest Grade Men's Wear. The shop of the handsome window. Three forty-four Washington street. Between Seventh and Park, Portland.

CLARKES.

Sidney Smith, of Mullino, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Wallace. Quite a number attended the debate Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wallace and daughter spent Saturday and Sunday at the Wallace home. The sick folks are all about again. Charley Grossmiller was a caller in this burg Sunday. School is out until after the holidays.

STAFFORD.

We have enjoyed excellent winter weather for the past week, but very little credit has been given to the digging of potatoes. We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Anna Mary Barnes passed away at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. She has been ill for a number of years, and had frequent sick spells, but on December 1 she was taken seriously ill, which developed into peritonitis. She leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing son and daughter, and no relatives and neighbors. She has been a willing worker in the Grange for years. Mr. Nussbaum ran a nail in his finger and has had quite a bad hand for the past week or ten days, but is improving now. The teachers, with the help of the scholars, got up a very pleasing program for Tuesday afternoon. While the exercises were going the drill were a class of young girls looked to be standing on their heads, while they sang a little roundly, with shoes on their hands waving in the air, and the mock marriage ceremony by Gideon Anderson, seemed to bring down the house. There is no school till after the holidays, as the teachers are to attend the institute at Portland. The meetings at the church, have been well attended and the program for the Christmas tree, which will be heard on Saturday evening, is well in hand. The shooting matches have been well attended with uniform satisfactory results. In some cases a flock of turkeys, chickens, or geese have been started with the live ones obtained. Mrs. Ellesen sold two geese the next day after one of the matches to start a feather bed next summer for the buyer. Little Sarah Nussbaum has sick spells quite often, but did not like to stay home from school or the entertainment and was quite sick that night and next day.

MAKE UP YOUR OWN MIND

FALLS VIEW.

The farmers around Falls View have been taking advantage of the fine weather the past week. Everard Sagar, of North Yakima, Wash., is visiting with his brother, Louis Sagar. Covey Thomas is sawing wood for Mr. Wallace. Mr. Briggs, of Woodlawn, Wash., is visiting with Harry Kirbyson. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sagar and daughter, Mabel, Mattie D. Hayman, George Sagar, Everard Sagar and John Gillett, of Oregon City, spent an evening last week with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wallace and family. Ed Honzak, the road supervisor, is doing some fine work on the roads now. Mrs. Anna Dalbo and Emma Grossmuller called on Mrs. L. Moser one day last week. Everard Sagar and Louis Sagar were visiting with Louis Rath and family, Joe Parrish and Tom Parrish, of Highland, Monday. Jay Dix spent last week in Oregon City. They Cook has purchased himself a valuable horse. Frank Miller and Louis Sagar have installed new phones. Wm. Miller has moved from Falls View to his new farm in Carus. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wallace and daughter, of Meadowbrook, were visiting relatives here the past week. Rae Kirbyson has returned home from a visit with friends in Oregon City. Harry Kirbyson, Mr. Briggs, George Sagar and Mr. Bert Cummins and family, of Beaver Creek, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sagar. The Falls View debating society met last Saturday night at their usual hour in the Falls View school.

house. An especially large crowd was in attendance, many visitors from adjoining districts being present. A program was given which consisted of vocal and instrumental music. The question debated upon was "Resolved That the crimes of the white men against the Indian have been worse than those of the Indian against the Whites." Those who affirmed the question were George Kirbyson, Louis Sagar, Ed Schmidt, Harry Kirbyson and Otto Lyman. Those who denied the question were George Schmidt, Kilian Schmidt, G. R. Miller and Mrs. G. R. Miller. The judges were Robert Moehke, Peter Huber and R. Edwards. Mr. Huber gave their decision in favor of the negative. The society will meet again Saturday night, December 31, when they will debate upon the question, "Resolved, That the fear of punishment has a greater influence upon human conduct than the hope of reward." Those on the affirmative are Ed Schmidt, G. R. Miller, George Schmidt, Jay Dix, Harry Kirbyson and Mr. McMarron. Those on the negative are Mrs. G. R. Miller, Kilian Schmidt, George Kirbyson, Louis Sagar, Mattie D. Hayman and John Gard. Besides the debate there will also be a literary program given. The society will give a Xmas program on Sunday night, December 25.

NOT GOOD

MEADOWBROOK.

Master Willis Staundinger and his sister Edna made a business trip to their mountain ranch Monday. A. V. Davis is head engineer at the planing mills this week. Mr. Holman was seen by some of his neighbors hauling off a load of turkeys the first of the week. We suppose he raised them. The Christmas entertainment at the school was a success in every respect. The tree was beautifully decorated and held many beautiful presents. Charley Shaw is erecting quite a substantial residence near the suspension bridge on Main avenue. O. P. Kay visited home Sunday evening from Washington, where he had been visiting his son's family. Miss Reta and Willie Staundinger are spending Christmas visiting with Master George and Mary Kay. Milton Trullinger has a new process of removing stumps. The farmer with stumps in his field may soon become the laughing stock for his neighbors.
