Vaughan Brothers imported 50 red foxes from the East, one of which is valued at $100, and this is the first time that a hunt has been made. The men returned to the Vaughan home for breakfast. They are planning to have another hunt about New Year's Eve.

CAPTAIN EVANS BURIED FRIDAY

HE WAS ONE OF THE BEST KNOWN STEAMBOAT MEN IN THE NORTHWEST.

FUNERAL UNDER AUSPICES I. O. O. F.

HE WAS A PIONEER OF THE EARLY FIFTIES—Many Old Time Friends Pay Last Respects.

Captain James Madison Evans, who died at his home in Canby on Thursday morning, December 15, was one of the pioneers of Oregon, and one of the best known steamboat men in the state. The funeral services were conducted at the family residence on Friday morning at 11 o'clock, and the interment was in the Zion cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Croes, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, and he was assisted by the I. O. O. F. lodge, of which the deceased has been a member for 24 years. Mr. Evans was also a member of the A. O. U. W. lodge for 24 years, belonging to that order at the time of his death. The funeral services were largely attended, many from Oregon City, New Era and other parts of the county being in attendance. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The I. O. O. F. lodges of Canby and Oregon City sent beautiful offerings. The pall bearers were M. R. Colby, A. Koehler, D. Dimick, John Zeek, William Maple and C. L. Croes.

James Evans was born in St. Louis, Mo., August 28, 1843. At the age of six, he accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, to Andrew County, Missouri, with a train of 13 wagons across the plains. The start was made in March, 1852.

There were many thrilling experiences on the trip. A brother of James Evans, while playing near the camp, was taken suddenly ill with cholera, and died after a few minutes of suffering. The family of Mr. Evans arrived here in October, 1852. The train disbanded at The Dalles, and those who came to Oregon City crossed the river near the site of the old brick mill, which is now used by Hawley Pulp & Paper Company.

After a three weeks' stay in this city, James Evans left with his parents for the mouth of the Pudding River. A cabin was built by the father, and he secured employment with Dr. John McLaughlin in this city. James well remembered the Father of Oregon, and often spoke in the highest terms of his kindness to the settlers. Mr. Evans delighted in telling of his thrilling experiences with the Indians in the early days, and he had hundreds of friends, young and old, who learned with regret of his death.

Perhaps no man in the state of Oregon has had charge of so many boats as Captain James Evans. Among the boats he was connected with in the early days were the Hoosier, Washington, Canemah, Oregon, Willamette, Bellef, Elk, Shoshone, Phoenix, Shoalwater, Moose, Gazelle and Franklin. Of the boats of later years Captain Evans has been connected with the S. P. Church, Yamhill, Orient, Occident, Enterprise, James Clinton, Shoshie, Dayton, Echo, St. Carrie, Ohio, City of Salem, Success, Eugene, Eagle, Reliance, Albany, Active, N. S. Bentley, W. M. Hogue, Elwood, Bonanza, Champion, Isabel, A. A. McCulley, Valley Queen, Three Sisters and N. R. Lang.

EASTERN CLACKAMAS

FIRWOOD.

Fred E. Block of the Mt. Hood Land Co. is transacting business in this vicinity this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hart spent Tuesday and Wednesday shopping in Portland.

The Firwood Association had a pleasant and interesting time last Saturday.

Mrs. Anton Malar was in Portland the fore part of the week.

Mrs. B. F. Hart spent Friday and Saturday of last week in the city.

School District No. 52 held a school meeting Dec. 17 for the purpose of voting a special tax, which was carried by a large majority.

Jack Lawless left Monday for Portland and other points.

Miss Jennie Le Grande is attending teachers' institute in Portland this week.

R. P. Hart, of Portland, is spending a few days on his ranch.

What would our eastern friends think of "rainy Oregon" could they only be with us these bright sunny days?

Friends of Mr. Simeston will be glad to hear he is steadily improving since going to California.

lary, E. F. Bruus, treasurer, W. A. Morand. These new officers will be installed the first Saturday in January with a banquet.

M. E. church will give a grand Xmas entertainment and Christmas tree Friday evening.

The school entertainment and basket social given last Saturday evening was a grand success; over a hundred dollars in cash was raised for the school by sale of baskets.

If you are suffering from biliousness, constipation, indigestion, chronic headache, invest one cent in a postal card, send to Chamberlain's Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, with your name and address plainly on the back, and they will forward you a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Sold by all dealers.

SPRINGWATER.

Next Saturday evening a Christmas program will be given at the Grange Hall. The children are giving their time and taking great interest in the exercises, music and recitations. Every one be sure and come, for remember, Christmas comes but once a year; also some special music will be given by the Horner brothers from Dodge. It is all worth hearing.

School was dismissed Tuesday on account of the teachers' institute, and will not be called again till January second.

Are you coming to the watch party at the parsonage the last of the year? Gerald Wilcox, who has been attending the Agricultural College at Corvallis, returned home for the holiday vacation last Wednesday.

Talk about the bilious back East! Why—here in Springwater you can look around and see people working with their coats off. Why isn't this worth noticing?

Springwater now has a travelling library at Dr. Wallen's. This shows at least some people here resemble Abraham Lincoln. Why? Because they love to attend their evenings with the best of friends—books.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by all dealers.

SANDY.

Beautiful weather the past few days is hailed with joy by the many farmers, especially those who still have spuds to dig.

Building loom is still on in Sandy. Mrs. Gorer has completed a residence on Mt. Hood avenue. P. T. Shelley is also erecting a handsome bungalow and will also erect a business building on Main street.

P. R. Meinig is making arrangements to erect a big new store building and move the old store building down on Main street.

Firwood Lumber Co. has sold out to Dixon & Howie, who will at once start the big mill at its fullest capacity. All other mills are running full neck of the woods.

The Mt. Hood Railway Co. is planning the road from Sandy across the river to the power house site as the immense traffic over the roads makes them almost impassable. When completed the great amount of freight for the company will be hauled over it.

Work of grading and laying rails to Bullrun power house site is going on day and night and soon—perhaps by Feb. 1—the construction train will run to the power house site.

One of the best things done in town for many a day by its citizens was to build sidewalks, which is now going on and makes things look good to Sandy, with six foot sidewalks and crosswalks on both sides of Main street.

Dahlgren & Davies have their building up and finished and have put in a first class supply of confectionery and soft drinks, also pool tables in connection.

Keller Bros. have opened up a restaurant and are doing a good business.

E. Shriber has sold his two lots and houses on Mt. Hood avenue to P. T. Sherwood, who will soon make his home here.

Otto Meinig has laid out a tract of land into town lots and has already sold a good many to people who will build at once.

Alton Meinig has purchased the Bacon Bros. saw mill and will move it to Salmon river to saw for local trade.

Geo. Ketch, who lately purchased the Douglas store, is making great improvements and is putting in a stock of goods equal to the best.

Geo. Ketch's store was robbed by some unknown robbers; they gained entrance by taking out the panel of a side door and took about $40 worth of jewelry and other goods.

R. E. Carr is making extensive improvements on his tract and will probably build in the near future.

Sandy Grange, at their last meeting, elected A. C. Thomas, master; M. V. Thomas, overseer; James Bell, secretary; B. Jonsrud, treasurer; Mrs. A. Malar, lecturer; Joe Albel, steward. These new officers will be installed the second Saturday in January.

I. O. O. F. elected the following officers: Noble grand, Clem Bartch; vice grand, A. C. Baumbek; secretary, E. F. Bruus, treasurer, W. A. Morand. These new officers will be installed the first Saturday in January with a banquet.

M. E. church will give a grand Xmas entertainment and Christmas tree Friday evening.

The school entertainment and basket social given last Saturday evening was a grand success; over a hundred dollars in cash was raised for the school by sale of baskets.

EAGLE CREEK.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson and Miss Rosa Moehlnke spent a pleasant evening with Mr. Jones and family last Tuesday.

Mrs. Cahill returned home from the hospital last Thursday. She is getting along fine, though still somewhat weak.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular meeting last Saturday, there being about 25 members present. The officers for the following year were elected.

James Bell, secretary of the Sandy Grange, was an Eagle Creek Grange visitor Saturday.

J. P. Woodie was calling at the home of Mr. Howlett the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie were Estacada visitors Saturday.

Eagle Creek Grange is having the hall papered, which will much improve its appearance.

Victor Berg, who moved away from the neighborhood some time ago, was seen up this way one day last week. We hear that he is thinking of moving back on his farm.

Carl Douglass, his sister, Miss Ilna, and Miss Modia Murphy made a trip to Estacada Saturday.

A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all.

A Woman's Great Idea
is how to make herself attractive. But without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c at Jones Drug Co.

BARLOW.

Mrs. M. W. Shepard was up from Portland and attended the Christmas entertainment, which was well rendered and well attended, the children doing fine and all receiving numerous presents.

Mrs. Crecraft and Miss Anderson have gone to Portland to spend the holidays.

Miss and Mrs. Joe Willett were called to Springfield, Ore., last Friday, receiving a message of the death of their brother-in-law who was buried on Saturday. His name was Hiram E. Rice, 75 years and 15 days old; stomach trouble. They returned on Monday.

Miss Marian Ingram is going to Springfield, Ore., to spend the holidays with her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Rice. She is going to have a sale next week, and then will move to Victoria, B. C.

Jim Erickson, the new postmaster, will soon move to the place Mrs. Kydd will vacate.

Lloyd Willett, who is attending school at Cottage Grove, is visiting with his parents during the holidays.

Miss Ionida Andrews is visiting with her parents.

The Nazarenes are holding revival meetings at Meridian.

Some young folks, with the Barlow minister, were on the road to Meridian Sunday night to a revival meeting and got off the road and upset in the ditch; getting pretty muddy. They escaped injury, except the minister, who was slightly bruised.

One of the most successful entertainments ever given in this city, was that given at Columbia Hall on Monday evening by the pupils of the Barlow school, under the supervision of the teachers, Mrs. Crecraft, principal, and Miss Anderson. The cantata entitled "A Jolly Christmas" was given and each one taking part showed that careful study had been given. The remainder of the programme consisted of solos, choruses and drills. There was a large attendance and the teachers are deserving of great credit for the manner in which the affair was carried out.

School has closed until after holidays, Mrs. Crecraft and Miss Anderson leaving on Tuesday for Portland, where they will attend the teachers' institute, which convenes on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR HOLIDAYS.

On Tuesday afternoon the schools of this city closed for the holidays. A Christmas programme was given by the pupils, and many of the parents of those taking part attended. Miss Weeks and Miss Stoddard, teachers of the grammar and primary grades had well arranged programmes in their rooms. James Kaupich took his part to perfection. The tree was laden with candies and nuts, and these were distributed by Santa. The following is the programme given: "Have you seen Dear Santa?"
