WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

GROCERS

Produce and Commission Merchants

Extend to all our patrons, friends and the people of Clackamas County a very Happy and prosperous New Year in appreciation of your liberal patronage.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Dr. L. G. Ice, Rooms 4, 5 and 6, A marriage license was issued Monday to Frank H. Brobst and Mabel S.

License to marry was issued Wed-nesday to Anna Decker and William H. L. Hoyd. Dick Charman, of Seattle, has arrived in this city to spend the holidays

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miles spent Christmas with their son, Fred+Miles, at Forest Grove.

Mrs. S. J. Jones and family left Friday for Saudy, where they spent Christman with relatives. Roasonable prices at the New Sys tem Dentists.

Attorney C, S. Scheubel was in Hood River Tuesday looking after the legal interests of clients, Mrs. Mary Maple, of Canby, has arrived in this city, and is the guest of her daughter, Mrs Jennie Butts. Henry Mckinney, representative in state legislature from Baker county, spent Christmas in Oregon John Kent, of Parkplace, left last Friday for Woodburn, where he spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Mary

The Misses Hazel and Veds Lankins are spending their vacation with their uncle, H. J. Lankins, at Springfield, Alex Bowen, who is attending col-Tacoma, Wash., was in Oregon City Monday visiting among his

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Long and family have gone to Oakland, California, where they will spend the holiday with relatives. Hats, hats! Big sale now on, Every one must be sold. Miss C. Goldsmith. Mrs. Alden Graham, of Portland. who has been a guest at the home of Captain Graham, of this city, has re-

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Evans, of Portmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Evans, of 507 Center street.

William Hammond went to Eugene to visit over Christmas with his fam-ily, who are the guests of his parents, Rev and Mrs. P. K. Hammond. Mrs. W. G. Fuller, nee Alvina Horn.

of Portland, was in Oregon City on brother Thursday visiting with friends. Mrs. stone. Fuller formerly resided in this city, J. M. Ware, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Shaw, and his mor stepsons, S. R. and John Green, has John Straight and daughter, Miss.

Dorothy, left last week for Hood River, where they will spend Christmas with the former's daughter, Mrs. Ben Mrs S A Rands of Palouse, Wash., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Shaw, has returned to her home. She has been here for the past three

Ray Cole, a student of the University of Washington, has returned to his home in this city to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and

Earl Latourette, a student of the University of Oregon, has come to Oregon City to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Latourette. Mr. M. R. Cooper, employed with the Pacific States Telephone Co., at Clatskanie, is here to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper.

Mrs. E. H. Cooper.
Private money to loan. Gordon E.
Hayes, Attorney-at-law.
W. T. Henderson, of Ellwood, is in this city having come here to attend of his brother-in-law, Thomas Martin. He is the guest of his son, W. U. Henderson, Smith & Powel, sold the 80-acre farm belonging to Mrs. Parrish, in the Buckner Creck neighborhood, south of this city, Dec. 21; consideration $2000 This is nine sales for this firm within Robert Ginther, of Shubel, one of the prominent teachers in that part of the county, was in Oregon City Friday on his way home from Portand, where he had been attending the teachers' institute.

Positive guarantee on all work at the New System Dentists. Ralph Ryal, who is a teacher in the Zanosville, Ohio, Y. M. C. A., is spending the Christmas holidays in this county, guest at the home of his father, R. E. Ryal, on the Molalla road, near the Clermont school. Mrs. Mary E. Burley has petitioned the County Court to be appointed guardian to the minor children born o herself and deceased husband, Meghello Burley, aged 2 years, and Robert Burley, aged 2 years. The estate to-Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones returned

TAKE THE HINT

You can get the best that money can buy if you buy of our new stock of canned Table Fruits. They have the delicious, ripe flavor.

HARRIS' GROCERY Oregon City.

----- Wednesday from Eagle Creek, where they spens Christmas with relatives.

Judge C: N. Wait, of Canby, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday, returning to his home on the evening train. George Gregory, the prominent tea sel grower of the state, whose home is at Molalla, was transacting business in this city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernier and son Harold, and Miss Harriet Goodell have returned home, after spending Christmas with Miss Goodell's parents it Nowberg.

Percy T. Shelley, the newly elected Justice of the Peace of Sandy, was transacting business in Oregon City on Tuesday. Mr. Sheliey is a promi-nent young man of that city.

Mrs. Evans, wife of the late Cap-tsin James Evans, was in this city yesterday on business. Mrs. Evans has moved from Canby, and is now making her home in Portland, T. F. Rourke, manager of the Ore-gon City Commission Company, who has been ill for the past two weeks s improving, and is now able to make his daily trips to Oregon City from Portland.

Mrs. Julia Jefferson, who lives on Eighth street, will move to California next week. Her son, Van Jefferson, 0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0 and his mother and family will follow him in a few days. Miss Edna Simmons, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Simmons, in this city, left Monday for Kelso, Wash., where she is in the millinery business. Miss Simmons has been here for the past Miss Etta Straight, who has been spending several months with her sister in Hood River, returned to her Batdorf. home in Parkplace on Monday. accompanied her father, John Straight and sister, Miss Dorothy, who spent Christmas in Hood River.

Wm. Harris, who lives on the north fork of the Molalla, was doing his Christmas shopping in the city last week. He is one of the old-time residents, is $2 years of age and still spry and young, and declares he will live to see a hundred years.

Every hat at a big reduction, Miss Goldsmith.

Willamette, the hustling burg across the river, will open blds for its water works bonds on Friday, the 30th. soon as the bond deal goes through, and the Council gets its money in hand, work will begin on the proposed water works improvement.

The Baptist church, among other benefactions dispensed Christmas, sent a load of provisions to a Mrs. Morco, a Greek, living on top of the hill in West Oregon City, Justice Samson delivering the goods to the thankful woman and family.

Mrs. Carrie Tate, and brother-inaw Elvin May, left Wednesday morning for Newberg, where they go on visit with Mrs. Tate's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kellogg.

C. W. Bagby has gone to Eugene to supervise the construction of the new filtering plant for that city. He has become constructing engineer of the Jewell Filteration Company, of California. The new system at Eugene is similar to that used in Oregon ity for the last 10 years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Swafford, of Salem, the former being secretary and book keeper of the Salem Woolen Mills, were in this city on Monday, the guests of the former's brother, J. L. Swafford. They were on their way home from Ostrander, Wash., with a surveying party in Eastern Oregon, arrived in Oregon City last week, and visited at the home of his brother, William Hammond, of Glad-He went from here to Eugene where he will spend his vacation with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Ham-

Miss Estella Criswell, who had been returned to his home in Philomath, attending the teachers' institute a Portland, arrived in Oregon City Fri day, and left on the evening train fo Elliott Prairie. Miss Criswell is teacher of the Elliott Prairie school, and while in this city was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. M. Ramsby, and sister, Miss Nora Criswell.

Recorder Lloyd Williams, who was in the East, being away on a business trip to New Orleans and Shreveport, La., is home. Mr. Williams is the newly-elected County Recorder and is to take office on Tuesday of next week. He has been the efficient deputy for five years last past and thoroughly understands all the "ropes"

G. E. Kellogg, of Salem, editor and proprietor of the Oregon Free Press, was in Oregon City on business Wednesday. Mr. Kellogg was foreman of the Oregon City Enterprise many years ago when Charles Meserve was owner. Before going to Salem, he proprietor of the was owner and Journal, published at Kelso, Wash. Mr. Kellogg is contemplating moving plant to Portland in January.

Mrs. Philip Bucklein and two children, Arthur and Lucretia, of Bridal Veil, Or., and Mrs. Bucklein's sister, Miss Esther Charals, of Grand Island, Neb., arrived in Oregon City to spend Christmas with their brother, Oliver . Charais and his wife. Miss Charlas will leave for her home after the holidays via Montana, where she will spend a few weeks with her brother, Frank H. Charaie, at Anaconda.

Extensive experience for fifteen years makes possible the best work place. with less pain at the New System

Dentists. Judge Thomas F. Ryan left Tues day night for Salem, where he will assume the duties of chief deputy to State Treasurer Kny. Judge Ryan's family went to Salem Thursday, and will occupy a residence that the judge has rented, within five blocks of the Their furniture and household goods were shipped several days Miss Edith Smith will have ago, charge of Judge Ryan's office in Ore gon City. Justin Lagerson, one of the proprietors of the Oregon City shoe store here for the Christmas holidays and to get another taste of civilization. He and Mrs. Lagerson have a homestead at Payette, Idaho, which they are making subject to civilization, and run in home occasionally so as not to lose hold entirely on the better things of city life. Mr. Lagerson has 160 acres which he intends to put under water service, and he is enthusiastic in his predictions as to what he can grow once water is turned onto his broad acres.

Try lt, Try it Try Dr. Hell's Antiseptic Salve for all skin troubles. It is as pleasant as sweet cream and guaranteed to give satisfaction in worst cases. box. Jones Drug Co.

SOCIETY

the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church of Parkplace at her home Wednesday afternoon from 2 o'clock to 5. The society meets every cek, and the afternoons are spent in sewing, but on the last Wednesday this day is taken for a social meeting. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments at Wednesday's gathering by the Misses Eva Wallace, Ruth and Amy Peckover and Vera Hend-

Present were Mrs. W. A. Holmes Mrs. Frank Lucas, Mrs. Kalmbach, Mrs. Coffey, Mrs. M. A. Brayton, Mrs. T. Brown, Mrs. Jolley, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. Joseph Brunner, Mrs. Flora Fraser, Mrs. Tillie Davis, Mrs. E. Pope, Mrs. John Kent, Miss Grace

The meeting of the Women's Club held in the Commercial Club parlors Thursday afternoon was one of the most enjoyable gatherings during the As this was the last meeting of the year an appropriate programme was given, which was in charge of E. T. Avison and Mrs. A. A. Price. Each number was given a hearty encore, and consisted of the following: Reading, "Christmas," Mrs. E. T. Avison; vocal solo, "Oh My Garden of Roses," Mrs. A. A. Price; reading, "The Night Before Christmas," Mrs. E. T. Avison; selection, "The Birth-day of a King, sextette, Misses Mary Confer, Ruby Frances, Pearl Frances, Bertha Miller, Marion Money and Fay

Mrs. A. Naterlin entertained a number of friends at her home on Fifteenth and Monroe streets Monday night in honor of Miss Lens Story, who celebrated her seventeenth birth-The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with Oregon grape, holly and Christmas bella. The evening was spent with games and music; and delicious refreshments

Miss Morieta Hickman entertained informally for a few friends Tuesday night at her home on the West Side. Her guests were Miss Madge Hallo well, Miss Florence White, Miss Marian Money, Miss Evelyn Harding, Miss Hilda Tooze, Bothwell Avison, Philip J. Sinnott, John Mulkey, John Busch, Harold Swafford, Leo Burdon, Garland Hallowell, Tom Sinnott.

The annual ball given by the Fountain Hose Company at the Armory on Christmas Eve was one of the most successful affairs ever given in this city. The excellent orchestra furnished the music for the dancers until business, the former having a 15-acre a late hour. The hall was elaborately ranch at that place. While in Newberg Mrs. Tate and Mr. May will The committee spared no pains to make the event a success.

> Arrangements are being made for reception in honor of Rev. Charles Robinson, the new rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, who is expected to arrive in Oregon City to conduct services next Sunday. The affair will probably be held Friday evening, January 6, in Willamette Hall. This date is known as Twelfth Night.

Married at high noon, Dec .20th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Radford, the parents of the bride, Mr. Elmer Dukes, of McMinaville, and Miss ida Radford, of Cottrell, Rev. A. H. Calder officiating. Mr. and Mrs. where they spent Christmas.

Philip Hammond, who has been Dukes will live in McMinnville.

Many are arranging to dance the new year in at the Armory on Saturday night, New Year's Eve, at the dancing party to be given by Milton Price. The hall is decorated for the occasion, and the music is to be furnished by the Farmer orchestra.

YOUNG WOMAN TAKES WRONG STREET CAR

Call on New System Dentists, LEADS BOOKKEEPER TO FALSE Bridge Corner, over Andresen's Jewel-TOWARD SALEM.

> On Monday evening a handsome young woman alighted from the electric car at Eleventh street, and going to the Oregon City Commission house asked the bookkeeper, D. C. Robbins, if he could direct her to 408 High street. The bookkeeper, not knowing finished his work, and he would try to direct her, as it was dark and he young woman and asked her to see was found that the young miss instead of Oregon City. the conductor did, but it happened to one wrong act against her. be the end of the wrong line. Sne Irene Douglass, who is attending immediately left for Portland, and the Washington High School, had she should have taken in the first destroy disease germs, Dr. Bell's Anti-Pain is an antiseptic remedy for external and internal pains, relief is almost instantenous. Sold by all deal-

Antiseptic Remedies

> ADVERTISING TALKS. No. 6.

Do YOU read ads?

I'll bet your first impulse is to say "No." Very few people can found who will come out lingly and admit that they are influenced in their buying by mere pictures and words printed in newspaper,

What is your favorite safety

What shaving soap? What brand of collar do you What cigar seems to satisfy your smoking appetite most? What baking powder would you buy if your wife phoned you to bring home a can?

Think these questions over and see if the steady, persistent ad-vertising has had its effect on

(To Be Continued.)

LAD IS ARRESTED; SPITE CHARGED

JUSTICE JONSRUD DISMISSES THE CASE FOR LACK OF CONVIN-CING EVIDENCE

Neighborhood Row in Which "Woman In Gase" Proves a Match for the Man Making Charges.

SANDY, Oregon, Dec. 27.-Harlow Douglass, the nineteen-year-old son of Mrs. E. M. Douglass, was arrested by George Ketch on a charge of entering his store by a key to the front door. which Ketch knew had been lost for six months, and was told to change padlocks. Mr. Ketch bought the store of Mrs. Douglass the sixth of Decem ber and became incensed because one of Mrs. Donglass' brothers, Thomas Meserve, of Portland, found two mort gages, amounting to eleven hundred dollars, on the lots to be traded. Dur ing the two weeks Ketch was rais ing part of the money he allowed a man of this place, who is an enemy to Mrs. Douglass, to persuade him that she was not dealing fairly with When the deal was closed he told her that he would make trouble for her before he finished.

A week ago Thursday, the glass of the back door was taken out and Ketch reported that he had missed handkerchiefs and neckties. The following Tuesday he claimed that there were handkerchiefs missing, but had found no trace of how the store was Harlow Douglass had evidence which pointed to E. W. Keller, whom e thought was connected with the Ketch offered Harlow five burglary. dollars if he would catch the man, but was told that he considered it worth twenty-five because it risky business to work on such things. E. W. Keller and brother, also known as "Kelly," who had been running a A. M. the services will be especially restaurant in the Douglass building, for old folks. The choir will sing

Douglass on such things, she having an address. Come early to be sure remarked, when being asked if she of a good seat. carried a gun, "As was the case at Pleasant Home, when I had to defend my property, I would have no trouble in producing a gun if I had occasion to Portland, Ketch served a search warrant on Harlow Douglass and the house, knowing that this was his only chance to satisfy his curiosity as to how much goods Mrs. Douglass had, as other merchants do, taken out before selling. Silk handkerchiefs and neckties were found, which Ketch identified as the ones taken from the store the nights of the supposed rob-When a mackintosh cape was Ketch immediately decided that it too, should have been on the earch warrant.

During the search the keys belongng to the restaurant were taken and thus depriving Mrs. Douglass of the features of the day will be the joint clews which would have aided her in debate between Clackamns county's Kelly's capture. Also the house in veteran agriculturists, George Ran-Constable Jonstald served papers on negative cluding two old silk handkerchiefs, been laundered, were the only proof spite work on the part of enemies of Mrs. Douglass. Justice of the Peace Jonsrud heard the matter discussed and finally dismissed the case for lack of evidence.

the boy's father, will know that his reputation was the very best and that of any street in this city by that name he was exceedingly honest. He was asked her to remain until he had one of Eastern Multnomah county's most prominent citizens, Mrs. Douglass is also very highly esteemed by knew it would be impossible for her all who understand the difficulties a to find the address, as he was familiar lone woman has to overcome, espe-with all of the streets, but this was cially one who is making a success Shortly after they had in business, where others are failing.

started out, for this street bent, and Rev. M. M. Reid, pastor of the after Mr. Robbins had given the sub- Methodist Church, considered it his ject some study, he turned to the duty to assist the neighborhood in knocking a widow, so he told Mrs. the card, and upon lighting a match Douglass before the arrest was made that if trouble ever came up he would should have been in the city of Salem have to testify against her because she was not living a sincere Christian In starting from Portland she asked life. He has unjustly allowed others nection, however, and are circulating the conductor in charge of the car to to form an opinion for him of Mrs. a petition asking Mayor Brownell to let her off at the end of the line. This Douglass, because he cannot prove took the Oregon Electric car, which charge of the program for the Christmas entertainment and had promised the use of her piano for that night, but when she had it taken over, she was greeted at the door with the announcement that he, Rev. Reld, could not allow the church work to be hindered by a piano that belonged to girl who belonged to a woman who had a son that was accused of robto get the promise of a piano from Joseph Donahue, and had not been Her Husband. bery. Only a day before he had tried man enough, after telling Miss Doug-lass to bring hers over, that he would not allow it in the church. The piano tor on the Oregon City carlines and was won by Miss Douglass last sum- Mrs. Henrietta B. Stearns, a widow. mer in the Oregon City Enterprise contest, but surely that could not have disabled it for church purposes Rev. Reid accepted other favors from Mrs. Douglass for the evening, which could have just as much harmed the culty in posting the required $2000 church work as the plano. As he cash bail. In default of the same stated that he would not allow Mrs. amount Avers was locked up in a cell Douglass to work in the church until at the county fail. she was converted, she, her daughter, and another, may withdraw their membership letters or ask for church The town is very indignant land. over the pastor helping in a business

> Will Likely Hold Union Services. An effort is being put forth by the astors of the city to unite in a union prayer service the first week in January. It is usual to hold a series of prayer services covering all the evenings of the first week in the new couple to the Fifth street address.

year, and local pastors feel that in union efforts a larger attendance and more enthusiasm will be the outcome. The practicability of using the Church Alliance series of topics is under consideration, approuncement to be made of final decision next Sunday in the everal churches.

LOOKING FOR A SITE

Oregon City Fruit and Produce Union Making an Investigation.

The president and secretary of the recently incorporated Oregon City Fruit and Produce Union were ap-pointed a committee to look up a location for a warehouse and to secure data on establishment and operation, with instruction to report at a meet-ing to be called soon. The committee has been offered several sites, and are considering the feasibility of each be fore calling the members together What is wanted is a site on the railway, and convenient to the section that will contribute the most to the success of this enterprise. Several sites are under inspection but so far no inkling is given by the committee of what it will recommend. Some action is expected as soon as the Christmas holidays have passed.

AFFIRMATIVE WINS DEBATE.

Clermont School Patrons Enjoy the Discussion Immensely.

The debate of the Clermont school, two miles east from the city, drew a large audience Wednesday night, upwards of ninety interested farmers and wives being present. The sub-ject for discussion was, "Resolved. That Fruit Raising is More Profitable Than Grain Raising." Those taking the affirmative were A. J. Lewis, W. E. Downer and B. Kuppenbender. The negative was supported by David Scherruble, John Gaffney and J. Staf-ford. The affirmative secured the decision. Friends of the affirmative say that the best figures the negative acre in debt if he figure interest of the present price of acreage.

NEW YEAR SERVICES.

A Pleasant Occasion Planned By M. E. Church and 8. 8.

Services appropriate to the New Year season will be held at the Methodist Church next Sunday. At 10:45 disappeared the morning after the second offense was reported, taking tor will preach an old fashioned serwith them three large grips, and a quantity of silverware belonging to Mra Douglass.

To do lotate the congression of the passes of th Mr. Ketch waited until Mrs. Doug-lass was gone, to carry out his plans, because he did not care to meet Mrs. M. C. A. will sing a solo and deliver > GRANGE MEETING SATURDAY. Farmers to Gather at New Era For a Good Time.

Warner Grange No. 117 meets at New Era on next Saturday. This being the last day of the year a special programme will be given in the after-noon. Everyone is invited to attend. Among the special attractions will be music by the Randal trio, including songs and instrumental music orchestra from Oregon City will An orchestra from Oregon City will also be in attendance and will add to the amusements of the day. Rev. W. A. Dodds, who has seen more than three score New Years days, will tell of the prospects for the year 1911. Probably one of the most exciting which two other families are living, dall, supporting the affirmative that was contaminated by the odor of a "Diversified Farming is More Profit-large amount of spoiling food in the locked rooms." and Geo. Lazelle, an ardent supporter of the Harlow Douglass Saturday morning better than 40 years experience upon and took him to Kelso, where the their respective subjects, and will amount of bail could be fixed. The argue true to their own convictionz, goods from Mrs. Douglass' house, in- and it will be no one sided debate. Warner Grange is one of the oldest granges in the state of Oregon, and is a strong organization. This mers are doing.

WHO WILL BE CHIEF? Anyone who was acquainted with Mayor-elect Brownell Has a Half Dozen Eligible Ones.

> Mayor Brownell has a problem on his hands in the choice of Chief of Police for this city. The present inumbent, Chas. E. Burns, has made dre good officer, and has held the posiest ever held in this section of the GLADSTONE TO INCORPORATE. tion for a score of years. Certain county, and the floral offerings were citizens argue from should be retained indefinitely.

There are several stories rife as to and the names of Shaw, Green and old. A mother, Mrs. H. O. Inskeep, Miles have been used in that connect and three brothers, Chester, William tion, with those certain the nominee and Thomas Inskeep, all of Portland will be taken from this trio.

name shall be considered in this conname Mr. Burns as his chief. A few are refusing to sign, but the general criticism of those who refuse is not a criticism of Mr. Burns personally, but of the plan of petitioning the Mayor. As one merchant ex-pressed it: "We have elected Mr. Brownell, and it is up to him who he wants for chief and not to the citisens; if he is not competent to choose his own chief why did we elect him?"

ARRESTED IN PORTLAND.

Harry S. Avers, formerly a conduc-50 years old, were arrested by Constable Lou Wagner at 549 Fifth street Portland, Wednesday night, on warrants sworn to by Ayers' pretty yo Mrs. Stearns found no diffi-Ayers was married to the complainant in the case a year ago in Seattle. Shortly afterward they came to Portland. Ayers secured a position as conductor on the suburban line. It was while making one of his frequent trips to Oregon City that Ayers met Mrs. Stearns five months ago. Eventnally Mrs. Ayers' suspicions were aroused and she engaged private detectives to watch him. Ayers was discharged from the employ of the, traction company two months ago. Detectives Wednesday followed the

Edison Records

You can not afford to miss having the new list of the Edison Records for January. We have every one of them and a complete stock of all the older numbers. Be sure and ask to hear No. 576 "Silver Bell," a new Indian song, sung by Jones and Murray. Below are listed a few choice selections.

No. 584-Reel and Jig, Medley-Violin

" 562-Valley Flower-Song " 579-Manila Waltz-Band

" 595-German Yodle Songs-German

" 598-Home Sweet Home-Song

Burmeister & Andresen

Oregon City Jewelers Suspension Bridge Cor.

CALLED FROM LIFE IN

MRS. EMMA VERA DAVIES BURIED FROM THE OLD FAMILY HOME AT CARUS.

Mrs. Emma Vera Davies, who was called away by death December 22, at the St. Vincent Hospital, Portland, was born in Rough and Ready, Cal., August 13, 1888, and at the age of two weeks she moved with her parents to Oregon City, where they lived until she was five years old. there they moved to Carus where her parents/bought a farm and where she remained until death. May 22, 1907, Emma was married to Richard Francis Davies, and Mr. Davies bought her old home from her parents, so Emma did not leave home after mar-They had everything just as riage. neat and convenient as any farmer ever had. And they both worked hard for it. Many pieces of her house furniture were her father's hand-carved work. She was as economical as any woman that ever lived, and was a devoted wife and mother. Emma was loved and highly respected by all who knew her; she had many friends from childhood up. And from school days she had chums who went bitter tears at her grave. Emma was These men have both had led but no change for better. Friday, December 16, she was taken ow, three sons, O. S., A. T. and C. to the St. Vincent hospital, Portland, Martin, one daughter, Miss Bessie where she passed away at 5:45. Dec. Pearl Martin.

of her friends. On December 23 the remains were brought out to her home at Carus in Ketch could produce, and it was would be a good occasion to visit the plainly seen that the whole thing was grange and see what progressive farday, December 26, leaving the house at 11. Services were held at the house from there to the Carus church where many times before she had walked its floors and played the organ, for she was very fond of music, Rev. Landsborough, of Oregon City, officiated. From there she was laid to rest in the Graham Cemetery, at which place her father was laid one year and eight months ago.

The news was a shock to many leaves to mourn her, two little dren, Earl Francis, two years old, and whom Mayor Brownell will appoint a little girl, Emma Vera, seven weeks rill be taken from this trio.

Friends of Burns are determined his close relations of uncles, aunts and cousins who will mourn for her. Mrs. Inskeep and Mr. Davies and children receive the deepest sympa-thy of many of her friends who are

> DIES DESPITE OPERATION. Husband and Two Small Children C.

Special Notice!

I have just installed what I think is one of the most marvelous inventions of the age. I am proud of it and want every one in Oregon City to call and see it. It makes no difference whether you buy or not, you will be greatly interested in seeing any kind of boneless meat-ham, bacon, dried beef, etc., from the thinness of a wafer up to sixteen different thicknesses. Each slice is absolutely even and uniform and right. It will work as fast as four men morning, at the age of 52 years. Cause of death was obstruction to bowels, and he had been in the hospital since Wednesday Mr. Langsford was an Engushman by birth and had been a resident of Oregon City for stx years. He had seen service in the Fourteenth U. S. Infantry as band master but of late years was an employe at the Oregon City woolen mills. He leaves a wife but no children. The Eagles took land hospital at 5

in Mt. Pleasant cemetery

Funeral was held Sunday with charge of the funeral, Mr. Langsford having been a member of that order, a surgical operation Tuesday, from Mrs. Davies was the daughter of the late H. O. Inskeep, who was well known in this county. Two small children survive her, one aged two years and a second aged six weeks. A mother and three brothers—Wil-liam, Thomas and Chester—survive of her close relatives. She was the only daughter in her father's family. She gon City. Funeral was held Monday afternoon. Deceased was 22 years of OLD SOLDIER DIES.

Buried By Eagles Sunday—Widow But No Children.

Wm. G. Langsford died in a Port-was a niece of E. M. Howell, which she was never able to rally.

Died From Heart Trouble. Thomas Martin, after several years taken sick November 4, at childbirth and did not get along as well as expected after the first week or ten days. Different physicians were called but no change for better. So on year 1842. He leaves besides his wid-

Funeral of Thos. Thomas Held.

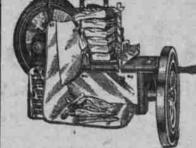

The funeral over the remains of Thomas Thomas were held in city Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment was in the Mountain View cemetery, Mr. Thomas formerly resided at Beaver Creek, and recently made his home in Portland, where he died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Minns. Deceased was born in 1823 and 87 years old at the time of his demise. Many friends of the family attended the services, which were conducted at the Holman undertaking parlors.

beautiful. Besides a husband, Emma Full Quota of Officers Chosen at Saturday Election.

Gladstone, the little city on the north, voted Saturday on the proposition to incorporate, with the result that our little neighbor will take on city airs, 99 voting for and 36 voting against. At the same time and place a vote was taken on a new corps officials, to take office in case the proposition was voted yes.

The vote was as follows: Mayor-O. E. Freytag, 85; W. F. Schooley, 41; recorder—William Hammond, 104; marshall—A. F. Parker, 76; Frank Hammerle, 47; treasurer—J. K. Pardec. 104; aldermen—F. S. Haker, 74;
dec. 104; aldermen—F. S. Haker Davies, of Carus, died Thursday night 54; Brenton Vedder, 55; James Wilat 6 o'clock. Mrs. Davies underwent kinson, 52, and G. S. Williams, 60.

This machine will cut slicing by hand.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE OREGON CITY, OREGON