Family Reunions Are Held.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lee entertained at Christmas dinner on Sunday the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilmore and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Rider and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lee and family. The Lee home was prettily decorated for this occasion and a most enjoyable day was spent by those who were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Kesseling entertained 15 relatives at dinner at their home in this city on Christmas Day. One of the features of the afternoon was the distribution of the Christmas gifts from a tree. Those attending this pleasant affair were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gribble and 10 children, Mr. and Mrs. John Jesse and son, Avon, Allan Gribble and Miss Gearhart, the two latter of Portland.

A family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Graham on Christmas Day, the Christmas tree being held the evening previous. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Martin and two children, of McMinnville, Jesse Martin, of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Mack and two children, Mrs. M. J. Martin.

M. E. Church Has Christmas Exercises.

The Methodist church was filled to its capacity Saturday night with an appreciative audience to listen to the excellent musical and literary program given by the Sunday school pupils under the direction of the teachers. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion. Mrs. C. F. Romig being chairman of the decoration committee, and she was assisted by Mrs. C. L. Greedy and Miss Rupp and several of the boys, members of the Sunday school. A. J. Burdette played the part of Santa Claus, and the children were delighted when he made his appearance. Gifts were distributed from the prettily decorated tree.

Christmas at Norwegian Church.

Christmas exercises were held in the Norwegian church on Saturday evening. A special musical program was given.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock services were held in the City Hall by Rev. Rosing. This service was in charge of the Norwegian Synod of Barlow, and many from that city attended.

Dance Enjoyable Affair.

The dancing party given on Christmas Eve under the auspices of the Canby Band was a most enjoyable affair. The hall was comfortably filled with the merry dancers, who enjoyed the excellent music furnished by the Canby Band. Oregon City, Barlow and Aurora were represented. Many of the young people of this city are planning to attend the ball to be given by the Aurora Band at Aurora on New Year's Eve. There is no doubt but that the New Year will be given a cordial greeting by those attending the affair.

Cobb & Dillingham to Build.

Cobb & Dillingham, proprietors of the Big Six Department store of this city, have purchased from M. J. Lee the corner lot adjoining the property of Mrs. Knight. These men are to build a concrete structure, which will be 100x100 feet, and will be of two stories, the lower floor of which will be occupied by Cobb & Dillingham, who are to enlarge their stock.

This will be the second concrete business house in the city, and the only one of which is of two stories. The Bank building, which is of concrete, has only one story. It will not be many years to come but Canby will have its share of sky scrapers.

During the past year this city has enjoyed a building boom, when some of the most attractive homes in the county have been built. Many have come here from the Eastern states to make their homes on farms. Canby can well be classed as one of the coming cities of the Northwest. There is from this place north of Salem. Some of the finest berries, asparagus, asparagus and rhubarb are raised here, and for which there is always a ready market. The year of 1910 has been a good and prosperous year for Canby, one of the garden spots of Oregon.

Fred Brooker Writes Witty Article.

One of the interesting articles written for the Christmas number of the Rural Spirit published in Portland, is the work of Fred Brooker, well known to many of the horsemen of this city as well of the county. The article is entitled "Yield in the Horse Business and Still Foolish." This has been read with interest by many of the people of this city. It is full of humor, as well as of pathos, and the writer is deserving of much credit, the only regret was that this was not as lengthy as it should have been. Mr. Brooker speaks of many of the horses he has owned and the manner in which he obtained them. He has experienced many trying ordeals, but has always kept up and come out ahead after each trial. During the race meet held on the Clackamas County Fair race track and which was held by Sim Lindsey, one of the best horsemen in the state, Mr. Brooker acted as starting judge. He is the owner of Bonnie Antrim, one of the best three-quarter mile horses in the state. This horse was brought here for the races on that date. The horse was in charge of Mr. Sawyer, of Portland.

Will Build Tabernacle.

The tabernacle, the dimensions of which will be 40x64 feet, will be built on the lot opposite the City Hotel. The construction of this structure will be started this week, and is under the supervision of Frank E. Dodge, the lumber of which is being brought here from the Adkins Lumber Mill.

Union Evangelistic meetings will be held in Canby during the month of January. Several churches of the city have united and have extended an invitation to Robert E. Johnston and assistants of Minneapolis, Minn., to conduct the meetings. Services will be conducted at 7:30 p. m. and special meetings on Sunday afternoons for men only. Special young people's meetings, women's meetings will be held during the month.

Rev. Johnston comes here highly recommended by the noted evangelists of the day. Dr. William Chapman says he has been associated with this man in evangelistic campaigns in different cities and towns, and considers him one of the best and most earnest evangelists in the country, and is in every way worthy of the confidence of the Christian people with whom he labors.

Evangelist R. A. Torrey, D. D., says: "I have known Rev. Robert E. Johnston for several years, personally, and hold him in the highest regard. Rev. Johnston has been successful in all his meetings held in many states in the middle and Northwest."

Music will be furnished by a grand chorus choir under the direction of a special musician. Everyone is given a cordial welcome to these services. The meetings will commence on January 1 and continue until February 1.

Perry Carter Cartoonist Here.

Perry Carter, cartoonist, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Carter, an accomplished soprano soloist, entertained the appreciative audience that assembled in the City Hall on Thursday night. This was the last of the series of entertainments given by the Lyceum Course, and was one of the best entertainments given here.

Stores Close on Monday.

The merchants of this city did a rushing business during the week previous to Christmas. There was never a better assortment of Christmas goods in Canby than this year, and the people here were not obliged to leave the city to do their Christmas shopping. During the past year there has been added to Canby two department stores, and the other merchants, who have carried holiday goods in the years previous, state that their business was even better, and that these two department stores did a tremendous business. Christmas trees were held in several of the churches, and there were many family reunions to cheer the Christmas tide.

On Monday the merchants closed the stores, some part of the day, while others closed all day. This gave to the tired employees a chance to rest from the holiday rush and well did they earn their vacation. Most of the merchants presented their employees with gifts.

CHRISTMAS IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES

EFFORTS MADE TO AID THE LITTLE FOLKS IN HAVING A GOOD TIME.

At the Congregational church Friday evening there was a program of music and recitations. A special feature was "Bird's Christmas Carol," given by Margaret Clark with a dramatic representation of it in a series of tableaux by the Beta class. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye gave a talk on the Christmas customs in the Hawaiian Islands, from which country she has just returned, that proved both interesting and instructive. Gifts for the poor were brought in by the school and the Brotherhood. The event proved a very pleasant occasion for the little folks.

The cantata "How We Waited for Santa Claus" was creditably given Friday night by the Parkplace Sunday school in the assembly room of the Parkplace high school building. The auditorium was filled to its capacity, and credit is due those taking part and those who had charge of the affair. The room was artistically and appropriately decorated with evergreens and Christmas bells.

The Sisters of the St. Agnes Baby Home gave the youngsters of that institution a treat Sunday afternoon. A program was arranged by the sisters in charge, and one of the features of the afternoon was a Christmas tree, and the children were presented with little gifts.

An expectant throng visited the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening to listen to the specially prepared program, consisting largely of appropriate music. The Christmas exercises proper of the Baptist Sunday school was given Monday evening, at which time the little folks were remembered and all given an opportunity to make glad the hearts of worthy poor by gifts brought at that time or sent in in the afternoon and distributed at the evening gathering.

The Presbyterian school gave a very entertaining and instructive program Sunday evening, consisting of song and recitation, with special Christmas exercises interspersed. There was a large attendance and much enthusiasm.

The Methodist people are preparing to especially make interesting the New Year's occasion, next Sunday. Services of special interest were held last Sunday, however, at which time the pastor, Rev. Zimmerman, gave carefully prepared addresses on timely topics, and the choir and friends gave a number of musical selections of more than usual interest to the large audience present.

Members of Cataract Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and of the Pythian Sisters and their families enjoyed a Christmas celebration Monday night in Woodmen of the World hall. The big tree made a brave appearance and there was an entertainment and banquet, followed by dancing. The affair was pleasing and was well attended.

Christmas exercises were enjoyed Monday night at the First Baptist church with a programme of songs, recitations and a drama in three parts, illustrating the extremes of wealth and poverty. The last scene was one of Thanksgiving, teaching that Christmas is for giving, as well as receiving. Stockings were hung up about the church and $18.23 was placed in them. Other gifts were received and distributed among the poor people of Oregon City. Refreshments were served and a social time ended the programme. There was a large crowd present.

Christmas at Christian Church.

The Christmas exercises held at the Christian church on Friday night were largely attended. Santa Claus was present and distributed gifts from a beautifully decorated tree. The following excellent programme was given:

Organ Voluntary, "Song of Joy," choir; "In the Fields with Their Flocks," choir; Scripture Reading and Prayer; "No Room in the Inn," choir; recitation, "Welcome," Arthur Dickman; recitation, "Lola's Horn;" song, "Merry Xmas to All," class of girls; recitation, "Little Lloyd Kendall;" recitation, "The Little Boy Santa Forgot;" Ella Earls; recitation, "Little Jimmie," Ava Wigle; song, "Christmas Is a Happy Day," girls class; recitation, "Lola Gaston;" recitation, "Making Christmas Presents," Dornia Hines; solo, Mr. Avon Jesse; recitation, "Francis Dillman;" exercise, "The Heart of Christmas;" six boys; song, "Jesus and Shall it Ever Be," choir; recitation, "Santa's Reins deer Sleigh," Florence Zolner; recitation, "The Way to Be Happy," Earl Mack; recitation, "Do You Know?" Bessie Alford; song, "The Baby Christ," Little Ora Hutchinson; recitation, "If I Were Santa Claus," Maud Hearty; recitation, "Two Little Stockings," Emma Colby; duet, "The Song at Christmastide," Daphne Hassell and Maud Hearty; reading, "The Christmas Home Coming," Mrs. Douglas; pantomime, "Twenty-third Psalm, seven girls; song, "Angel Chorus," choir; distribution of presents and treat; benediction, Sunday School superintendent.

Clermont School Enjoys Christmas.

Clermont school, two miles east on the Molalla pike, closed for the Christmas holidays with a musical and literary entertainment, Friday night. The program was mostly by the little folks, but the dialogue, "The Snickle Family," was by adults, with Mrs. Sutherland playing the part of Mrs. Snickle. There was a large crowd in attendance. There were presents for all the little folks by the teacher, Miss Gene Maxwell.

Family Reunion Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dickle, of Mount Pleasant, had a family reunion on Christmas Day, when their children and grandchildren were present to join the festivities. The holiday decorations were especially attractive. The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dickle, with their husbands and children, made up the following party: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Custer and son Merle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gumbert, and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Ross and daughter Marcia Helen.

Revival Meetings at Gladstone.

Evangelist Gregg, assisted by Messrs. Wright and Melfon, of Portland, began a series of meetings at the Christian church of Gladstone Monday night. Once or twice a week lantern slides will be used to illustrate lectures and moving pictures will be shown. The pastor, Rev. A. H. Mulkey, states the meetings promise to be helpful in many ways.

DRINKING FOUNTAIN.

Dedicated to Public Use, With Its Six "Geyser" Cups.

A handsome new drinking fountain has been erected and dedicated to the use of the public at the filter plant of the Oregon City water works. The fountain stands in a hollow square near the main building at the filter plant, and just off Main street but handy to pedestrians who are thirsty. At the top of a handsome shaft is an electric light globe, which will shine forth in all its glory on dark nights to guide weary, thirsty and foot-sore pedestrians to a source from which one's thirst may be quenched. Arriving at the fountain one will find four "geyser" drinking cups spouting forth cool streams of "Adam's Ale," where one may drink to his satisfaction without danger of contamination from the lips of unclean men. It is a very pretty fountain and we hope it may prove as broad in its utility as it is handsome in its workmanship.

Sues Ditchman Pacific.

The suit of Dick Meyer against the Southern Pacific Co. for $10,000 damages has been transferred from the Circuit Court of Clackamas county to the United States Court at Portland. Meyer claims to have been permanently injured by being run down by a railroad velocipede on the main track of the Southern Pacific in the north end of Oregon City.

What a Great Man Said to the Great American People.

Parisian Sage is a discovery of a celebrated scientist, who spent the best years of his life perfecting this great hair tonic.

In giving his recipe to the American people he said: "Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world. It cures dandruff by killing the germs that infest the roots of the hair; it stops falling hair; it gives vigor and strength to the hair roots. Huntley Bros. Co. sells Parisian Sage at 50 cents a large bottle and guarantees it to do all that is claimed for it, or your money is refunded. It stops falling hair, dandruff and itching scalp in two weeks."

OFFICER FOR HILL SECTION.

Brownell Thinks Recent History Confirms His Recommendations.

The incidents of the past few days, embracing the blowing of the safe in the store of L. Adams and the assault on Mrs. Nelson by an Austrian, gives emphasis to the claim of Mayor-elect Brownell that an officer is needed on the hill. The robbery of L. Adams' safe occurred in the early morning, after the officers had gone to the hill section of the city. The assault on Mrs. Nelson was made on the hill and away from the beats of the downtown police and without the hearing of the police in case of the usual outcry of a person in distress.

When Mayor Brownell's attention was called to the matter he said it was easy to see that his judgment in the matter was confirmed by the occurrences in question. Taxpayers in general are expressing themselves as of opinion that the city has grown to dimensions that warrants the additional expense.

WANT LAND BACK.

Allege Failure to Fulfill Contract in Several Particulars.

August and Regina Hergler have instituted suit against George B. and Harry W. Preston to recover possession of a piece of land in the Phillip Foster donation land claim. Two years ago, it is alleged, the Prestons agreed to purchase the property for $12,812.50, and have defaulted on the interest and principal payments, have neglected to pay the taxes and have failed to comply with any of the provisions of the agreement originally made. Besides the possession of the property, Mr. and Mrs. Hergler ask for damages in the sum of $500. Their attorneys are Dimick & Dimick.
