Widow Settles Controversy. The case of L. D. Shank vs. Frank Hawn, standing in Justice Samson's court for several months, was settled between the parties Friday and taken out of court, listing near Willard Springs. It was a contention over the sale of land by Shank, who was agent for Hawn. Claim was made by Hawn that Shank was not the party to the sale but that he himself effected it. Hawn died several months ago and his widow made settlement with Shank and disposed of the case. The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.
