WHAT OF COL. ROOSEVELT? There has been much written and printed concerning Col. Roosevelt and the tin tag that was pinned to him in the November campaign.

To many it looks like the passing of Rooseveltism; not so, however. Mr. Roosevelt is a power in the life of the American nation and is to remain.

Mr. Roosevelt is a power in the life of the American nation and is to remain. Whether he is to continue as a quantity with which one must at all times reckon, time alone will tell.

Candidate Bowerman had many personal friends in the county who would not turn their backs on principle and support him and that for which they were satisfied he stood.

Every city the size of Oregon City should have a grain and produce warehouse or elevator. This is an essential to best business conditions.

Mr. Bryan has done much good by his frank criticisms though he has never had a following sufficient to land him in the presidential chair.

Mr. Roosevelt's day may have passed; not so Mr. Roosevelt and his power for good to the common people.

WEST'S SUCCESS NOT REPUBLICAN DEFEAT.

Many Republicans of Clackamas county are still enjoying the relief that came to them in the late vindication of Statement No. 1. This county has always been "long" on that proposition and its friends over the county are legion.

Yet in the face of the desire to see Statement No. 1 vindicated, and with the belief well grounded that Candidate Bowerman was in league with the enemies of that policy, many Republicans voted for Mr. West with great regret.

Clackamas county is safely Republican on an out-and-out political proposition. Still, on the other hand, there is no other community in the State that will so soon resent interference on the part of men who wish to win regardless of what is right, or regardless of the wishes of the men to whom is granted the right to decide.

And the sooner politicians recognize this temper in the voters of Clackamas the sooner they will reform and cease to throw money to the birds.

Candidate Bowerman had many personal friends in the county who would not turn their backs on principle and support him and that for which they were satisfied he stood.

who bear a greater share of the hardship it brings.

We bring this message to you at this time, when you are most apt to be recovering from the follies of the day. We hope you are so far recovered that you may be able to appreciate what it has done to your high ideals of the day, and resolve anew.

The Portland lads who, when taken in crime, blamed it on the picture shows displayed a yellow streak. Some pictures shown in the better theatres are not in good taste, but the boys who chase them up should not blame their directors for their favorite form of amusement, but face the music and admit their shortcomings and promise to do better.

Yes, Oregon City is a picturesque little city; it's in a class by itself and some day in the near future the rich men of Portland will see it and come here to build homes in keeping with its grandeur.

If the man who won't improve his property, and won't sell to a man who will, could see things as others see it he might get a hustle on to get into the popular class.

Publishers of The Enterprise are just as anxious to get the news from the country as from the city. Country friends will confer a favor by tipping off incidents worthy of publication.

Friends who will save the pains to say that they "saw it advertised in The Morning Enterprise" can do us much good at no expense to themselves.

Fixing up your home or tidying up your yard costs little but goes far towards making things respectable and comfy in your immediate neighborhood. Try it.

Who'll build a nice downtown theater for Oregon City? Speak up, now; but don't all speak at once.

If The Morning Enterprise doesn't suit you tell us; if it does tell your friends.

Don't kick; if you can't boast lay over.

A few days before Thanksgiving we read in your paper that chickens and turkeys were scarce and commanding a high price so we took a few to town and when we offered them for sale were told the market was overstocked, that is they were full up and that unless we would sell at six cents a pound less than the paper had quoted they could not use them.

THE ONLY WAY. Many Oregon City Citizens Have Discovered It. Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to lifelong suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Oregon City citizen and you will be convinced that this is so.

L. Noble, 714 Main St., Oregon City, Ore., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my home and I am glad to say that they are a good medicine for kidney trouble."
