Purdy, Butteville, Oregon My dear Sir: I am familiar with the conditions of the Willamette river Marion, Clackamas and Yambill have remedy the defect of nature. a close connection with the river at the construction of a bridge over the Willamette river at this point. I know that the people of these counties and the public near this bridge think that it would be a great public utility and benefit. I believe that the best method of procedure would be by special act of the Legislature, to authorize the counties above named to proceed in the construction of a bridge at this point, and I can see no reason why the Legislature should hesitate for one moment in giving this authority. It would be cheaper for the three counties to construct the bridge jointly than for one or two to undertake it. I earnestly hope that you will meet with success in convincing the Legislature that this is their duty, because I personally know that the public would earnestly indorse and approv of such a course and that they would be in favor of a bridge at this point.
