Citizens Send in Petition Signed By Over 100 Citizens-Referred to Regular Meeting Next

Council met in special session Tuesday evening with Messrs, Andresen, Meyers, Burke, Holman and Hall present and Mayor Brownell in the chair. Recorder Stipp read communications from the City Engineer relative to the condition of the Madison street bridge, street bridge was to the effect that the middle bent was badly damaged but that it had been repaired so that pedestrians might use it with safety and teams within a day or two.

Discussion in Council Indicated that the Engineer had gone shead on his own initiative, not just in accord with past precedents, but it was agreed that in the present instance it may have been an opportune turning aside from regular precedent.

The extension of Twelfth street to the river, with alight changes in grade. rted favorably on by the Engineer. At this stage of the proceedings the question as to whether the Engineer street committee of Council be required to look after these matters was up for discussion. Finally agreed it was wise to let Engineer examine and report but Council to have last recommendation. The hiring of Harry Jones to fix Madison bridge not according to past plans but as cost was under $100 might be permissible. Mr. Holman thought it wise to let

Engineer have more latitude but aug-gested that he give bond of $10,000. Mayor and others of same mind and bond of $10,000 and city stand expense, Question of altitudes from water level up for discussion. Suggested

Question of day police or night po-lice on the hill up for discussion again. This discussion was precipitated by the receipt of a petition signed by about 100 people on the hill. Discussion developed the fact that if a man was put on down town at 1 or 1:30 p. m. and transferred to the hill after supper, patroling the hill beat up to midnight, it would meet the approval of all and make it possible for the factions asking for day man down town and night man up town to feel the hill people during the discussion. Mayor Brownell suggested that committee of three be appointed to investigate question of fill on Twelfth street Had been told city was getting cheat ed $1000 or $2000; referred to City Engineer for investigation.

Mr. Lindsay wanted to call Council's attention to the road to Canemah. Said railway company had raised the height of dam, which meant additional water during a flood, without raising the roadway. This shut public off the road sooner when there was floor stage in the river and did not think it was right. Wanted it- investigated and matter remedied; will come before Council at regular meeting.

An ordinance for the improvement of Center street was read first time and ordered published.

JUDGE G. B. DIMICK TALKS ABOUT ROADS

THINKS THE FARMER NEEDS TO CLOSELY SCRUTINIZE ALL ROAD BILLS.

Ex-County Judge Grant B Dimick, who for years had charge of the roads in Clackamas county, and who has TWO U'REN MEASURES FACE DEFEAT made the building and repairing of roads a study in connection with that position, thinks that the people of Clackamas county and the State had best stop and consider the many road bills that are being introduced in the legislature before they accept them. It seems to be a case of building roads—or at least one trunk road across the State—that shall be a pleas ure to auto men to travel. This is all well and good as far as it goes; a good road is/a good thing; but it is not going to be a good thing if the farmer is required to pay the whole expense of an auto road, or nearly the whole expense. The farmer needs to the flooding of Center street, sewer on Twelfth street and other matters of interest. His report on Madison and be certain that if the auto men favor the passage of these measures, and be certain that if the auto men want a road that they pay their share and not saddle the whole expanse on the farmer. the farmer.

He told stories of the moonshine question and explain-ing the illicit distilling of liquor. He created great laughter by preaching two negro sermons and a hard-shelled Baptist sermon and gave a very vivid description of a coon hunt. ## LAWS OF PEOPLE WILL BE IMMUNE

ATTEMPTS TO AMEND INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM REPULSED BY LEGISLATURE.

Highway Commission Bill Gets Past Senate, But Will Have Rough Sledding in House-Chatten Has New Fish Bill.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 25 .- (Staff Correspondence)-There is not the slight-est probability that any of the people's laws will be amended or supple neuted at this session of the Legislature. Two attempts to add further sections to the initiative and referendum in the House have been repulsed

Yesterday the House killed by indefinite postponement, by a two to one vote, the bill by Thompson providing for the creation of a law board, the function of which would be to prepare all initiative measures for aubmission to the voters. The author of this bill argued that its enactment would simplify and strengthen the initiative in that electors would be in a position more intelligently to vote on the many measures submitted at election time. Champions of the ini-tiative, however, insisted that the bill in effect would annul the initiative and place the question of preparing laws in the hands of a group of politicians with the result that little t could be made by the common people of the initiative as was the purpose of its enactment. A majority of the House members concurred in this view and Thompson's bill was killed by a vote of 36 to 20, four being absent, It was only last week House, by an equally decisive vote killed Clemens' bill, which required electors, before signing initiative pe-titions, to certify that they had either read the measure to be submitted or had heard its provisions read in an intelligent manner

Another bill relating to the initiative and proposing a supplemental section thereto is now before the introduced by Representative Egglesproving it solemn form of the will of ton and provides for the appointment M 2 Mars Baker Edds, tile 1 a the of a commission of five members, conand the will was allowed 'blie was being den. One of the important measures apearing before the Senate is that by Dimick, which requires the proper auditing of every claim against the state and directs that each voucher shall be investigated and signed in person by the Secretary of State. A further reform in the handling of state funds is proposed by another bill by Dimick. It provides that when large sums of money are appropriated for state purposes, the funds so appro-priated shall remain in the state treasury until they are needed, instead of being deposited and used by various banking institutions throughout the state for several months at a time. It is not probable that two bills, drafted by W. S. U'Ren and intro-duced in the House by Shaw, Democrat, will be enacted. They provide the entering wedge to the consideration of single tax legislation. One of these measures, providing for the as-sessment of all appropriated waters separate from the land to which it belongs, was killed in the House today by indefinite postponement fol-lowing an unfavorable report from the judiciary committee. #### DENTAL ECONOMY

You will lose money if you do not have us do your dental work. A competition for cheapness and not for excellence of workmanship is the most frequent and certain cause of the rapid decay and entire destruction of the teeth, good looks and health.
