MACKSBURG.

The roads are becoming dried up so the autos are out running at full speed again. Our road supervisor has been working on a new road near the Molalla River. J. W. Ely has been hauling hay from Mrs. Grimm's. Mrs. Eugene Mitts has been taking care of Mrs. F. Hilton, who has had a gripe. Miss Schultz is going to work for Mrs. Frank Hilton. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mitts and daughter Lucy attended Rebekah Lodge at Needy Saturday. Professor Jake Mitts visited his parents Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. B. Drier has been visiting her sister in Portland. The early spring prediction is being fulfilled in the budding plants, and in the bird-orchestra that greets the ear on waking in the morning. The weather continues charming with sunsets worthy of the brush of a Meissoniere and wild flowers. The Spring-beauty being the first to tell us that the winter is gone. The grubbing and the wire fence and the school children have begun to bring their usual spring offering of building go on at a rate that promises a speedy termination of the black stump and zig-zag fences reign in Macksburg. Mr. Adolf Greenwood, who was taken suddenly ill while at work a few weeks ago, has fully recovered. Mr. Walter Greenwood has also recovered from a recent severe illness. George Walsh is still grubbing for Mr. Sol Strubbar. Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Strubbar are getting over an attack of the grip. Mr. Baldwin received a pleasant visit from Mrs. Walsh on Friday. Miss Maud Nebo has returned to her studies at the Oregon Agricultural College in Corvallis. The Misses Katie and Lillie Harms have been ill with the grip the past week. A. A. Baldwin was a visitor in Portland Saturday and Sunday. Ferdinand Kraehger is setting out several thousand hop vines. Grant Graves has moved into his new house near Marquam. Clifford Graves was busy Thursday and Friday hauling wood to the school house. Bids for next year's wood for the school are open till the night of Saturday, March 11. Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. All that is needed to afford relief is the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. Give it a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords. Sold by all dealers.

MOLALLA.

Miss Lela Russell died after a few days' illness of pneumonia last week in the 17th year of her life. Remains were interred in the Adams' Cemetery. Carl Ramsby, who recently got caught "chasing" sawlogs, by both feet, cracking some bones, will be about the house for a few months. Uncle Jake Harless has the "Biggest Bell" in town swinging in his church tower, and when he rang it last Sunday the base tone seemed to say: "Hear! Hear! All ye Molalla people. Hear! Hear! My 'music' in the steeples."

MULINO.

George Mallatt, of Tygh Valley, has been spending a few days in this vicinity visiting relatives and friends. He left Monday for his home accompanied by his brother, Arthur. Henry Turner has moved to Oregon City to reside. Farmers are busy getting ready for the spring seeding, some already plowing, the ground being in fine condition. The late cold weather has not injured the fall grain, apparently. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace were visiting at Macksburg Sunday. There was quite a crowd at spelling school Friday night and a good interest taken. The school is being conducted by Ross Eaton. A spelling school properly conducted is a credit to any community. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wallace are staying at Mrs. Scharf's during her absence in Eastern Oregon, where she was called last week by the death of her mother. Miss Inez Snodgrass has been on the sick list for a week, having to dismiss her school and come home. Her sister, Gladys, took her place this week and will try her hand at school teaching. Mrs. McDonald has moved to Dan Graves' shingle mill where she expects to work this summer.

A Smooth Skin.

Blackheads, Chaps, Pimples, Sores and all unhealthy conditions of the skin are unsightly and detract from the looks. Buy a box of Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve, a creamy, snow-white ointment, apply as directed, and your skin will be as clear as a babe's. Geo. A. Harding, Druggist.

MEADOWBROOK.

R. P. Cooper made a business trip to Oregon City Saturday. Mr. Schafer has begun flying around in his auto while the roads are good. The Schafer Lumber Co. started its mill with a full force of men, with Mr. Thompson as head sawer. Mr. Staudinger is still complaining of the grip. Mr. Colvin has purchased a new stump puller. He is contemplating clearing some land. Mrs. J. W. Staudinger was greatly surprised by a number of her friends on her birthday, March 5. In the evening she received some nice presents and all had a fine time. John Calahan is plowing for Ralph Holman when it is fit weather. Misses Myrtle and Hazel Larkins were visiting in South Meadowbrook Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Windfield were visiting Mr. O. Kay and family Sunday. Are you frequently hoarse? Do you have that annoying tickling in your throat? Does your cough annoy you at night, and do you raise mucus in the morning? Do you want relief? If so, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you will be pleased. Sold by all dealers.

CLARKES.

Mr. Haag's horse stepped on some thing which caused a sore foot. Mr. Marquardt was in town on Monday. Mr. Bottemiller is plowing and getting ready to sow oats. Mr. Haag went over to Mr. Moser's on Monday. Mr. Baurer and son, Albert, from Colton, were in town on Monday. Mr. Marshall finished up sawing on their Highland farm. Ed Baal was out digging post holes last week. Harvey Caruthers, the cream hauler, had a little break down last week. Mr. and Mrs. Maxson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lee. Mrs. Serial Kleinsmith died at 6 o'clock Thursday morning at her sons. There are six children, Elmer Kleinsmith, of Portland; W. G. Kleinsmith, Mrs. Bottemiller and Eugene Kleinsmith, of Clarks; Alvin Kleinsmith, of Medford, Oregon; Henry Kleinsmith, of Clarks. There are also 13 grandchildren to mourn her loss. The funeral was held at the M. E. church at 1 o'clock on Saturday with interment in Clarks cemetery. Mrs. Serial W. Kleinsmith was born in Pennsylvania May 6, 1835, and she lived 75 years and 10 months. She was married to Henry Kleinsmith and they moved to Canada from Pennsylvania, then moved to Kansas and stayed 6 years and then they moved to Portland, Oregon. They lived six years at Milwaukee and then moved to Clarks, where they spent the rest of their days.

Gives Prompt Relief.

William H. Douglas, Jr., of Washington, D. C., says: "I take great pleasure in informing you I have used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, and it gave me almost instant relief. For sale by Geo. A. Harding, Druggist."

SOUTH SHUBEL.

We are having more rain, seems as if we were going to have more winter weather. Mr. I. Cook and son of Clarks, were seen passing through our burg Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Dix made a trip to Oregon City Saturday and visited the latter's parents Sunday. Our teacher is able to teach again. Mr. F. L. Sagar had the misfortune to get a bad silver in his hand last week, which gives him some trouble. Rev. Smith and wife are out on their new farm at present. We are glad to hear Mrs. Chris Hornschuh is recovering from her illness. We hope she is soon able to be up again. Last Friday about noon a neighbor went through Dixie and discovered Oscar Dix's house was on fire. If it hadn't been for him passing and seeing it just when he did it would likely have burned down as Mrs. Dix was out at the time and not where she could see that side of the roof. It

The negative, Otto Laman, Al Mosher, Roland Edwards, Frank Minner and Jack Fish. The Carus literary will debate with Clairmont at Clairmont March 15. Richard Davis made a business trip to town Monday. Mrs. A. D. Jones and son, Jack, called on Mrs. Inskeep Sunday. Mrs. Mary Jones and daughter called on Mrs. Young Monday. Miss Elsa, Harry and Mrs. Robert Schoenborn were Oregon City visitors Monday. Mrs. H. Jones, of Portland, was calling on old friends this week. Mrs. Albert Schoenborn and son and Lela McCarthy were in Oregon City Tuesday. Mrs. Glen Yerg and son Phillip are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. Miss Pansy Irish called on Miss Elsa Fisher Sunday. A surprise party was given on Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ashton Tuesday evening. Everybody reported having a good time. We are all sorry to hear that Mrs. Inskeep is going to move into Oregon City.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are safe, sure and reliable, and have been praised by thousands of women who have been restored to health through their gentle aid and curative properties. Sold by all dealers.

SMYRNA.

The farming in this vicinity was brought to a halt by the unexpected rain Friday evening, but now the indications are for fair weather and we hope the good work may continue soon. Andrew Formark who left our neighborhood some time ago, is working for a jewelry firm in Portland, and says the city life agrees with him fine. Mrs. A. G. Yoder and Miss Nell Yoder called on Miss Emma Koushak Friday and spent a pleasant afternoon. Jim and Walter Watson were seen on our streets Sunday afternoon. Mrs. L. B. Yoder and Mrs. T. Sence visited with Mrs. Fred Watson last Wednesday. Fred Palmer's two boys made a trip to Yoder's mill last Saturday and got material for a new lawn fence. Mr. Palmer is an enthusiastic farmer as by Mrs. F. E. Fish as assistant house keeper and will begin work the 6th. Little Gwendolyn, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Watson, had a narrow escape from being seriously burned last Wednesday afternoon. She was playing near an open fire when in some way her little skirts were ignited and she ran screaming toward the house. The quick work of her mother in smothering the flames saved the child from serious injury. Herman Olson has finished his contract of grubbing for the saw mill man and is now looking for new fields to conquer.

200,000 Tubes

Of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve were sold in 1908 and not one word of complaint, though every tube was sold under a positive guarantee. It is good for nothing but the eyes. Ask Geo. A. Harding, Druggist.

GRESHAM.

Aldis F. Matthews, who died at his home at Sycamore last Monday, was born in Germany, November 27, 1846. He leaves a widow, sons and daughters. The family lived in Damascus for several years, and only lately moved to Sycamore. Funeral services were held on Wednesday from the German church at Damascus, conducted by Rev. Mr. Freund of Gresham. Misses Ethel and Olive Merrill gave their mother, Mrs. Charles Merrill, a surprise last evening by inviting a number of friends to spend the evening. Cards and refreshments filled in the time until a late hour. A. Hockinson, who lately purchased the Gresham livery barn from Ed Metzger, is having a basement made under the building and other improvements will be made.

There is Only One Pine-Tar-Honey.

That is Dr. Bell's. It is the original and can be relied on in croup, coughs, colds and all lung and bronchial troubles. Look for the bell on the bottle. Geo. A. Harding, Druggist.

COLTON.

Chester Gorbett is preparing to leave for the Grande Ronde country this week, where he expects to make his future home. We all wish him good luck though we are sorry to see him go.

ister, Rev. Carl J. Renhard and family. Speeches of welcome and commendation were given in connection with the regular Luther League program in the afternoon. A purse of $20 was tendered as a token of esteem. Automobiling is very much like the Chinaman's definition of coasting: "Swish, walkee back a mile." Isn't it, Oscar, and then some? Mrs. E. Janson has been on the sick list a few days, but is better. Cleve and John Laferty were home from Elwood a few days over Sunday. They are cutting spool-timber and shingle bolts for Chris Blittner.

The Colds That Hang On

Are readily cured by Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It relieves the cold and stops the cough. There is only one genuine. Geo. A. Harding, Druggist.

CLACKAMAS.

The Clackamas Cemetery Association met at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon, February 3. A quorum being present, several matters of business were considered. J. R. Landes, John Talbot and A. O. Hayward were appointed a committee of three to see about the purchase of new wire fencing to enclose the grounds. The Home and School Club has had quite a set back in the long and serious illness of its president, C. C. Sargent. Mr. Sargent is seemingly on the road to full recovery. There will be a meeting of the club as usual at 3:30 P. M. at the schoolhouse March 17. A good attendance is desired. Mrs. F. M. Breeze sold her place on the corner opposite the Congregational church last week to parties from Portland. Mrs. Breeze retains a life interest in the little cottage. The sale was made through Mrs. Buford, of Portland. Consideration, $2100. Thornton Strite has lately improved his premises by setting out an acre to grape vines. Mrs. Harry Jennings spent a few days last week with her friend, Mrs. Gardner, of Oswego. C. W. Casto, of Carus, visited with friends in town Sunday. Wednesday of last week the C. E. society held an evening social at the home of Mrs. Leroy Paul. "One of the best ever" is reported. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, of Mt. Carmel, Penn., friends of Mrs. J. L. Jones, are domiciled in the Brazee cottage. Mr. Arnold found employment with Mr. Sam Locke, florist. Notices are out for an unique entertainment on the evening of St. Patrick's Day, March 17. It will be under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Congregational Church. The program will include the wedding of Miss Long to Mr. Short, also a Pedler's Fair. Admission free. G. W. Holcomb, Sr., of Portland, lately came to make his home with his son, R. B. Holcomb and family.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

The Maple Lane Grange meets Saturday for an all-day session. The principal order of business will be the election of three delegates to attend the convention to be held at the court house. There will be preaching every Sunday evening at Mountain View church at 7:30. Emery C. Dye will preach. Clinton Griffin is on the sick list having injured his hand in the woolen mill. Will Edgcomb and Albert Mautz are kept busy this week plowing gardens. W. W. Everhart, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Thursday all day and returned home with his mother Friday. Frank Silvy has an attack of la grippe. A family is moving into the C. B. Hyson house. Grandma Pratt is able to be up again. Mr. Morrison and family are moving into Mrs. Brooks' house, lately vacated by Geo. Haskell. There was preaching at the Mountain View church last Sunday evening by E. C. Dye, who gave a very interesting talk. There was a small audience on account of measles being prevalent. Also some attended the singing evangelistic meeting at the Baptist church. Mr. Dye expects to be here again the first Sunday in April at 7:30 P. M., when we hope to have a larger audience to greet him. There was a large crowd at the Improvement Club meeting last Friday evening, when W. S. U'ren spoke on Single Tax. Clinton Griffin has gone to work again after a lay-off of two weeks with a sore hand. Mr. Morrison and family have moved into Mrs. Brooks' house, lately vacated by George Haskell and family, who moved into their new home near Duane street. Otis Townsend spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Ogle, of Aurora. The Improvement Club has struck the Needy people. Askins Bros. are building a barn for Mr. Galor and the Noblitt Bros. are building fences. Mr. Long is fencing and closing up his ranch. His brother-in-law, of Marquam, is helping him. Mr. Stevie is working for C. Craites in the hopyard. Miss Annie Teal is going to stay with Mrs. Frank Fish for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. A. Elliott are moving to Needy, and they are very welcome. Hope they will stay. Mr. McDaniel has moved back to his farm again after being gone for two years. We are glad to have him back.

WILLAMETTE.

P. Berdine departed last Sunday for Bull Run with crew and outfit, where he is to work for the Bull Run Water Co. Accompanying him was Frank Ross, who will be the cook to mix the dough and cook the muligan. The brass band of this place has two public engagements to furnish music in the near future, and on St. Patrick's Day. Phillip Hower, of Salem, recently purchased for his aged father the two and one-half acres of D. Spott near this place. The aged father has now moved onto the tract. Elmer Seeley last Friday moved his family into the cottage in this place, which formerly belonged to M. Fournal. Mrs. E. Mays has her four lots all ploughed and ready to plant potatoes. Willamette last Sunday night was well represented in the Baptist church and all were well pleased by going. The singing by Mr. Stout was appreciated by all. C. Kanney has his place fenced by a fine woven wire, ploughed and all ready for pumpkins and pop corn. J. W. Rhiner and wife made a business trip to Portland Monday. Mr. Downey, who owns the water system here, has made extensive improvement of the springs, including a new fence. Funeral Was Held Wednesday. Lela Russell, of Molalla, died at the family home Monday night of pneumonia, and the funeral was held on Wednesday at 11 o'clock. The services, which were largely attended, were held at the Molalla church. Forced to Leave Home. Every year a large number of poor sufferers, whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs, are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. It's surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Jones Drug Co.

The Feed Is the Heart of the Drill--
Some Drills Have Heart Disease--
But Not the Hoosier.

Its heart is perfectly sound. Its feed is a positive force feed, which seeds uniformly and accurately, regardless of conditions. It works as well on the side hill, up hill or down hill as on the level. There is no guess work, you set the feed regulator at the quantity you want to sow and you know that you are seeding just that amount, no more or no less. That's why you want to be sure your drill is Positive Force Feed Machine and the only way to be absolutely sure is to buy a Hoosier. Write for our circular "The Feeding of Seed".
