At 3:30 a. m. the roof of Snyder's bakery was ablaze-a one story frame building with concrete front, occupied by J. Snyder as a bakery and delicatessen; Fred Lehman, butcher, and Jim Mathews, barber shop. The front of the building is standing; all the rest was a total loss. Mr. Mathews' loss will be about $200, covered by insurance. Fred Lehman saved some of his stock, the amount of his loss not being estimated yet. Mr. Snyder had a total loss; the firms carried insurance. J. Snyder owned the building at Oswego Sunday, and his loss is near $2750, with $1800 insurance.
