

CANBY AND SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS

CANBY.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burdette a number of their friends gathered last Friday evening for the occasion being the celebration of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the two highly esteemed persons.

Constitution brings many ailments in its train and in the primary cause of much sickness. Keep your bowels regular, madam, and you will escape many of the ailments to which women are subject.

BARLOW.

Miss Ionia Andrews and Peary Kee-bath, of this place, were united in marriage Saturday, April 8, at Oregon City.

Joe Willett has gone to Oregon City to work, and is expecting to stay for two months or more.

In the ball game between Canby and Barlow last Friday, Canby was beaten by the score of 8 to 15.

Barlow has not lost a game this season, and does not expect to.

Karl Bergren is giving his building a new coat of paint and putting up a new Warner fence around his lots.

The Zion Ladies' Aid, of Barlow, will give a basket social in Berg's Hall on Monday night, the 17th of April.

Mr. C. Hanson and family arrived here on Saturday night from Minnesota and will make Barlow their home.

Miss Withey, of Portland, visited over Sunday with Bergs.

James M. Erickson took a trip to St. Johns last week on business.

Charlie Repek has rented the Jas. M. Erickson farm for the coming summer.

B. J. Berg was in Portland on Sunday and Monday on business.

When You Feel discouraged, confused, nervous, tired, worried or despondent it is a sure sign you need Mott's Nerve Pills.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

STAFFORD.

This part of the universe woke on Tuesday morning to a white world. Snow an inch deep had fallen, and farmers with grain and clover seed in the ground rejoiced.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burdette a number of their friends gathered last Friday evening for the occasion being the celebration of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the two highly esteemed persons.

Constitution brings many ailments in its train and in the primary cause of much sickness. Keep your bowels regular, madam, and you will escape many of the ailments to which women are subject.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

Chas. McCormick, millionaire lumberman, who owns a fine farm north of Canby on the Willamette River, while going to take a train in California, dropped into his wife's arms and she was dead in a moment.

Mr. Gorcham who has been absent for over a week returned this week bringing his family with him; so now he is here to stay.

COLTON.

About one inch of snow fell here Monday. Looks quite wintry for this time of the year.

Mrs. George Wallace, who had been visiting with her parents at Hubbard, returned to Colton last Tuesday accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Plurd.

Will Dix, of Shubel, was home last Sunday visiting with his mother, Mrs. Dix.

John Jones is digging stumps for C. Stromgreen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, of Portland, were out visiting Mr. Warner's brother in the hills last Sunday.

E. Trigg started his job of clearing for C. Stromgreen Saturday.

Mr. Worsen, who has been at Portland for some time, is out on his place again.

U. S. Dix purchased some hay from Mr. Axene and was hauling it last week.

Miss Florence Stromgreen attended church at Elwood last Sunday.

Mr. Sullivan, the road supervisor of district 20, was around looking over the roads and found some places where improvement is very necessary.

H. Warner accompanied his friend John Deetz, who had been visiting him, to Estacada Monday.

Mr. Axene is leaving for Alaska this week.

Mr. Axene is selling all his stock and farm implements and will leave for Portland soon.

W. S. Gorbett finished his winter's contract of logging for Holt Bros. last Saturday.

Mr. Axene sold his wagon to Mr. Freeman, of Elwood.

Bill Hettman left for Hubbard Wednesday.

"Our baby cries for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Rasaca, Ga. "It is the best cough remedy on the market for coughs, colds and croup."

Wedding bells are reported for the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bullard celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Rau, of Center street, were all who were present, except the family. Mrs.

PORTLAND HAS A LITTLE BOY WHO HAS THEM.

Curtis Selby painted the tower of the Mountain View church last week on Friday and Saturday.

The ladies of the Mountain View S. S. have cleaned the church and put down a new carpet ready for Easter Sunday.

Rev. Procter will talk to the Sunday school Sunday at 2:30 P. M. All come.

It's Equal Don't Exist. No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Buckle's Arnica Salve.

The mild and beautiful weather of the past five weeks was brought to an abrupt end Sunday by a severe wind that continued all day and brought a little rain with it in the afternoon.

Albert Mosberger and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Mills Lantz, were seen motoring through our neighborhood last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Elva Conrad, of Gladfidding, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. L. Yoder.

At last reports, Otto Owens is still suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, but we surely hope he will be all O. K. before long.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Sconce and sister, Mrs. L. B. Yoder, were shopping in Woodburn last Saturday, also calling on E. H. Yoder and family while there.

Mr. Josephine Wyland spent a few days visiting Mrs. J. D. Ritter and family last week.

Mrs. L. D. Yoder and daughter, Mrs. J. Watson, were calling on Miss Nell Yoder Friday afternoon.

Mrs. F. E. Morrison and Mrs. Sherrell, returned home Saturday evening after an extended visit with some friends in Hillsboro and Oregon.

Herman Olsegg has tackled another piece of grubbing for A. L. Yoder and is changing the looks of the little farm very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yoder were entertained by J. Watson and wife last Sunday.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps? No, never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, layous, and lowlands.

Anna Nemic was home from school at Oregon City for the entertainment and stayed over Sunday, and went with her mother to visit friends at Wilsonville over Sunday.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, of Portland, were out visiting Mr. Warner's brother in the hills last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, of Portland, were out visiting Mr. Warner's brother in the hills last Sunday.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Wedding bells are reported for the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bullard celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Rau, of Center street, were all who were present, except the family. Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, of Portland, were out visiting Mr. Warner's brother in the hills last Sunday.

E. Trigg started his job of clearing for C. Stromgreen Saturday.

Mr. Worsen, who has been at Portland for some time, is out on his place again.

U. S. Dix purchased some hay from Mr. Axene and was hauling it last week.

Miss Florence Stromgreen attended church at Elwood last Sunday.

Mr. Sullivan, the road supervisor of district 20, was around looking over the roads and found some places where improvement is very necessary.

H. Warner accompanied his friend John Deetz, who had been visiting him, to Estacada Monday.

Mr. Axene is leaving for Alaska this week.

Mr. Axene is selling all his stock and farm implements and will leave for Portland soon.

W. S. Gorbett finished his winter's contract of logging for Holt Bros. last Saturday.

Mr. Axene sold his wagon to Mr. Freeman, of Elwood.

Bill Hettman left for Hubbard Wednesday.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

ALCOHOL 3 PER CENT. A Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomach and Bowels of INFANTS & CHILDREN.

Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Measles. NOT NARCOTIC.

Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.

Fac-Simile Signature of Chamberlain NEW YORK.

16th months old 35 Doses - 35 CENTS Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

LOGAN.

F. W. Reibhoff, the road supervisor, is busy working on the roads at present, but says it is hard to get men to work as farmers are so busy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Steinman, of Currieville, were visiting relatives in Logan this week and returned home to learn they were Grandpa and Grandma Steinman, as the Stork had visited their daughter's home, Mrs. Lydia McConnell, of Sellwood, leaving a little daughter.

A. A. Crissell, of the firm of Monroe and Crissell, Portland, was out through Logan selling Simplex separators.

It seems like old times to get regular mail once more.

Last Saturday was the monthly meeting of Harding Grange. Forty members enjoyed the day as Grangers do.

Wednesday, April 12, Pomona Grange meets with Abernethy Grange at Parkplace. Remember time and place.

O. D. Robbins' hand is a little better but is not beyond danger stage yet.

Some of the boys are getting tin cans, etc., ready for something. If they know they won't sell.

These heavy frosts are not appreciated as peaches and early cherries are in bloom.

There was a little error in the creamery report last week. It should be for average price received for butter for the year, 21 1/2 cents lb., paid for butter fat average, for year, 24c lb., and also was Townsend Grocery firm, not Creamery Co., who has handled the butter so many years.

If you have sore eyes of any kind use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It is good for nothing but the eyes. It is painless and harmless, and is positively the best. If you don't say so we will refund your money. Try it and then tell your neighbor. Sold by Geo. A. Harding, Druggist, 25c a tube.

MARQUAM.

At last we have received the rain which has been expected.

Our road supervisor, John Barth, has been making some good improvements during the past few days.

Mr. Albert, who had a most severe accident some time ago while riding a bicycle, is very much improved.

Miss Dolly Marquam was out home again. She is attending High school at Silverton.

Our merchant, F. J. Riddings, has been having some improvements made, as adding a new addition to his house and putting a new roof upon the old store.

Frank Dickens, of Molalla, was in out midst Sunday.

A number attended the dance at Scotts Mills from Marquam last Saturday evening.

A number of Needy base ball players were seen upon the Marquam streets Sunday, but it looked too much like rain to play ball.

There will be a basket social at Monitor, Or., next Friday, April 14, 1911, given by the Monte Cristo school, to raise funds to purchase an organ and a library case for the school. Program by the school. We cordially invite all patrons of the school with their friends to come. Ladies are requested to all bring baskets. At the close of the entertainment Charles Hirtchell will sell the baskets to the highest bidder.

Rats has come again to the great relief of many.

Road work has been progressing fairly well under the supervision of John Barth.

Improvements begin to boom again in and around our town.

D. M. Bentley and Mr. Shoemaker, who have been gone to Mexico for the last three weeks, returned home better satisfied with welfare. They say Oregon is good enough for them.

Miss Bell Gray has been sick for a while although better at this writing.

Dolph Myers has a nice lot of fat hogs to sell.

A great many in this part of the country have been sowing land pasture on their clover. It pays well.

Snow covered the ground here this morning, April 11.

Every Bottle is Guaranteed. Every bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all throat and bronchial troubles. Geo. A. Harding, Druggist.

MEADOWBROOK.

Well, today is the 10th day of April and the ground is white with snow, which is quite a change in the weather.

We still have some measles, colds and other sickness in this part of town; don't know when we will get well.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holman were out on the farm Sunday visiting their grandson, Charles N. Holman.

Mr. Allen, a Socialist candidate, was elected Mayor by a small majority.

J. W. Staudinger informs us that he will be riding around in his new auto soon.

Will the correspondent please inform us to the extent of the damage done to the fence when Capt. Apperson was after the chicken in his new automobile?

Clyde Waldron made a business trip to Meadowbrook Saturday and Sunday. The road was some slick Sunday.

O. T. Kay got his thumb between a block of wood and a sledge hammer and split his thumb in place of the wood. He had better split before.

Mrs. Milton Chindgren was greatly surprised last Saturday by a number of her friends, it being her birthday.

Claude Winslow has been hauling lumber for C. S. Studinger's new barn.

A. L. Larkins is hauling lumber to furnish the brick yard of Mr. Rob. Orem. He will be able to furnish the trade with plain and fancy brick.

M. J. Lee has a force of men at work on the Canby Canal Co.'s flume.

Lame Shoulder is nearly always due to rheumatism of the muscles, and quickly yields to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

STONE.

The residents of this section were greatly surprised on the morning of the 11th to find the ground covered with snow, while the cherry trees were in full bloom.

Many of the people of this section are afflicted with the measles and pneumonia. It seems as though the measles and pneumonia in harmony to pull the patient down, and then comes the grip, which stays as long as either of these ailments.

With all of these diseases the Mumpowers have control of getting out stone for culverts and Frank Jaggar has the control of building the culverts for Clackamas county, and when once built they will be a great benefit to the county. Another enterprise is being considered, this being the construction of a dam, and the water power used for manufacturing purposes.

Grant Mumpower started the old saw through the logs at the sawmill this morning. Mr. Mumpower has a force of men cutting up the logs on Clackamas River.

A party was operating an Armstrong mower cutting grass to feed the milk cows. Green grass makes quite a difference in the quantity of milk.

Evangelist D. W. Summers, of Salem, will hold services at the church on 16th inst., at 11 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend. Bible reading at 10 o'clock. Seats are free.

CLARKES.

Mary Marshall is back home from Oregon City.

Mrs. Marshall is staying with her son, Willie Marshall.

Mr. Cummins has very near blood poison; he is in Oregon City under the doctor's care.

Mrs. Cummins is staying in Oregon City with Mr. Cummins.

It snowed on Monday, April