W.F.M.S. DISTRICT M. E. CONVENTION

LADIES OF SALEM DISTRICT HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION IN LOCAL M. E. CHURCH.

THREE SESSIONS WELL ATTENDED

Ladies of Local Church Provide Beautiful Entertainment for Delegates and Visitors From Abroad.

There was a fair attendance of delegates to the W. F. M. S. district convention of the M. E. denomination in the Methodist church in this city Wednesday. It was the convention of the Salem district, and it proved a very enjoyable occasion to those present.

The first session—there were forenoon, afternoon and evening sessions—convened at 9 a. m. Mrs. W. B. Moore, of Lents, led devotions; Mrs. Mary Morse, of this place, made the address of welcome; response was by Mrs. Alton, of Salem. Minutes of 1910 were then read, followed by the appointment of committees:

Enrollment—Mrs. Kruse and Mrs. Osborne, of Oregon City. Resolutions—Mrs. Von Eschen, of Salem; Miss Nettie Whitney. Courtesies—Mrs. Blanchard, of Oregon City.

Sympathy—Mrs. O. M. Gardner, of Forest Grove; Mrs. H. D. Kimball, Salem.

The remainder of the morning session was then given over to reports from local organizations and from the district work, with music by the congregation.

The afternoon session convened at 2 o'clock when Mrs. Susan Bryant led the devotions. This was followed by the minutes and the report of the committee on nominations. The nominations were confirmed by the convention, as follows: President, Mrs. Ed. W. Sherwood; first vice president, Mrs. R. C. Blackwell; second vice president, Mrs. W. B. Moore; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. Lester Fields; recording secretary, Mrs. B. Brackenberry; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Sackett; superintendent young people's work, Mrs. O. M. Gardner; superintendent children's work, Mrs. Von Eschen.

Mrs. Seeley read the constitution and Mrs. Fischer gave the charge to the newly elected officers. Four members on the nominating program, which the convention was not able to reach, were here crowded into the afternoon work, as follows: "Tithing" by Mrs. Miller; Membership contest, Mrs. J. M. Brown; "The Aim," Mrs. Doughty; "Five Minutes With Our Literature," Mrs. Dickey.

A short memorial service was presented by the resolutions committee in commemoration of the good work of the late Mrs. Maclean, who died Saturday and will be buried Thursday, Mrs. Maclean having been assigned to a place on the program while yet in life.

The "Forward Movement" was discussed by Mrs. Seeley in conjunction with her address on "The Aim," and after the minutes of the afternoon session, with unofficial business and a song the adjournment was taken to the evening hour.

The ladies of the local M. E. church provided a bountiful dinner and those who were present from abroad were provided with an evening repast in the parlors of the church.

The evening session opened at 8 o'clock with an organ voluntary, after which Rev. Case made a short address and led the devotions. The Oregon City choir sang several selections and Mrs. S. W. Eddy, a returned missionary from India, made the address of the evening.

Mrs. Eddy's home is in Ohio, but she is spending several months on the coast in field work for foreign missions. She is organizing the work in the M. E. churches in the Northwest and proved a very entertaining speaker.

Rev. E. F. Zimmerman was given a place on the program but on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Zimmerman he was unable to be present.

WEDDING BELLS RING FOR WORTHY COUPLE

WILLIAM CLYDE HUGHES AND MISS CLEO CLAUDIA DILLOW MARRIED TUESDAY.

Miss Cleo Claudia Dillow, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dillow, of Bolton, was united in marriage to Mr. William Clyde Hughes, of Bolton, Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the Taylor Street Methodist church, Portland. Rev. E. F. Zimmerman, of this city, officiating. The ceremony was very quiet, and the young couple left for Hillsboro and Forest Grove, where they will spend their honeymoon, and upon their return will make their home at Bolton, where the groom has a nicely furnished cottage in waiting for his bride. They will be at home to their friends after April 26.

The bride was very attractive in her gown of white crepe de chine and messaline, and wore a large white picture hat.

The bride came to this city about one year ago from Hollister, California, and is a bright young woman. She graduated from the Hollister High school in the year of 1906, and has been for some time bookkeeper and cashier for the Oregon City Enterprise.

She has been active in church work, being a member of the Methodist church, and has made many friends since taking up her residence in Oregon City.

DEATH VISITS HIM IN EARLY MANHOOD

GUIDO ROSCOE CLARK RISES TO PLACE OF HIGH HONOR IN LIFE.

TO BE STRICKEN BY GRIM REAPER

Born in This City, Graduated With High Honors, He Makes a Name for Himself Early in Life.

Guido Roscoe Clark, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Clark, of this city, died at the family home on Sixth and Monroe streets on Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, after a lingering illness. Mr. Clark's death is keenly felt by his many friends in this city as well as his bereaved parents and brother. He was a young man with a bright future before him.

Mr. Clark was born in this city on December 12, 1881, and was 29 years of age at the time of his demise. In the year of 1897 he graduated from the Oregon City High school with high honors, and afterwards took up a course in mining engineering at Pacific University, Forest Grove. He also graduated from that institution, and to further his studies in this course he went to Boston, where he entered the Boston School of Technology, graduating from that institution also with honors. From there he went to Mexico, where he accepted the position as assistant superintendent of the Guggenheim Smelting Works at Monterey.

After remaining there for several years his health failed him, and he went to San Antonio, Texas, thinking the change of climate would be beneficial to him, and later to Tucson, Arizona, but not regaining his health he decided to come to his home in Oregon, thinking the Oregon climate would be of benefit, but without avail.

Mr. Clark was a young man of high ambitions, and his untimely death is much regretted by his large circle of friends. Although he was of a quiet and reserved disposition he made friends wherever he went. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Clark and a brother, Roy Clark, of this city. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Moss, prominent pioneers of Oregon.

The funeral services will be conducted from the family home on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be in the family plot in Mountain View cemetery. Rev. William Proctor, pastor of the Congregational church, will officiate.

PIONEER WOMAN DEAD.

Mrs. Isabel Dart, Early Day Resident, Passes Away Monday.

Mrs. Isabel Dart, pioneer of 1852 and 56 years of age, died at Molalla Monday afternoon. She was one of two women at Molalla still residing on their original donation land claims,

Mrs. Susan Vaughan being the other. Mrs. Dart was born at Jamestown, Va., August 26, 1824, and with her husband left for Oregon from Oakaloosa, Iowa. Her husband was a minister and died in 1902 after 45 years of service. Four children survive: C. W. and Louis Dart, Seilo, Or.; Edward K. Dart and Mrs. E. E. Judd, Molalla. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock today under I. O. O. F. auspices, Rev. Mr. Trailing of Lents, Or., officiating.

DEMOCRAT CAUCUS ON RECIPROCITY

FARMERS' FREE LIST WILL ALSO RECEIVE NEAR-FUTURE CONSIDERATION.

WOOLEN AND COTTON SCHEDULES TOO

Will Be Among the Things the Democrats Will Try and Tamper With—Statehood Measures Too.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(Special)—The Democratic caucus, held tonight, decided that reciprocity with Canada and a farmers' free list are the two items that will be taken up soon. Then the woolen and cotton schedules are to receive consideration.

The caucus made no changes and offered no amendments to the bill as presented by Chairman Underwood, and there was no opposition to Canadian reciprocity. It is said the free list will embrace the things that the farmers need. At the present time, under the Joe Cannon tariff, the import duty makes it prohibitive in many instances, but these will be cut so that it will be possible to import them.

The Underwood reciprocity bill was endorsed without change. The caucus asked the President to continue his efforts to secure further reciprocal trade relations where it is made possible.

There are three other measures dear to the Democratic heart likely to soon be reached—the election of Senators by the people, publicity of campaign expenses before the vote is taken and statehood for Arizona and New Mexico.

Another caucus is promised to debate the revision of the wool and cotton schedules.

RESTLESS AND DESTRUCTIVE.

Found Necessary to Send Albert Walberg to the Asylum.

Albert Walberg, of Canby, was brought to this city Tuesday afternoon where he was examined as to his sanity by Dr. Hugh S. Mount, and was taken Tuesday evening to Salem, where he will be confined in the asylum until his condition improves. He is restless and destructive.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following were granted marriage licenses Monday by County Clerk Malvey: Beth Wentworth and George R. Merrifield; Margaret L. Dolan and A. Blacorn Calder; Lena Ole and F. C. Aldrich.

CROSSES THE PLAINS AT AGE OF TWELVE

PIONEER OUT MOLALLA WAY WHO WAS AMONG THE FIRST SETTLERS.

Mrs. Susan Vaughan, widow of the late William Vaughan, of Molalla, died at the family home at Molalla on Tuesday evening, at 10 o'clock after suffering a stroke of paralysis, and the funeral services will be conducted at the Adams cemetery on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Vaughan's maiden name was Susan Officer, and she was born in the State of Missouri, near the city of St. Joe, March 3, 1822. She was united in marriage to William Vaughan on August 26, 1847. She was one of the prominent early Oregon pioneers, having come across the plains in the year of 1845. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan took up a Donation Land Claim at Molalla, where they resided until their deaths, Mr. Vaughan passing away in February, 1906.

Mrs. Vaughan was well known throughout Clackamas county, and was hospitable and kind to all who knew her, and was loved by all. She is survived by eleven children, who are as follows: Frank Vaughan, of Washington; Isom Vaughan, Mrs. Virginia Cutting, Mrs. Tennessee Prader, Mrs. Viola Eagle, Longstreet Vaughan, William Vaughan, John Vaughan, all of Molalla; Stonewall Vaughan, of Canby; Mrs. Cora McCown, of Medford; Mrs. Susan Moody, of Portland.

F. A. Miles went to Willhoit on Wednesday on business returning in the evening.
