NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MARQUAM.

Fine weather still prevails. Mutton and beef buyers are seen quite often in these parts. John Barth has gone over into the State of Washington to look for land. Guy C. Larkins has gone to Salem to attend the summer normal to be gone five or six weeks.

Died near Marquam—Mrs. Benjamin Jackson. She came to this country in the early fifties and she lived and died on the old donation land claim. She was more familiarly known as Grandma Jackson. She was 88 years old at her death. She was buried at the Miller cemetery in Marion county, April 25. A large crowd attended the funeral.

It is reported that the hops are not doing well. Some of the early ones were frozen.

Mrs. Vira Miller has improved her property by putting a new walk in front of it.

Mrs. J. E. Marquam will soon have a nice display of roses in her front yard.

There is to be an ice cream social and entertainment at the hall, Friday evening, May 5.

John Barth and J. E. Marquam, who went to Washington to look for land, have returned. It appears that old webfoot is good enough for them.

Mrs. R. A. Gray will go Monday to Oregon City on business and also to take her daughter, Bell, to Portland, in regard to her health.

For soreness of the muscles whether induced by violent exercise or injury, Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent. This liniment is also highly esteemed for the relief it affords in cases of rheumatism. Sold by all dealers.

MACKSBURG.

The nice weather is continuing and the farmers are making good use of it. Very few of them were in.

Mr. Frank Hilton and family visited relatives at Nedsy Sunday.

Mr. J. B. Mitts attended the dance at Molalla Friday evening.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the dance at Mr. Calahan's Saturday night. All report a good time.

Hazel Tallman worked for Mrs. Cummins a few weeks ago.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's Liniment wonderfully effective. One application will convince you of its merits. Try it. For sale by all dealers.

The entertainment given by Damascus Amateur Athletic Club on the evening of April 29th, was a complete success in every way, and all the club members felt fully repaid for the efforts they put forth to make it a time to be remembered.

The hall was packed, 400 people being present according to the door receipts.

The committee on amusements first presented a one and one-half (1½) hour comedy entitled "The Great Catastroph". Each character was faithfully represented.

Next was a glove contest followed by a wrestling bout which was enjoyed by the masculine part of the audience. A splendid recitation was rendered by O. Krotzsch.

Baskets of lunch brought by the ladies were then sold; this part of the evening is always enjoyed as much as the program when it is in the hands of Auctioneer A. W. Cooke.

His wit and funny stories never fail to keep the audience in good humor. He is the one auctioneer who can wheedle the dollars from the boys' purses and sends the poor fellows home broke; but it was for a good cause and the boys responded loyally.

After all the delicacies were eaten from the baskets, the floor was cleared and the young people danced for a couple of hours.

All the officials had their pockets full of money and after gathering it all together and turning it over to the treasurer, it was found to be the neat sum of $96.75.

People were present from Sunnyside, Stone, Clackamas, Logan, Eagle Creek, Boring, Sycamore, Sellwood and the correspondent noticed several from Seattle and Portland.

The club feels grateful to the people for their support. Its treasury contains enough money to pay all debts, but of course, there are lots of improvements to make both on the playground and in the club room, and it will need money to do this, but watch the Damascus items. An entertainment will be given most every month and you can't afford to miss them for if you want to spend a most enjoyable evening come to the entertainment given by the D. A. A. C.

D. A. A. C. hall team crossed bats with the Boring team and walked away with the long end of the score, 9 to 6; the game was well played, but Schmidt of the Clubs outpitched Henderson of Boring; Newell of the Clubs, made the corresponding noticed several from Seattle and Portland.

STONE.

This is the second day of May and finds us having a nice refreshing rain, which was badly needed.

Many of the residents of Stone are suffering or have been afflicted with the measles, and those not having suffered from the malady have been afflicted with a severe attack of the grippe or pneumonia. Mr. Carr's family are the last to be suffering with measles, and the members of his family are all getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Hugh S. Mount, of Oregon City.

The school will close here this week, making a six months term. From the present indications it has been a here from Portland, and who is interested in the well, says that where he came from cement is made and the hole is filled with this and will tend to keep the drill straight. If this is true it would be cheaper than blasting. Try it, write simply mentioning this statement.

The Clear Creek Creamery is one of the means of bringing the price of butter down to 24 cents per pound. Mr. Smith, the butter maker, could not prevent the price from decreasing.

D. W. Simmons will preach at the church on May 7. All are cordially invited to this service.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. It's the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25c at Harding Drug Co.

MOLALLA.

The much needed rain has redeemed Oregon again, "Oregon, beautiful Oregon."

"Road building" in fact is now the order of the season and the watch word should be don't grade more than you can gravel.

Yesterday Mr. McBride came out from Portland as far as the new Schatzman road grading and then stuck within two miles of his farm, and after trying out the auto had to return to Portland and try for the ranch on a dryer day.

The drilling machine can be heard day and night—pounding away at the artesian well on the McBride farm. Huntley Bros. Company are treating their drug store at Molalla to a new inside finish of "Beaver Board" something unique in building material, call in and examine it when in town.

W. W. Ebnath has begun on his new dwelling and treating his farm to a painting.

The farmers near Wilsonville are expecting big returns from the seed sown this year, as the crops look extra fine.

A jolly crowd of young people enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Peters on Saturday evening last, at their beautiful and commodious home near the river. Dancing, games and music were the features of the evening's pleasure, after which refreshments were served, and the merry-makers bade a reluctant "good-bye" in the wake of the wee small hours.

The last game of the W. A. C. was played with the Donald team on the Wilsonville diamond, and was a splendid game, resulting in another victory for our village team, the reckoning being 2 to 0 in favor of Wilsonville.

The Wilsonville batteries did splendid work, and the heavy hitting of Moore of the village team was one of the chief features of the game. Joe Thornton was pitcher for the village team, and covered himself with glory, making eighteen strike-outs. The pitcher from the Donald team was Fellers, who proved a close second to Thornton, making twelve strike-outs, and playing a fine game. The next game will be played against the Wenona Club of Portland, and is expected to be a dunder.

Henry Aden spent a couple of days at Brooks last week, buying a bank's stock of goods, which has been placed on sale and the store has been crowded with bargain seekers in consequence.

Those who attended the Hooper Day festivities at Oregon City, say it was the best ever. The Commercial Club of our county seat has certainly been working hard to better conditions for this county at large, and it would seem to be but a just token of appreciation, that when we farmer folk want to go outside of our own little village to do our trading, we should patronize the merchants at Oregon City, who are going down into their own pockets to help the county come to the front.

Ben Toose, who was reported as being seriously ill with scarlet fever, is quite well again, the attack having proven to be but a light case of scarlet rash.

Quite a number of village people attended the celebration at Champeong on Tuesday, May 2, despite the drizzling rain. The "Pomona" was crowded with the happy throng of pleasure-seekers, and the ship looked very gay
