

LARSEN & CO.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL Groceries, Produce and Commission

We Pay Cash For all Country Produce

DON'T FORGET US Store and Warehouse Cor. 10th and Main Sts.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Will Lindon, of Clarkes, was in Oregon City on Tuesday. Bayne Howard, of Mulino, was in Oregon City on Saturday. Mr. Weidner, of Beaver Creek, was in this city on Thursday. H. Howard and son, of Mulino, were in Oregon City on Friday. Louis Hoekner and wife, of Shubel, were in this city Monday. Fred Steiner, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City on Tuesday. E. D. Boyland, of Springwater, was in Oregon City on Thursday. Mr. DeVoll and daughter, of Eldorado, were in this city on Saturday. Thomas Davis, of Beaver Creek, was in this city on Saturday. Fred Moshberger, of Needy, was in this city on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Mosier, of Clarkes, were in Oregon City on Friday. Mortimer Cockrell, of Hubbard, was in this city on business Friday. Born, at Mountain View, to the wife of Robert McClintock, a son. Robert Gunther and son, of Shubel, were in Oregon City on Tuesday. Mr. Christian, of Graham, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. Jacob Grossmiller, of Shubel, was in this city on a business trip Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis, of Carus, were in Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Larkins, of Clarkes, was among the Oregon City visitors on Tuesday. Mr. Krissner and son, of Gresham. Mrs. Headman and son Henry, of Shubel, were in Oregon City Tuesday. Mrs. Kirk Casaday, of Carus, was visiting with friends in this city Friday. Mrs. E. B. Worthington, of Oswego, was in this city on Tuesday visiting friends. C. F. Silver, of Denver, Colo., was in Oregon City visiting friends on Thursday. Frank Irish, of this city, has gone to Carus, where he will do some work on his farm. J. L. Kruse, a prominent farmer of Wilsonville, was in this city on business Friday. Miss Isabel Gregory and F. Mayfield, of Highland, were in Oregon City on business Thursday. Miss Elvora (Glinther), of Colton, Wash., has arrived in Oregon City for a visit with relatives. F. W. Bittner, of Springwater, was in this city on Thursday, returning to his home on Friday. Thomas Davis, of Hazeldele, was among the farmers transacting business in this city on Friday. George Holman, one of the prominent farmers of Beaver Creek, was in this city on business Thursday. Gus Schuebel, a well-known farmer of Shubel, was among the Oregon City business visitors on Saturday. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Klappenberg, sixteenth and Division streets, an eight and one-half pound boy. Misses Eva Wash and Lill Schmidl, teachers of the West Oregon City school, will spend their vacations at home. Miss Hattie G. Brown, a teacher of the West Oregon City school, will spend the vacation with a sister in Portland. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Bob McClintock, who live on the old Mack's place near the graveyard, a nine-pound boy. A. Moshberger, one of the well-known farmers of Eldorado, was among the Oregon City business visitors on Saturday. County Superintendent of Schools Gary on Friday attended a convention of the school directors of Multnomah County at Gresham. Fred Voilman, of Highland, was in this city on Saturday, having come here to meet his wife, who has been visiting in Portland. Miss Pearl Baller, or the corps of teachers of the West Oregon City school, will go to Sherwood, Or., to spend the vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Mallatt and wife, of Tygh Valley, Oregon, were in Oregon City on Monday and Tuesday, registering at the Electric. Miss Lillie Miller, a teacher of the West Oregon City school, will spend the vacation with her parents in Pioneer Lincoln County, Or. B. A. Grisenthwaite, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City on Saturday. Mr. Grisenthwaite is one of the prominent farmers of that section. C. D. Ritter, one of Hubbard's prominent farmers, was in this city on Thursday, remaining until Friday. She was registered at the Electric Hotel. Miss Thera Draper, who has been teaching the Timber Grove near Mulino, has returned to this city to spend her vacation, her school having closed. Miss Hazel Fanton, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Smalley, went to Canby on Saturday, where they witnessed the horse races at the fair grounds.

Mrs. Casaday and mother, Mrs. Baker, of Carus, were in Oregon City, Monday. Mrs. Frank Jagger, of Carus, was in Oregon City on Sunday, visiting relatives. Frank Irish has returned from his farm, where he has been cultivating his garden. Mr. Guenther, wife and daughter, of Shubel, were in Oregon City on business Monday. R. S. Coe, a prominent strawberry grower, of Canby, was in this city on business Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schoenborn went to Shubel on Sunday where they spent the day with relatives. George Schuebel, wife and daughter, of Shubel, passed through Oregon City on Monday on their way to Portland. Miss Ana Aldredge left on Saturday evening for Canby, where she remained until Sunday with Miss Florence Wang. Mrs. Viola Godfrey left Saturday for Corvallis, where she will attend the annual convention and banquet of the Philadelphian Society to be held at the Julian Hotel. A. C. Christensen has just returned from a three weeks' stay at Colton, where he has been helping August Rakel in the construction of a house on his homestead. Miss Mand Mattley, of Oregon City, who teaches in the trade school at Portland, will spend the summer at her former home in one of the states in the Middle West. Among the persons going from this city to Canby to witness the races were H. Y. Miller, Edward Reckner, Judge Beattie, W. L. Mulvey, Judge Campbell, Henry Sallisbury, C. Schuebel, Lily Stipp and Frank Jagger. Born, to the wife of George Gardner, of John Adams street, an eight-pound son. Mrs. Gardner was formerly Miss Winnie Roske, and as this is the first grandchild in the William Gardner family there is great rejoicing today. Mrs. R. A. Gray, of Marquam, arrived in Oregon City on Monday morning, and is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Jack. Mrs. Gray accompanied her daughter, Miss Belle Gray, who spent Saturday and Sunday at her home at Marquam. Mrs. C. C. Williams and daughter, Miss Ella, who have been spending the winter at North Yakima, with the former's son, Wallace Williams, have returned to Oregon City and will spend the summer at their home, "The Firs" at Mount Pleasant. Israel Putnam, a former resident of Oregon City, and well-known here, arrived in Oregon City on Sunday from Eldorado, where he has a 160-acre claim. Mr. Putnam is erecting a beautiful eight-room bungalow, modern throughout with bath, built in book cases and reception hall. The building will be of one-story, with a large veranda fronting it. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pace and daughter, Pauline, who left here about two and one-half months ago for Fairfield, Iowa, where they took Mrs. Pace's mother's remains for burial, her old home, returned to Oregon City on Sunday evening. They were accompanied to Oregon City by Mrs. A. D. Bradford and daughter, Miss Allie Bradford, and Mrs. Reynolds, mother of Mrs. Pace, who will visit here during the summer. Mr. Pace came to Oregon three years ago from Iowa.

WIFE SAYS HUSBAND PREDICTED HER DEATH

IDA O. INMAN DECLARES HE TOLD CHILDREN SHE WOULD NOT LIVE LONG

MRS. INMAN ASKS FOR CUSTODY OF HER TWO CHILDREN, AGED 15 YEARS, AND IRENE, AGED 11 YEARS, AND ASKS TO BE ALLOWED TO RESUME HER MAIDEN NAME, IDA O. HILL. Mrs. Inman is represented by C. M. Idleman.

BIRTHS EXCEED DEATHS. State Board Gives Vital Statistics For Clackamas County.

January—Births, 22; deaths, 18; deaths from tuberculosis, 2; cases of diphtheria, 4; cases of scarlet fever, 2; cases of measles, 4. February—Births, 27; deaths, 13; cases of tuberculosis, 1; deaths from tuberculosis, 4; cases of measles, 5; deaths from influenza, 1. March—Births, 21; deaths, 24; deaths from tuberculosis, 3.

MARRIAGES. Mabel G. Hutchinson and George Roger Schuster were granted a marriage license Thursday. Susie Farrar and C. E. Hatch, of this city, were granted a marriage license on Friday by County Clerk Mulvey.

Lizelle Ulrich and William L. Robinson; Lena Streb and Charles Becker, were granted marriage licenses on Saturday by County Clerk Mulvey. The latter two were from Portland, and the latter from this city.

Licenses to marry were issued Monday to Rosa E. Pennington and O. H. Naef, and Mildred Helen Sanders and Charles O. Christensen.

The marriage of Miss Zella Adams and Clyde Engle, both of Molalla, was solemnized in this city Tuesday by Rev. S. A. Hayworth, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

There should be placed in every pig yard and pasture a box with salt, charcoal, air-slaked lime, bone meal and hardwood ashes, so the pigs can help themselves at will.

Stop in at Huntley Bros. Co. and get a free sample of ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP.

The surest and most economical treatment for eczema, pimples, dandruff and all diseases of the skin and scalp. Do not neglect this. They will give you prompt relief and put you on the road to a cure. Good for infants as well as grown persons.

TAKE THE HINT You can get the best that money can buy if you buy of our new stock of canned Table Fruits. They have the delicious, ripe flavor.

HARRIS' GROCERY Oregon City.

DANCE MANAGER ASKS ARREST OF BROTHER

EUGENE OGLE, OF MOLALLA, FINED $30 FOR CAUSING DISTURBANCE.

Eugene Ogle, a music teacher, of Molalla, was fined $30 and costs by Justice of the Peace Hanson, and a warrant has been sworn out for the arrest of Grant Mumpower, as the result of an altercation between the men at a dance Saturday night. They quarreled at the ice cream stand, and it is said that Ogle drew a pistol. Mumpower is said to have struck Ogle.

W. E. Mumpower, brother of Grant Mumpower, conducts the dancing pavilion, and he swore out the warrant for his brother's arrest. The place has always been an orderly one, and he declares that he intends to see that there is no further trouble. The charge against Grant Mumpower is assault and battery. He will probably have a hearing Thursday.

MOLALLA WINS CLOSE GAME FROM SHUBEL

GRANDSTAND IS ERECTED AND PLAYERS HAVE NATTY SUITS OF GRAY.

One of the most exciting baseball games of the season was played last Sunday on the Molalla diamond when the Molalla team played the Shubel team, the game resulting in a score of 7 to 5 in favor of Molalla. William Stokes, of this city, and Brenner pitched for Shubel, while W. Hart, of Oregon City, and J. James, of Marquam, were the batteries for Molalla. There were more than 300 persons in attendance. A grandstand has been erected, and there will be room for all. The Molalla team is one of the strongest in the county, and has already won five games out of eight, and expects to win many more before the close of the baseball season. The Molalla team has purchased gray suits at a cost of $75, and present a very neat appearance.

On next Sunday the Molalla team will play the Eagle Creek team on the Molalla diamond, and there is no doubt but this will draw a large crowd. A grandstand has been erected, and there will be room for all. The Molalla team is one of the strongest in the county, and has already won five games out of eight, and expects to win many more before the close of the baseball season. The Molalla team has purchased gray suits at a cost of $75, and present a very neat appearance.

MAYOR'S PET TERRIER IS KILLED BY AUTO

"BILLIE'S" WONDERFUL COURAGE COSTS HIM HIS LIFE, AS WAS FEARED.

The killing of his pet fox terrier "Billie," by an automobile Sunday, cast a shadow over the home of Mayor Brownell. The little dog lost its life, as the mayor had feared it would, through an exhibition of its wonderful courage. As John Risley, in his automobile, passed Mayor Brownell's home at Concord, the little animal bolted out of the yard, and with all its might hurled itself against the front of the machine. "Billie" was ground to death under the wheels, although Mr. Risley applied the brake and did everything possible to save the terrier.

The mayor got the pet about two years ago, and it was not long until every member of the household became attached to it. The dog's father is "Toy Fox," from the New York Kennels, and is owned by Frank Busch, from whom Mayor Brownell obtained "Billie."

WIFE GRANTED DIVORCE.

Ralph Howard is Labeled by Judge Who Tries Case. The divorce suit of Her E. Howard against Ralph Howard was tried in the Circuit Court Saturday. The plaintiff alleged cruel and inhuman treatment and after the evidence was taken the court granted plaintiff a decree and strongly lectured the defendant. Dimick & Dimick represented the plaintiff and C. Schuebel the defendant.

WILLIAMS' KIDNEY PILLS. Have you overworked your nervous system and caused trouble with your kidneys and bladder? Have you pains in joints, side, back and bladder? Have you a flabby appearance of the face, and under the eyes? A frequent desire to pass urine? If so, Williams' Kidney Pills will cure you—Druggist, Price 50c. Williams Mfg. Co., Props., Cleveland, O. For sale by Huntley Bros. and Jones Drug Co.

To dip the flock the first warm weather is good practice, as this spares the lambs. Any one of the carbolic dips is good. This poison destroys the tick and scab parasites by contact on the outside.

If the dam becomes heated the milk is injurious to the colt.

NOW IS THE BEST TIME of the year to have your teeth out and plate and bridge work done and here is the place to get the best painless work possible. Complete prices.

Wise Dental Co., Inc. Painless Dentists. Failing Building, Third and Washington PORTLAND, ORE. Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Sundays, 9 to 12.

CHARLES NOBLITT, PIONEER, IS DEAD

VETERAN OF INDIAN WAR WITH YOUNG WIFE CROSSSED PLAINS IN 1852.

3 SONS AND 2 DAUGHTERS SURVIVE Home For Many Years on Donation Claim Near Needy—Funeral to Be Held at Rock Creek Wednesday.

Charles Winston Noblitt, one of the earliest and most prominent Oregon pioneers, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. J. Moreland, Ninth and Main streets, on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, after a long illness.

Mr. Noblitt, who was known throughout the county and highly respected by all, was born in Green county, Virginia, November 14, 1822, and moved to Missouri in 1835. In 1845 Mr. Noblitt married Miss Catherine Sconce in Missouri, and in 1852 Mr. and Mrs. Noblitt came across the plains by ox team. They settled on a donation land claim near Needy, where they lived for many years. Mrs. Noblitt died on July 14, 1888, at the old home. Mr. Noblitt came to Oregon City on September 15, 1910, to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Moreland. Mr. Noblitt was a veteran of the Indian Wars, being a member of Eighth Cavalry, and served under Captain Kelley.

Mr. Noblitt leaves three sons and two daughters. They are John A. Noblitt, of Molalla; Charles A. Noblitt, of Needy; Walter Noblitt, of Needy; Mrs. M. J. Moreland, of Oregon City, and Mrs. J. B. Pender, of Lewiston, Idaho. All were at the bedside of their father when he died. Mr. Noblitt also leaves 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The funeral services will be conducted at the Rock Creek cemetery Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, and the interment will be in the Rock Creek cemetery, where his wife is buried. The remains will be taken from this city on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock.

STROKE ENDS LIFE OF R. J. GOODFELLOW

WELL-KNOWN RESIDENT FOUND UNCONSCIOUS BY B. F. LINN.

Robert J. Goodfellow, one of the well-known residents of this city, died at the family home Sunday, after a year's illness. Mr. Goodfellow, in company with B. F. Linn, of this city, left a few days ago for Willhoit Springs, where it was thought the change would be of benefit to the former's health. Mr. Goodfellow decided to take a short walk Saturday and was found by Mr. Linn in a semi-conscious condition. His wife and daughter were telephoned for in this city, and with Dr. Fox they hurried for the springs. Mr. Goodfellow was brought to this city, where he remained unconscious until he died. He suffered a partial stroke of paralysis. Mr. Goodfellow was born at Phelps, N. Y., October 29, 1855, and after remaining in that city until he was a young man, he moved to Dundalk, Canada, where he married Elizabeth Brinkham, in January 1, 1880. They came to this city in 1887.

The deceased is survived by a widowed daughter, Mrs. L. A. Morris, of this city, and a son, Joseph Goodfellow, of Bend.

The Artisans will meet at the Woodmen hall on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and march in a body to the home of Mr. Goodfellow, where they will attend the funeral services. The guards, who will be attired in white, will march with the Artisans.

COVE BANKER DIES OF HEART TROUBLE

JASPER G. STEVENS, MEMBER FIRST CLASS UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

PORTLAND, Or., June 1.—(Special.)—Jasper G. Stevens, one of the best-known residents of Oregon, died suddenly in his home, 783 Irving street, today, heart failure being the cause. Up to last night, save for a slight attack of tonsillitis, which caused him some inconvenience during the last few days, Mr. Stevens was apparently enjoying good health.

He was born at Silverton in 1857. In 1889, at Eugene, he was married to Minnie G. Shaw, who survives him. Two children also are left, William B. Stevens, a student at the University of Oregon, and a daughter, Jean Glen Stevens, living at home. The deceased leaves two sisters, Miss Nellie Stevens, a teacher in the Portland public schools, and Miss May Stevens, a teacher of music, and a brother, Earl Stevens, living at Sherwood.

Mr. Stevens was a member of the first class at the University of Oregon, entering the institution the day it was opened. There he studied pharmacy, and later for a period of 26 years he conducted a drug business and acted as Postmaster at Cove, Or. He was president of the State Bank of Cove, and of the Stockgrowers & Farmers' Bank at Wallula, and vice-president of the Union Bank at Union. For a quarter of a century he had been prominently identified with affairs in the Grand Ronde Valley. For five years prior to his death he had maintained a Portland home. Funeral arrangements have been deferred.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

W. H. Fisher, of Myrtle Point, Or., purchased the Poland China hogs formerly owned by Fred Nosier of Bridge.

MRS. LEE, PIONEER, DIES OF OPERATION

PROMINENT CANBY WOMAN CAME TO OREGON WITH PARENTS BY OX TEAM.

Mrs. Eda Lee, wife of H. A. Lee, of Canby, one of the prominent Oregon pioneers, and a resident of Canby, died at the family home Monday morning at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Lee underwent a serious surgical operation at the St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland, several weeks ago, and was thought to be recovering from the effects. She was removed to her home at Canby, where she was gaining her strength. Her death was a severe shock to her relatives and many friends.

Mrs. Lee was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tice, Oregon pioneers. She was born in Iowa, on July 19, 1842. In the spring of 1863, she started with her parents for Oregon across the plains by ox team, arriving in Portland on September 11 of the same year.

Miss Tice was married to H. A. Lee on April 9, 1867, and they made their home for several years on the Lee homestead. After residing there for many years they went to Canby. She was of a kind and loving disposition, and in illness or in trouble she always gave a helping hand.

Mrs. Lee is survived by her husband and eight children, Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson, of Canby; Mrs. H. C. Gilmore, of Canby; M. H. Lee, of Grand Ronde; Mrs. E. C. Shull, of Harbrook, Oregon; Mrs. L. D. Ewing, of Lyle, Wash.; Warren Lee, of Canby; Mrs. W. D. Rider, and Miss Ora Lee, both of Canby. Mrs. Lee also leaves an aged mother, Mrs. James Tice, and two brothers, William and Alex. Tice, of Canby, besides 18 grandchildren.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been made. The family is waiting for word from the sons, who are away from Canby, but it is probable that services will be held on Wednesday.

MRS. J. A. MOORE BURIED SUNDAY

CITY MOURNS DEATH OF PROMINENT WOMAN—FUNERAL AT CHURCH.

The funeral services of Mrs. Emma Moore, wife of J. A. Moore, who died at her home in this city on Friday morning after several months' illness, was held at the St. John's Catholic Church on Sunday at 12 o'clock, Father A. Hillebrand officiating. The interment was in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Moore was a highly esteemed woman, and had resided in this city for many years. She was a daughter of the late John S. McDonald and of Mrs. Emma McDonald, of this city. She was born in Salem on July 18, 1864, and came to Oregon City with her parents when a young girl. She was married about twenty-four years ago to J. A. Moore, and they have resided here since that time.

The deceased is survived by her husband and the following children: Carl, who recently arrived from Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Irene, Walter and Miss Alice Moore, of this city, besides her mother, Mrs. Emma McDonald, and two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Mills and Mrs. Leonard L. Pickens.

Mrs. Moore had a devoted member of the Catholic Church, and took an active part in church work until her recent illness. She was known by hundreds in the city, who sympathize with the family.

TURNEY FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

REMAINS OF FORMER OREGON CITY MAN BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL.

The funeral of John H. Turney, son of the late David Turney and Mrs. Rebecca Turney, of West Oregon City, was held in this city at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Baptist Church. Rev. S. A. Hayworth, officiating. Mr. Turney was a member of the Modern Woodmen and his order attended in a body and had charge of the services at the Mountain View cemetery. The remains were brought to this city from Oakland, Cal., and were taken to Holman's undertaking parlors, where they remained until the funeral services.

Mr. Turney was well known in this city and was familiarly called "Jack." He was in the photographing business for several years and had many friends here. From this city he moved to California with his wife and little daughter, Hazel, making their home at Oakland, where he was in business. He was born in Henry, Illinois, on August 3, 1871, and came to Oregon with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. David Turney, of this city, were his parents. He was married about 21 years ago. He left for California about six years ago.

Mr. Turney is survived by his wife and daughter, Hazel; three sisters, Mrs. Charles Hill, of Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. J. M. LaVerne, of Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Harvey, Farmer, of West Oregon City; five brothers, Lewis Turney, of Walla Walla, Wash.; David Turney, of Omaha, Neb.; Frank Turney, of Silverton, Oregon; R. H. Turney, of British Columbia; George Turney, of Oregon City, and his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Turney, of West Oregon City.

Kodak, for Instance.

The policy of any store is a matter of importance to every customer of that store. Some retailers buy always in the cheapest market. Our policy is to buy rather in the dependable market, to stock goods that we can hand with confidence to our customers. For instance: In the photographic line we cleave to the Kodak goods, because we are sure they are right.

Take the Folding Pocket Kodak

They are now and for years have been the leaders in the hand camera field. Kodak simplified photography and the folding Pockets simplified the Kodak. They stand for all that is best and simplest in picture making $10 to $20.

Brownie Cameras $1.00 to $12.00.

Burmeister & Andresen Oregon City Jewelers Suspension Bridge Corner

CIVIL WAR VETERAN SAYS WIFE IS CRUEL WIFE SAYS HUSBAND DENIED MARRIAGE

OLE PASTHRUM ACCUSES SPOUSE OF BEING UNKIND TO HIS CHILDREN. MRS. VEVA McDUTIN FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE, ALLEGING CRUELTY.

Ole L. Pasthrum is the plaintiff in a divorce suit filed in the office of the county clerk on Saturday, the defendant being Christina Pasthrum. They were married at Canby on April 17, 1911, but they had only met each other for the first time 10 days prior to their marriage. Pasthrum says he thought his fiancée was of a kind disposition and would make a dutiful wife, assisting in the care and support of his three minor children by a former wife.

Immediately after their marriage Pasthrum alleges his wife commenced to find fault with her surroundings, and tried to induce him to drive the children away from their home. She afterward threatened to leave and go to her former home at Rainey River, Canada, which place she had left on April 7, 1911, to come to Oregon.

Pasthrum says his wife has harassed him, and is endeavoring to compel him to pay her $800 as a consideration for leaving his home, and is committing other acts of cruelty for the purpose of compelling him to make a financial settlement.

Pasthrum was a Federal soldier in the Civil War, and is 69 years of age, and is receiving a pension of $12 a month. He is the owner of a 320-acre farm about one mile east of Aurora, and is the owner of a second mortgage for the sum of $650, which is on property located in Eastern Oregon. He is represented by Dimick & Dimick.

MRS. OLDHAM DIES SUDDENLY. Well-Known Woman Expires Soon After Retiring For Night. Mrs. B. Oldham, of Redland, who died at her home suddenly on Thursday, was taken to Goldendale, Wash., and the interment took place on Sunday. Mrs. Oldham had been ill with tuberculosis for some time, but her death was unexpected. She retired early Thursday evening and died at 12 o'clock. She is survived by her husband.

Raise the type of colt that sells best in your community. Select the sire and dam that will bring this type of a colt.

Straw Berry Short Cake

Baked in The "Caloric"

We unhesitatingly state that for pastry baking no stove equals the "Caloric." If you ever eat Strawberry Short Cake baked in the "Caloric," you'll never again care for it baked any other way.

This is only one illustration of the superior efficiency of the "Caloric" Fireless Cookstove. Meat, fish, game, poultry, practically all foods are rendered far more wholesome and delicious when baked or roasted in the "Caloric." All the fine flavor is retained; none is lost by evaporation as when the ordinary oven is employed.

The "Caloric" steams, stews, and boils just as efficiently as it bakes and roasts. It is guaranteed to do just as we claim for it or your money refunded. Satisfaction,—better cooked meals and a less expenditure for fuel—less time in the kitchen over a hot stove—more time for shopping, reading, sewing, etc. What better arguments can we offer you?

Come into our store and let us tell you more about this wonderful kitchen marvel. You will be amazed at the seemingly wonderful things it accomplishes.

Huntley Bros. Co. Oregon City, Ore.