MRS. RISSBERGER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

HARRINGTON AND SCRIBNER HUSBAND AND THREE CHILDREN SURVIVE—FUNERAL

SEXTON AT OSWEGO DIES.

YOUNG WIDOW DIES.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ORA BOLES TO BE HELD THIS MORNING.

WANTS, FOR SALE, ETC.

One of the largest gatherings at a funeral service in Clackamas county was that at the obsequies of Amos Harrington and Samuel Scriber, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Scriber, of Highland, who lost their lives by drowning at Highland. The double funeral service was conducted by Rev. S. A. Hayworth, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, and was held at the home of Mr. Harrington. The floral tributes were beautiful, and were sent from many sections of the county. The pallbearers for Mr. Harrington were old friends of his, and for the Scriber boy, former schoolmates. The services were held at 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning, and immediately after the services the remains of Mr. Harrington were taken to the Highland cemetery, and afterward the remains of the Scriber boy were taken to the Ringo cemetery, the burial taking place about 3 o'clock. There were more than one hundred carriages in line to both cemeteries.

Amos Harrington was born on the old homestead where he has resided all of his life. He is survived by a widow and two children, Maurice and Aletha, and a sister, Mrs. J. M. Heckart, of Molalla. He was a nephew of Edward Harrington, of Gladstone.

Samuel Scriber was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Scriber, of Highland, and his parents are heartbroken over his death. "Sammy," as he was familiarly called by all who knew him, was popular with his classmates as well as the other residents of Highland. In an effort to save this boy's life Mr. Harrington jumped into the water and both were drawn under logs which they had been standing on. Mr. Harrington's son's life had been saved by young Scriber, and as the latter was sinking, Mr. Harrington went to his rescue with the fatal result.

Great sale on all millinery goods. Miss C. Goldsmith.

The funeral services will be conducted on Friday morning at 9 o'clock from the St. John's Catholic church, and the interment will be in the Catholic cemetery, Father A. Hillebrand officiating.

Mrs. Rissberger was born March 26, 1868, in Switzerland and came to American in 1891. She was married that year in Marion county.

Andrew Fortner, who has been sexton at the cemetery at Oswego, died Friday, after an illness of several months duration. Fortner had been a resident of Oswego for many years, and was known by every person in that part of the county. The funeral will be held Sunday.
