NAVAL RESERVE IS PLANNED FOR CITY. MEETING CALLED FOR JUNE 20 TO ORGANIZE LOCAL DIVISION. CRUISE ON BOSTON PROBABILITY. Reserve Band Promised Often on Drill Nights—E. C. Dye is Placed in Charge of Arrangements. A cruise to Coos Bay and Puget Sound aboard the United States cruiser Boston with the Portland, Oregon, Divisions of the Naval Reserve is what is held out to the young men of Oregon City who feel the thrills of patriotism tingling through their veins. A meeting has been called for June 20 at 8 p. m., to be held in the Armory here for the purpose of discussing the situation of the Naval Reserve here. If there are forty men who will enlist a division will be formed here and supplies will be placed in the Armory for the use of the division. E. C. Dye, of Oregon City, who is an Assistant Quartermaster in the Portland Divisions, has been appointed to look up the situation here unofficially and see what can be done in the way of recruiting members for the division. Division To Be Equipped. Should the company be organized, the necessary equipment of rifles, field pieces, sabres, tents, etc., will be forthcoming. A launch from the Boston will be stationed at Oregon City, and all drills will be held in the Oregon National Guard Armory. It is planned to drill once a month with the Portland Divisions and the Oregon City Division would have the same privileges of an annual cruise and practical ship service as the Portland Divisions.

In the Portland Divisions are many men from the best walks of life. Mechanics of every kind and all others find it to their advantage to be in the service and it is to the men of Oregon City. The Boston will be the headquarters of all the Oregon Divisions when in port, and men will find the cruiser a congenial place to make their Portland rendezvous. Club life aboard the cruiser is one of the most interesting features of the organization. The fact is the social opportunities of the Reserve are exceedingly popular and justly so. Reserve Band To Play. The reserve band will play for the Oregon City Division on drill night when it can be so arranged. Oregon City will come in for the cruise if the division is organized in time. The Boston is the famous flagship of Admiral Dewey.

The call for volunteers in Oregon City asks that those interested send in their names to the Superintendent of the Commercial Club or to E. C. Dye at once, and to meet as requested at the time and place designated.
