115 COUPLES MARRIED IN OREGON CITY HOME

JUSTICE OF PEACE SAMSON'S DWELLING HOLDS RECORD FOR STATE.

The marriage Thursday at noon of Edith Emig and Solomon Glick by Justice of the Peace Samson, at the latter's home, 816 Main street, made the one hundred and fifteenth wedding ceremony that has been performed in the historic residence. Mr. Samson said that he had no doubt his home held the record in Oregon for the number of wedding ceremonies performed in it. The house is one of the oldest in the city and Generals Philip Sheridan and Joseph Hooker lived in it when stationed in Oregon before the Civil War. Mr. Samson has officiated at a great many more weddings, which have taken place in his office. Long before he became a justice of the peace his young friends often went to his home to be married, ministers and various civil officers performing the ceremonies. The lumber for the old home came from near Bath, Me and was brought around Cape Horn
