BANDIT CORNERED, FIRES ON POSSE

MAILCARRIER KIDNAPED, FORCED TO DRIVE HIGHWAY-MAN TO WOODS.

DESPERADO IS ESCAPED CONVICT

Deputy Sheriffs in Two Autos Pursue Fugitive Through Parts of Two Counties.

Corvallis last night, made his desperate coup when T. A. Nott, the town marshal, O. A. Wolverson, postmaster, and Huber drove after him in Huber's wagon as he was leaving town and attempted to push him under an east wall. When they overtook him at a brickyard, a mile out of town, he suddenly drew a gun and covered the trio. Directing Wolverson and Nott to get out of the vehicle and go back to town, he ordered Huber, on pain of instant death, to remain in his seat and drive.

Man Held Up on Way.

Then leaping into the seat beside the frightened mailcarrier, he whipped the horses into a gallop and dashed off down the road.

On the way the criminal stopped in his flight long enough to hold up G. T. Booth. This robbery took place two miles south of Bridgeport, according to advices just received. Booth was compelled to give up $18 in coin, his watch and a handkerchief. Ordering his victim to stand where he was or get shot, the desperado keeping him covered as long as he was in sight, made Huber drive ahead as fast as the horses could go.

Sheriff Grant, of Polk county, and Constable Moran, of Dallas, with one posse of 12 men, and Sheriff Geagly, of Corvallis, with another posse, heavily armed and well mounted, hurried to intercept the outlaw before he could reach the mountains.

Wanted Carrier For Hostage.

It is believed that he will endeavor to hold Huber as a hostage, and that if surrounded he will use his prisoner to shield himself from the bullets of the posse. Huber has a wife and family living in Monmouth.

In his flight the outlaw passed through one county into another, for Monmouth, where he captured the mailcarrier and his wagon, is in Polk and King's Valley, where he was last reported, is in Benton county.

The desperado is believed to be the same man who held up Guy Mahr to Lake county before returning. Mr. Graham is looking for a homestead.

Mr. Fellows, of Portland, is building a house east of Mr. Richardson's, which the family will occupy.

John Outfield sold two and one-half acres of land to a man who expects to build this summer.

About one hundred attended the strawberry social at the school house on Wednesday evening. It was the second social gathering given by the Community Club and has been a very successful way of getting better acquainted with the newcomers and to promote sociability among the older residents. An impromptu program consisted of a duet by Misses Anna Gardner and Esther Heathman; a recitation by Mr. Varney with a soft piano accompaniment by Miss Painlow was so well received Mr. Varney responded with a vocal solo, playing his own accompaniment. Mr. Greenwood furnished some music on the guitar. Little Ruby Warner recited "Little Orphan Annie" which pleased her listeners very much and Mrs. Alice Painlow giving the "inventor's wife," which was well received. Mr. P. D. Newell, one of the promoters of this business organization, spoke in regard to the aims of the club and its organization and what the club has been able to do, and was a pleasure to have the privilege of hearing the remarks of one who takes so much interest in the community's welfare. Strawberries and cream were then served in the south room.
