CHAUTAUQUA HAS ITS BANNER CROWD

OPENING DAY EXERCISES ARE ATTENDED BY TEN THOUSAND PERSONS.

TEACHERS WIN BIG BASEBALL GAME

Young Men's Christian Association Beats Chemawa Indians in Marathon—Yates and Maguire Lecture.

(BY STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

CHAUTAUQUA GROUNDS, GLADSTONE, July 4.—Never in its history has the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly had such crowds as attended Tuesday. During the rush hours there were at least 10,000 persons on the grounds. Up to about 6 o'clock in the evening there were 7,500 tickets sold to grown persons, not taking into account the hundreds of season tickets and the children under eight years of age.

All Monday night and Tuesday morning before the opening, teams were arriving, bringing campers to the grounds. There are more than 200 tents now up, and about 1,200 campers. The grounds, always beautiful, were never more so than today.

Early in the morning the crowds began to come and there was no let up all day. There would have been more if the car service had not been disabled for about two hours, causing many to go elsewhere for their celebration.

Teachers Beat Blackstones.

The event of the morning was the ball game between the Blackstones and Teachers. This game had been looked forward to with great enthusiasm by hundreds of persons ever since the Teachers threw down the gauntlet to the lawyers. The result of the game was 7 to 3 in favor of the Teachers.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Blackstones	Teachers
Sidney Johnston	Park Cather
William Stone	Charles Sievers
John Clark	Harry Hargreaves
Gilbert Hedges	Brenton Vedder
Harvey Cross	First Base
Clyde Mount	Calavan Second Base
O. D. Eby	T. J. Gary Third Base
Dr. T. J. Fox	F. J. Tooze
Rev. E. F. Zimmerman	N. W. Bowland
	Left Field
	John Sievers
	Right Field

The real star playing of the game was done by Park, Charles Sievers and Harry Hargreaves of the Teachers. There were many humorous incidents when one of the teachers was ruled out by the umpire and wanted to keep on running.

Eby Falls on Ball.

Then Eby started a laugh by falling in front of a ball and stopping it when he knew he could not catch it. The Blackstone pitcher William Stone, came in for a drubbing by the fans, for after the first inning his arm gave out and all a man had to do to make first was to wait and walk. Most of the players preferred to wait the ball, however, and all did not walk.

N. W. Bowland made a reputation as a bowler by catching a beautiful fly sent into the left field by Johnson. In the second inning Johnson made a run for the Blackstones. The Blackstones were strong on batting, but the Teachers proved to be a bit better.

The third inning Charles Sievers made a home run and Parks and Vedder both got in out of the rain. This gave ginger to the game, for all bets were off this inning were on the Blackstones whose rating as players suffered a serious blow.

The fourth opened quietly with batters walking. Gary stole second, third and then home. F. J. Tooze made a spectacular slide for third, but did not get home.

Eby of the Blackstones, however, had better luck and stole home on the Teachers.

The fifth opened promptly for the Teachers with men walking, but they were put out, the half closing with two men on bases. Dr. Fox played part of the half in the pitchers box. Sievers hit him for a clar to center field which was caught by Eby. Parks made a score. John Clark then took the box and Fox played short.

Clark Has Nifty Suit.

Clark looked youthful in white knee trousers and had the appearance of being a shark at the game, but the first man walked. The winners were not at all "cheery" over the result, but gave the Blackstones a rousing three times three.

By this time the crowds were seeking lunch and there was picnicking in every corner of the grounds. The Naval Reserve Band concert in the Tabernacle served to draw the crowds together again, although there had been no perceptible diminution in the number promenading the many walks. The band scored a hit with all.

The Grand Army of the Republic Drum Corps surrounded by hundreds of their comrades, occupied the platform and rendered a number of stirring selections. Of course they were greeted enthusiastically. What else could happen to them on the Fourth of July.

The Fourth of July exercises followed the band concert. Rose Block Bauer was in excellent voice and surpassed herself in her rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Coroner Fox to Resign; Will Move to Portland

DR. T. J. FOX.

Dr. T. J. Fox, coroner of Clackamas county, plans to move to Portland on July 5, where he will continue the practice of medicine. Although he regrets leaving Oregon City the opportunities in the metropolis are such that he feels it his duty to go there. He has connections in Portland which will be of advantage to him in his practice. Dr. Fox became coroner on January 1, and has made a capable official. He has many friends in the city and his decision to leave is regretted by all of them. The County Court will appoint his successor. Dr. Fox is considered one of the best physicians in the county and has a large practice.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK GROWS MORE POPULAR

DEPOSITS FIRST MONTH EXPECTED TO BE IN NEIGHBORHOOD OF $10,000.

The Oregon City Postal Savings Bank becomes more popular daily, and there are almost 100 depositors. The latter part of last week and the first of this one there was an average of ten depositors a day. Several men have reached the limit placed upon the total deposits, which is $500. Before depositing any more money they will have to withdraw what they have in the bank or purchase postal savings bonds. It is believed that the deposits will be much larger this week than last and the total for the first month will approach $10,000. A number of persons who have their money invested in postal orders will have them cashed and become postal saving bank depositors.

FATHER RETAINED AS CHILDREN'S TRUSTEE

JUDGE CAMPBELL REFUSES PLEA OF EX-WIFE TO OUST FRANK DOLAN.

Judge Campbell, in the Circuit Court Friday, refused to oust Frank Dolan, who was born and reared in Oregon City, as trustee of property owned by his three children, who are minors. The suit was brought by Mrs. Dolan, who three years ago was granted a divorce from her husband. She, also, is a trustee of the children.

Mrs. Dolan, through her attorney, J. A. Strawbridge, said that some of the property could be sold and reinvested to advantage, but Mr. Dolan objected to the sale. Judge Campbell granted a motion to partition the property. In rendering his decision the Court said that no blame could be attached to the father for allowing his two sons to go to work in order to support themselves and mother. He declared that boys who went to work early made better citizens and usually were more successful than those who had college educations.

The Dolans were married eighteen years ago, and have three children, John, Leo and Mildred. Mr. Dolan is a nephew of John Dolan, a pioneer who lived near Colton. The latter willed his nephew eighty acres of land, Mrs. Dolan twenty acres, and their children twenty acres each to be kept in trust until they became of age.

When the divorce was granted Mr. Dolan deeded his eighty acres to his wife and about $3,000 worth of property he owned in Portland.

Judge Campbell said that no evidence had been introduced showing that the defendant was not competent to act as trustee. The latter was represented by Cross & Hammond.

GOATS PAY OFF MORTGAGE.

W. M. Hardin, of Ames, Tells What Flock Has Done For Him.

"Goats have paid off the mortgage on one of my farms and have made a living for myself and family," said W. M. Hardin, of Ames, who was in the city Thursday. "I have found nothing that pays better than goats. They are also good for the farm."

Mr. Hardin has lived in this county twenty-nine years, and he remembers when land in his neighborhood which is now worth $50 an acre sold for $10. The new Mount Hood Railway is within two miles of his ranch. He said that the management had promised to start a regular passenger service by July 10. The farmers expect the road to add greatly to the value of their property.

OGLE MINE ONE OF WORLD'S RICHEST

GOLD, SILVER AND LEAD ORES ARE FOUND THROUGHOUT LEDGE.

DEVELOPMENT IS ALMOST FINISHED

Vast Mountain is Thought to Be Filled With Valuable Metals—Smelting Plant is Planned.

Thomas B. Fairclough, one of the directors of the Ogle Mountain Mining Company, who was in the city Thursday, declared that the development of the mine had advanced sufficiently to indicate that the entire mountain was rich in gold, silver, lead and other ores. He said that there was no doubt as to the richness of the ores, and that the development would soon reach a stage so actual mining could be started.

A tunnel paralleling the principal ledge of gold ore has been made from the bottom of the mountain to the center, and several lateral shafts piercing the ledge have been provided. In every one of these gold, silver, lead and other valuable ores have been found, which shows that the ledge extends across the mountain. There seems to be no end to the ore, and there is every reason to believe that the mine will prove one of the most profitable in the United States.

Ore was taken from the ledge at the top of the mountain many years ago and stored in a large bin. After being exposed to the air several years it was put through the stamping system and gave large gold yields. When the ore that had been stored in the bin was exhausted more was mined, but this did not prove so valuable, giving such a small yield that it did not pay to mine it. The mine was abandoned, but later it was found that the tellurium in the ore had prevented the gold and quicksilver used in the separating process from amalgamating. It was then decided to develop the mine thoroughly and install the smelting system, which would get all the gold and other metals out of the ore. The plant will be installed at the base of the mountain and the ore will be brought through the tunnel for smelting.

H. B. Miller and Mrs. Bessie Bauer go to Portland to Wed.

Mrs. Bessie Bauer and Harold B. Miller, both of this city, surprised their friends here on Wednesday by getting married. The ceremony was performed in Portland. Mr. Miller recently arrived in this city from St. Paul, Minn., and is assistant superintendent of the Oregon City Manufacturing Company. WORK OF CASING OIL WELL IS STARTED

PORTLAND EXPERT AND STOCK-HOLDERS TO MAKE EXAMINATION.

NO SERIOUS ACCIDENTS TO MAR DAY

W. A. Dimick, at Damascus, Tells of Country's Fight For Freedom and Growth—Heroes of '76 Lauded.

W. Mumpower, William Watts and Louis Vierhus, of Stone, were in this city on business Saturday. They are interested in the oil well at Stone, and are very much encouraged over the prospects of finding oil in a very short time. The men employed at the well work fourteen hours a day, and the drilling is at present suspended, owing to the installation of the casing. The indications are encouraging. D. M. Watson, an oil expert of Portland, will visit the oil well next week, at which time there will be some stockholders in the enterprise of this city, present. The well is located about six miles from this city on the Vierhus place and is near the Watt's place. During the past week there has been about $1,000 of stock taken in the company, not only by the persons living in that vicinity, but by the prominent residents of Oregon City. The stock taken by Oregon City residents amounts to more than $2,000.

NEW RECORD FOR BIG EGGS IS ESTABLISHED

MRS. LUCY EWALT OWNER OF SEVERAL REMARKABLE LAYERS.

Chicken experts of this city and county are marvelling at the eggs laid by several hens belonging to Mrs. Lucy Ewalt, who lives near Fisher's Mill on the Clackamas River. The eggs have two and sometimes three yolks and are more than twice as large as ordinary ones. Eggs with two yolks are not unusual, but it is something new for hens to rarely lay any other kind. Mrs. Ewalt sent five of the eggs to Dr. A. L. Beatie Friday and they are certainly curiosities. One measures seven and one-half inches by six and a half and the others are not much smaller. A dozen of the eggs weighed two pounds. The hens which made this remarkable record are Rhode Island Reds, but the reason for the large eggs remains a mystery. Mrs. Ewalt gives her chickens the best attention, and uses nothing but the best feed.

SAWDUST CASE IS POSTPONED.

Frank Davenport to Have Hearing on July 7.

The trial of the case of the State against Frank Davenport, owner of a sawmill at Ames, on a charge of throwing sawdust in Bull Run, was postponed in Justice of the Peace Samson's Court until July 7. Several residents of the neighborhood have complained that the sawdust in the stream was a nuisance and killed the fish. The case is being prosecuted by Recorder Stipp.

FOURTH OBSERVED BY GALA THROUNGS

PATRIOTISM THEME OF ORATORS AT MEETINGS THROUGHOUT COUNTY.

NO SERIOUS ACCIDENTS TO MAR DAY

W. A. Dimick, at Damascus, Tells of Country's Fight For Freedom and Growth—Heroes of '76 Lauded.

The Fourth of July was generally observed in Clackamas county. Everybody who could get away went somewhere and joined the merry throngs in the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of the nation. It certainly was a glorious Fourth, and if the large audiences imbibed any of the sage advice that was handed out by the numerous orators, patriotism is thrilling many hearts today. The weather was perfect for the celebrations, and there were no untoward incidents to mar the festivities.

Oregon City had a near safe and sane Fourth, and no accidents were reported. There was little disorder and fewer arrests were made than ordinarily. The celebrations at Canby, Estacada, Sandy, Damascus, Wright's Springs and Colton were largely attended and the exercises were impressive.

W. A. Dimick Speaks.

The Hon. Henry S. Westerbrook, of Portland, spoke at Canby, Grant B. Dimick spoke at Wright's Springs, Howard Brownell at Sandy and W. A. Dimick, at Damascus. The latter made one of the best addresses of the day.

There are about 100 acres of land in the tract, which is one of the finest farms in the county. It is the intention of the Howell Brothers to lay the farm off into five-acre tracts immediately. The land is well located, and lies on the proposed Molalla-Clackamas Southern Railroad and the Molalla road. Much of the farm is all under cultivation.

Waldo in writing of Miss Honey says: "I have heard Miss Honey and can heartily recommend her."

CLUB TO EXPLAIN HOW MONEY IS SPENT

MEETING OF SUBSCRIBERS TO PROMOTION FUND WILL BE CALLED.

The Board of Governors, of the Commercial Club, which has charge of the advertising work of the club, will in a few days call a meeting of the subscribers for early in July. The object of the meeting will be to inform the subscribers to the fund for advertising what has been accomplished with the money, and to receive suggestions for the work for the coming year. That many persons have been attracted to the county through the efforts of the publicity department of the club is proved daily by the callers at the new Promotion Building. It is also assumed that the establishment of the office on the street will greatly aid the work. Persons who did not know where the old office was located have no trouble in finding the new building. There are about fifty subscribers to the advertising fund, and it is expected that many more will subscribe the coming year.

BIG NURSERY TO BE STARTED IN COUNTY

HERBERT ROBBINS WILL GROW TREES FOR HOMES AND LARGE ORCHARDS.

He will grow Newtons, Spits, Jonathan, Grimes Golden, and in fact all standard varieties of apple trees. He also expects to grow cherry, pear and quince trees, and various varieties of berries. Mr. Robbins said that he eventually would have for sale everything for a home or commercial orchard. He has had a thorough training for nursery work, and expects to make a big success of the enterprise. He has a brother at Hood River, who is in the nursery business.

LIFE DEVOTED TO HUNT FOR MOTHER

YOUNG MAN ABANDONED WHEN BOY COMES TO OREGON CITY IN QUEST.

COURT RECORDS HERE EXAMINED

Occupation of Father and His Own Age Learned in Portland—Search to be Continued in North Dakota.

After making a futile search for his mother in this city and Portland, William Norris Noble, twenty-five years of age, left for Saries, North Dakota, Saturday morning to see if his foster parents can aid him in his quest. The young man has searched for his mother eight years, and it was only after he had been in Portland several days that he learned the names of his parents and the date of his birth. The story told by young Noble while he was searching the records in the Clackamas County Court house in an effort to find out when his parents were married, and if they had ever lived in this county, sounded like a chapter from fiction.

Boy Runs Away.

The boy was left at an orphan asylum in Chicago during the World's Fair in 1893 by his parents who, he thinks, soon after separated. He was adopted by a family named Nelson, of Saries, North Dakota, but soon ran away and has since taken care of himself. He drifted to Sothern California and found a friend in Mrs. May Adams, of Los Angeles. She has assisted him in his search for his mother, and any information concerning the young man and his parents should be sent to her. Her address is R. F. D. No. 3, Box 195.

While in Portland Noble located his father's sister and also found that he was born in that city on March 6, 1886. His father was William Henry Noble, a barber, but the document did not give his home address. The young man tried to find a marriage certificate, but was unsuccessful. He was likewise unsuccessful in finding the certificate in Oregon City. In searching the records of the Odd Fellows in Portland he found a man who said that the elder Noble had worked in a barber shop at 89 North Third street, and had lived in Fulton Park.

Friend of Father Found.

There is a clothing store now on the site of the shop, but in a nearby saloon Noble found a barber, who had known his father. Before the young man had made his errand known the stranger said:

"Why, you are young Noble. I would know you face anywhere. I knew your father well." The stranger could tell him nothing, however, of the present whereabouts of his parent, and neither could an old Portland barber, who formerly worked with his father help him out.

Noble feels certain that his mother has relatives in Portland or Oregon City, and is anxious to learn her maiden name to locate her or her people. He declared upon leaving Oregon City that he would devote the remainder of his life to trying to find his mother, or if she is dead, to learning who she was and if she has relatives living.

He made two three-baggers, and with three men on bases hit a two-bagger. The Price Bros. meet Aurora on the Chautauqua diamond at Gladstone Park today. COMMENCEMENT 1911

This is the glad, triumphant Commencement season when Sis graduates in a crêpe de meteor gown that sets Pa back farther than the whole four-years course has done. It is said things are getting so that the year Sis graduates Pa is compelled to forego any payment on the mortgage and, nine times out of ten, has to let his insurance lapse but this may be an extreme statement. Girls come high, all times.
