CLUB TO CONTINUE SOCIAL FEATURES GOVERNORS OF COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATION PUT BAN UPON PLAN TO SELL.

The Board of Governors of the Oregon City Commercial Club, at a meeting Friday decided unanimously to consider a proposition to sell the pamphlets connected with the social features of the organization, and sublease the rooms to a secret order. It was demonstrated that the social department of the club was one of its most important branches, and to discontinue it would probably mean the disrupting of the organization which has been of such great benefit to the city.

John Bichner, a pioneer of Oswego, seventy-one years of age, was severely beaten on the head with a club Tuesday in an altercation with Ann Moore, president and general manager of the Portland Cement Company, with offices in the Lumbermen's Building, Portland. Bichner came to this city, and had his wounds dressed by Dr. Mount. He declares that he will swear out a complaint against Moore. According to Bichner, who is one of the most respected men in the county, the attack was unprovoked.

2 HURT AS AUTO DIVES INTO RIVER

CAPITALIST AND WIFE VICTIMS OF ACCIDENT AT SUGAR LOAF MOUNTAIN.

Machine With Party Plunges 100 Feet Down Embankment - Physicians Hasten in Autos To Injured. DAUGHTER ESCAPES BY JUMPING

ROSEBURG Or., July 21.—While rounding a sharp curve on the Roseburg-Myrtle Point stage road, near the summit of Sugar Loaf Mountain, 50 miles west of Roseburg today, an automobile occupied by Al Creason, a Roseburg capitalist, his wife and 18-year-old daughter, plunged down the steep embankment and into the Coquille River, a distance of about 100 feet below.

Although seriously wounded, Mr. Creason succeeded in ascending the grade and reaching a telephone, where he told of what had occurred. Messages were immediately sent to Myrtle Point and automobiles carrying physicians were rushed to the scene of the accident.

After giving every assistance possible to the injured, Mr. Creason and his wife were rushed to Myrtle Point. According to a message received here from Myrtle Point shortly after 9 o'clock tonight, Mrs. Creason is seriously injured and the attending physicians entertain little hope of recovery. Mr. Creason is also suffering considerably from the effects of the accident, but will probably recover.

The daughter, who occupied the rear seat with her mother, jumped as the machine dived off the road and escaped without serious injury.

One of the largest gatherings in the history of the New Era camping meeting was present on Sunday. There were more than 500 persons attending beside the many campers. The program this year is even better than that of last year, many prominent speakers having been obtained, among them being A. Scott Hedges, of Kansas City, Mo.; Wallace R. Stroble, of Portland; Mrs. Etta Bledsoe, of Kansas City; Mrs. M. A. Congdon, president of the State Spiritualist Association; F. E. Dutton, of the University of Oregon; Professor C. J. Bennett, Ph. D., of the Education Department of University of Oregon; Hon. J. L. Dryden, A. M., of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Ladd Finnican, "The mother of the camp." Mrs. Finnican is a vocal soloist of Portland, who sang on the New Era camping platform in 1908 and 1909, has been engaged for this year's meeting.

Children's Day will be observed Thursday and a prize contest will be one of the features of the evening's entertainment.

GUSTAV ENGBRECHT SERIOUSLY INJURED

Gustav Engbrecht, the Oregon City dairyman, was seriously injured while driving to his home Monday afternoon. His wagon overturned on a grade and he was thrown out, his right arm being fractured near the elbow. Despite his injury Mr. Engbrecht assisted in righting his wagon, and then went to a surgeon and had the fracture reduced.

CUT ON HEAD WITH CUP, HE ASKS $1,000

Peter Theofaros has filed a suit against Constantine Karas in the Circuit Court through his attorney, Max G. Cohen, of Portland. Theofaros alleges that while at River Mills Clackamas county, on July 4, 1911, Karas, without cause, violently and maliciously assaulted him and beat and struck him several times and threw a coffee cup at him which struck him on the right side of the head, causing a scalp wound about one and three-fourth inches about four inches above the left eye. The plaintiff says he lost several days from work as a result of the wound. He asks $1,000 damages and $5 which was the amount of the physician's fee who attended him.

HUNDREDS FLEE BURNING FOREST

WIDE AREA IS DEVASTATED BY BLAZE FANNED BY WIND IN NORTHWEST.

Bridges Burned and Thousands of Lairs Damaged to Timber Has Resulted—Army of Men Fight Blaze. MILL CITY, Or., July 24.—Beyond control and sweeping with irresistible fury through the timber east of this city, fire today threatens nearly every logging camp and town in this vicinity. Already hundreds of persons have been forced to flee for their lives, one logging camp and several railway bridges have been burned and thousands of dollars' damage to timber and property in general has been done.

Fanned by a strong east wind, a small fire which had been kept under control at camp No. 5, on the Curtis Lumber Company's logging railroad, eight miles southeast of this city, suddenly started with renewed energy Sunday afternoon and in a few hours attained such proportions that the 140 persons in the camp were forced to flee for their lives.

Their escape was narrow, and while some took the trail to Gates, the others, among whom were many men with families, were brought to Mill City by the logging train. Though menaced on either side by the burning forests and by burning trees falling across the right of way the train made two trips to camp six before escape was cut off.

It is not believed any lives have been lost, though one man has not been reported. It is thought that he may have escaped by way of the Gates trail or taken refuge on a nearby ranch.

FINE CHICKENS ARE STOLEN. Mount Pleasant Residents Suffer Again From Night prowlers. Chicken thieves have again made their appearance at Mount Pleasant. The residents are on their guard, and if the intruders are caught they will be severely dealt with. Many prize chickens were stolen last winter and the thieves were never apprehended, but the people are now determined to capture them.

George Young, one of the prominent residents of Mount Pleasant, had gone to a great deal of expense in the spring and purchased eggs from blooded fowls, and had prided himself on having some of the finest young chickens in the county. After they had gone to roost a few nights ago, thieves visited the hen house and took 70 of the chickens. On Sunday afternoon, between 3 and 5 o'clock someone visited the poultry yard of Mr. Brown and took forty chickens.

William Rall, who owns five acres of land near Jennings Lodge, is purchasing it cleared and improved, with the expectation of erecting a bungalow in the near future. This is an ideal location for a home and is situated on the road, which has just been oiled. The work of clearing of the Rall place is being done by James Nicholls.

Death in Roaring Fire may not result from the work of firebugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the quickest, surest cure for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It subdues inflammation. It kills pain. It soothes and heals. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c at Jones Drug Co.

Girl's Father Sues Wolgast. CADILLAC, Mich., July 25.—Suit for $10,000 was today started against Ad Wolgast, the lightweight pugilistic champion, by the father of Florence Bush, a 15-year-old farmer girl. After the summons was served on him, Wolgast characterized the action as a holdup and declared the charge unfounded.

WIVES, SUING, SAY HUSBANDS ARE CRUEL

HESTER E. BROWN AVERS THAT SPOUSE THREATENED TO KILL HER.

Suit for divorce was instituted Saturday by Hester E. Brown against Cleveland C. Brown, to whom she was married at Oregon City August 12, 1908. They have one daughter, aged two years. Between September, 1908, and April, 1911, says Mrs. Brown, she was obliged to support herself and her child. She avers that Brown came home intoxicated and threw her across the room and threatened to take her life. George C. Brownell is her attorney.

Della M. Goetz has filed a divorce suit against Henry Goetz. They were married in Portland, Or., December 17, 1909, and she charges that he struck and beat her, deserting her May 1 of this year.

Arthur Schneider, a prominent farmer of Needy, who was recently granted a divorce from Annie L. Schneider, on Monday paid the latter's attorney, Gordon E. Hayes, $1,600 as decreed by court. Judge Hayes announced in court that he would not charge Mrs. Schneider a fee for looking after her interests. He immediately turned the money over to her. Mr. Schneider sued for a divorce on the ground that she went to places of amusement with neighbors to whom he objected. Mrs. Schneider, who is blind, contended that her husband treated her cruelly. The suit was compromised after several witnesses had testified. The parents are to alternate in having the custody of their children three months at a time.

While most people, at one time or another, experience what is known as "the blues," few realize that this despondent condition is occasioned by the poisoning of the system through the inability of an inactive liver to properly separate and throw off body poisons.

That the public might have a reliable remedy to assist in overcoming such a condition, Rexall Liver Salts have been put upon the market, and we unhesitatingly recommend them to you.

We will refund any money spent for Rexall Liver Salts if they fail to produce a beneficial treatment. In two sizes, 25c and 50c. Huntley Bros. Co.'s Pharmacy, The Rexall Drug Store.
