Office over Bank of Oregon City. CATTLE MARKET STEADY.

Cows and Heifers Bring Fancy Prices and Veal is in Demand.

The Portland Union Stock 'Yards Company reports as follows: Following are receipts of livestock on this market for the past week: Cattle 1557, calves 137, hogs 1885,

Although the week opened with a fair run of cattle, receipts have been very light since Tuesday and prices 4.00 remain steady to strong with best steers bringing $5.75, medium steers 13.44 $5.60, lighter and thinner stuff all the way from $4.75 to $5.25. Buyers are 35.40 anxious to secure good cattle as the demand for the past week has con-siderably exceeded the supply. Cows and heifers continue to bring fancy 28.50 prices for best qualities, best heifers selling from $4.60 to $5, cows $4.75. Very few calves on the market and good veal in demand, best light calves readily brought $7.35 on this week's readily brought $7.35 on this week's pear or answer said complaint, for market. Bulls and stags remain want thereof the plaintiff will apply steady at former quotations with very few offering.

That the demand for nogs is on the increase is evidenced by the fact of matrimony now existing between that buyers are making less distinc the plaintiff and defendant. This tion between rough hogs and the well summons is published by order of finished 175 to 225 pound porker that Hop. R. B. Beatle, Judge of the Counsided in said precinct 30 days prior has formerly commanded almost their ty Court, which order was made and hereto, would respectfully petition entire attention.
