Mr. Finucane had suffered recently from fainting spells, and persons who saw the accident said that he had evidently been seized with one of these when he jumped from the car. He was brought to this city, and died while being attended by Dr. Strick-land. The funeral will be held to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock at St. John's church, Father Hillebrand conducting the services.

Mr. Finucane was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Finucane and was highly esteemed. He fell from the rapidly-moving car near Parkplace and was hurled down the side of the embankment sustaining injuries to the hase of his skull and a fracture of his right leg. AGED PIONEER IS Hector B. Campbell, eighty-four ears of age, was found dead in bed Tuesday morning at the Spiritualist Campmeeting grounds at New Era. Mr. Campbell who was a pioneer, was apparently in good healtn when he retired Monday night. Coroner Wilson, after viewing the remains decided that Mr. Campbell had died of the infirmities of old age. He was born in Boston, Mass., but came to Oregon when a young man and took up a claim near the present site of Milwaukie. Mr. Campbell was one of the best known pedestrians in the state, and had walked over virtually all of it. Even after reaching an advanced age it was not an uncommon thing for him to take long strolls in the woods.
