UNIFORM MARRIAGE.
Leading prelates of all religious creeds, especially those of the episcopal church under the leadership of the venerable Bishop Doane of Albany N. Y., have long pleaded for the enactment of a uniform federal law regulating marriage and divorce.

It is a wise suggestion. Two years ago divorces were declared to be in the ratio of one to twelve marriages. Today they are estimated to be in the ratio of one in nine or ten marriages.

LINCOLN AS A PROPHET.
Abraham Lincoln, savior of the republic, emancipator of the slaves, director of the victorious army in one of the world's greatest wars, "the gentlest memory of our world," was the prophet of the great back to the farm movement of our day.

FARMER IS FAVORED.
The lot of the farmer of the United States is a happy one. Preliminary figures of the census bureau indicate that the value of farm properties in this country is about $40,000,000,000, or almost double the value of the same class of property ten years ago.

OUR ADMIRATION IS FOR TOGO.
The embattled fleets of Russia and Japan are formed in battle array in the Sea of Japan. The decks are cleared for action. A tense silence. The guns roar, the navies clash, the world is wrapt in the clouds of battle smoke, the air is pierced with the shrieks of the wounded and the dying, the sea is red with the life blood of the combatants.

CREMATION SLOWLY GAINING.
Cremation as we know it originated in 1866. After forty-five years of agitation there are today eighty crematoriums in Europe. Of these twenty-two are in Germany, seven in Switzerland, and thirty in Italy.

Commercial Club Chat
Among some of the recent exhibits brought to the Promotion Building is a hop vine thirty feet long grown by George Randall, of Central Point. Mr. Randall has twenty acres of hops this year and says he will have a fair crop.

WOMEN IN THE POLITICAL GAME.
The lady mayor of Hunnewell, Kansas, denies that she said that politics is no game for women. She is in the game, and proposes to stay and fight it out.

W. W. Quinn, of Canemah, one of the oldest pioneers in the state and the originator of the Queen's Perfection plum, has some of the fruit on exhibition at the Promotion Office.

George DeBok, the well-known gardener of Willamette, is making a specialty of growing cucumbers and has some of his best varieties on display at the Promotion Office.

Charles Ayer, of Fresno City, called at the Promotion Office Friday. He likes Clackamas county and will do all he can to get families to locate here.

Among the recent visitors at the Promotion Office were Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Teemster, of Visalia, Cal. They said that they were not very well pleased with Oregon until they reached the Willamette Valley, and that they like the section around Oregon City very much.

Mrs. J. C. Parker, who lives on Fourteenth street, has two large sunflowers at the Promotion Office. They are twelve feet in height and seven inches in diameter at the base.

The largest peach received at the Promotion Office was grown by William Jetzke, whose place is on the Clackamas River. Mr. Jetzke says that he has not as large a crop of peaches this year as usual, but the peaches are very large.

J. F. Hodze, of this city, grows chrysanthemum sunflowers with which to ornament his yard and finds them very satisfactory. Some of the flowers are on display at the Promotion Office.

Charles Hobbie, of Bolton, has on display Duchess of Oldenburg apples which are very large and attractive.

C. W. Swallow, of Maple Lane, has a fine display of apples at the Promotion Office. Mr. Swallow is one of the veteran fruit growers, and has always taken an interest in all exhibits of the county.

DIVORCE.
Answer to Samantha of Clackamas Wall Samantha, I've been thinkin'. On them-are things you writ, A sort o-coga-tatin', About divorce, a bit.

And its jest so with humans, When wimen git the say, And want to wear the trousers, Though never built that way.

And money for the lawyers, They'd starve to death, of course, If 'twasn't for the business That's brought 'em by divorce.

I've always thought, Samantha, The Catholics had it right, For they don't divorce, But let them scrap and fight.

And when the fit'n's over, They sue for peace, I guess, At least I've heard it sed, They jest go and confess.

And I'd up and run away With some other woman, ('Tis done most every day.)

Or sposen you should leave 'em, Goll darn it! What'd I do With the children and the cookin', The chores and my work, too?

Of course I couldn't stand it, 'Twould sartin make me ill; I'd have to find another, And that would mean a bill.

And I'd up and run away With some other woman, ('Tis done most every day.)

And I'd up and run away With some other woman, ('Tis done most every day.)

And I'd up and run away With some other woman, ('Tis done most every day.)

And I'd up and run away With some other woman, ('Tis done most every day.)

The Prime Objects
of every money earner should be to lay up something for the future; to reach middle life with something substantial to show for the labor of years; to have a home and prosperity.
Then the inevitable emergency, or declining years can be approached without flinching; trouble can be looked in the eye.
The world owes us all a living and more, too. The "more" represents what we put aside in a good bank where it may grow in safety.
Put your surplus in this bank. We have space on our ledger for YOUR account.
