

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS. Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the chain of life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

OLDEST PRINTER IN STATE DIES

EBENEZER WARNER, NINETY-THREE YEARS OF AGE, SUCCEUMBS AT MEDFORD.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

Well-Known Citizen Survives Wife Only Short Time—Family Came to Oregon City Many Years Ago.

Ebenezer Warner, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of this city, died Monday afternoon at Medford after a long illness. The remains will be brought to this city tomorrow morning for burial beside those of his wife, the late Louise Warner, who died in this city March 4 last.

Ebenezer Warner was born at Galpalla, O., April 12, 1818, and November 5, 1874, he and Miss Louise Barker, of Berlin, Wis., were married. After residing in that state for several years they moved to Nebraska, and from there to Oregon, first settling at Mist, Columbia county. After a residence of about two years there they decided to come to Oregon City. Mr. Warner left this city on August 15 for Medford, where he has been visiting his brother, L. B. Warner, it being his desire to remain until after the fruit season. He was taken ill about one week ago. His condition was not thought to be alarming, but he was taken to the hospital in that city, and his daughter, Mrs. George Ely, of this city, advised of his condition. She was preparing to leave for the bedside of her father when a message arrived stating that Mr. Warner had died and that the remains would be shipped to this city.

Mr. Warner was one of the oldest if not the oldest compositor in Oregon. He was highly educated, and although he reached the age of ninety-three years, he retained his mental faculties. He was not only a compositor but a writer as well, and many of his articles appeared in the newspapers of the state. It was Mr. Warner's custom when making a visit to the business section of the city to visit the printing office, where he had been employed years before, and those who were employed with him held the old gentleman in the highest esteem.

Mr. Warner is survived by two sons, Henry and Fred, of Michigan, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. George Ely, of this city. He also leaves one brother, L. B. Warner, of Medford, and several sisters in the East. The funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Holman undertaking parlors, Rev. J. R. Landsborough, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. The interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery.

VETERAN OF MEXICAN WAR DIES IN CANBY

Henry Lash, who had been a resident of Oregon for twenty years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Houghan, in Canby, Monday. The funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. C. L. Creesy being in charge. Interment was made in Zion cemetery. Mr. Lash was about eighty-eight years old.

The deceased was born in Licking county, Ohio, October 12, 1825. At the age of eleven years he moved to Illinois with his parents, but was an orphan one year later. He was a veteran of the Mexican war and received an honorable discharge at the close of the strife. He was the third child of a family of seven and the last one to die. He was married to Miss Lavina Lash, who died in 1891, nine children being born to them, two dying in infancy. Those living are National Lash, Mrs. C. F. Randolph and Miss Lillie Lash, of Danvers, Ill.; Oiled Lash, of Bloomington, Ill.; Charles Lash, of Yreka, Cal.; Mrs. J. K. Crawford, of Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. Mary Houghan, of Canby.

Mr. Lash had made his home with Mrs. Houghan, except when visiting with his other children.

BICHNERS SUED BY MOORE FOR $50,000

Amon Moore, president of the Portland Cement Company, which is building a $1,000,000 plant at Oswego, Wednesday filed suit against Joseph Bichner, a pioneer, and his son Henry, for $50,000 damages for alleged assault. Moore and the Bichners engaged in an altercation over the ownership of a strip of land where the company is building its plant. July 25, last the Bichners allege Moore was the aggressor, and the latter asserts that he was struck first. He avers that he climbed through a fence on the property when he was struck with a shovel by Henry Bichner, and that he would have been killed but for a heavy straw hat which he wore. He says he seized a piece of board to defend himself, but before he could use it the elder Bichner struck him with a club. The defendants declare that they struck Moore in self defense after he had attacked them.

Moore declares that he was permanently injured by a blow on the head; that he suffers from traumatic neurosis, which threatens to destroy his earning capacity. The plaintiff says that his earning capacity before the attack was $25,000 a year. The Bichners were arrested soon after the altercation, but were dismissed by a Justice of the Peace, and it is said Moore will try to have them indicted. They sued him for damages, through Attorney Brownell, soon after the fight, and also sued to have him ejected from the property in question.

HELD AS SLAYER OF MOTHER AND BABE

A. J. PENDER, RANCHER, ARRESTED AS SUSPECT IN WEHRMAN TRAGEDY.

PRISONER CALM WHEN QUESTIONED

Authorities Declare That He Got Mail Intended For Slain Woman—Man is Taken To Portland.

PORTLAND, Sept. 15.—Arrested at the Estacada section, is dead today as a result of his running to catch a train that he might keep an appointment with a physician in Portland. He had long suffered from heart trouble and the exertion was too much for him. He reached the Deep Creek Junction station on the O. W. P. just after the train he desired to board had gone, and there his body was found by a construction crew. Mr. Hand was sixty-five years of age.

Mr. Hand told Coroner Wilson that her husband was late when he started for the station and said he would have to hurry. The coroner thinks that the man went at a rapid gallop for one of his years, and the ailment for which he was seeking medical aid caused his death. The tracks made by him in the road indicated that he ran, and it is believed that an extra effort made by him to reach the station when he saw the train, caused his death. Dr. H. V. Adix, who was called by the coroner to make an examination, said death was due to heart trouble.

Mr. Hand expected to catch the train which left the Deep Creek Junction station at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. His wife told Coroner Wilson that it was almost that time when he left home, and he had about half a mile to go. The next train for Portland left the station at 10:30 o'clock, and had Mr. Hand waited for this he would have been too late for his appointment in Portland.

The funeral probably will be held at Gresham today. Mr. Hand is survived by only his wife.

ALL ESTIMATES OF HOP YIELD TOO HIGH

Every day's picking of hops in the Willamette Valley and in Washington proves more disappointing to growers as well as dealers. None is now estimating the local crop above 70,000 bales compared with 90,000 and even up to 95,000 estimated two weeks ago. The crop in Washington is coming down so much lighter than expected in the Western section that all are now estimating 20,000 bales for the state compared with a crop of 22,000 bales a year ago, and estimates of two weeks ago of 23,000 bales for 1911.

SEVERE WIND PUTS HOPPICKERS TO ROUT

Mrs. F. H. Cross and children, who have been at the Kyle hopyard at Aurora, have returned to their home and report an exciting experience with the big wind during the electric storm Monday night, in which their crops and shanty were blown away and one of the children, Carrie, twelve years old, had a narrow escape from death. The family were just sitting down to supper when the wind struck the hopyard close by, wrenching it from its foundation.

Mrs. Cross and the children, with the exception of Carrie, ran out to see what was causing the disturbance. No sooner had they got outside than their shanty was in the grip of the wind and had it not been for a fence upon which the ruins fell, in all probability Carrie Cross would have sustained serious injury if not death. As it was she escaped with but one scratch.

The wind played havoc with many other campers at the Kyle and adjoining yards. A hopyard and a barn, near by, were struck by lightning and burned. The path of the cyclone missed the Kyle hopyard entirely, but a large corral, adjoining, was completely destroyed. People living in Aurora knew nothing of the disturbance.

CASTORIA 'SHERIFF BOB' OFFERS FORTUNE FOR DIVORCE

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—An offer of $70,000 for a divorce is to be made by Robert Winthrop Chandler to his wife, Lina Cavalleri, the opera singer, it was reported yesterday. Sidney Harris, counsel for "Sheriff Bob" Chandler, is on his way to Paris, his friends say, carrying a check that it is believed will cause the diva to waive all claims on the Chandler income.

Cavalleri and her husband, who have been separated since the end of a honeymoon lasting only two weeks, want to settle their troubles, but each side distrusts the other.

Taft Starts on Long Trip Through West

BOSTON, Sept. 15.—President Taft left Boston tonight on his long speaking tour of 13,000 miles, which is to embrace 21 states and continue until November 1. His departure in the special train prepared for his party was signalled by an enthusiastic demonstration from several hundred persons gathered to bid him good-speed.

During the entire trip the train will carry superintendents, trainmasters and other operating officials on the various lines over which it moves and it is estimated that between 45,000 and 50,000 railroad men will be directly concerned in transporting the Presidential party.

SPRINT FOR TRAIN KILLS AGED MAN

W. E. HAND, WEALTHY FARMER, DIES WHILE ON WAY TO SEE PHYSICIAN.

BODY IS FOUND AT O. W. P. STATION

Victim Late When He Left Home And Coroner Wilson Thinks Exertion Caused Heart To Give Out.

W. E. Hand, a wealthy farmer of the Estacada section, is dead today as a result of his running to catch a train that he might keep an appointment with a physician in Portland. He had long suffered from heart trouble and the exertion was too much for him. He reached the Deep Creek Junction station on the O. W. BEVY OF BEAUTIES TO AD CONTESTANT

MILWAUKIE'S PRETTIEST GIRLS COMING HERE TO FIGHT FOR FAIR CANDIDATE.

The case of Nellie Wizenreid, a popular young woman of Milwaukie, against W. A. Thomas, proprietor of the Milwaukie Appeal, will be heard in Justice of the Peace Samson's court this afternoon. A change of venue was obtained from Justice of the Peace Kelso's court because of the popularity of the fair plaintiff, it being feared the defendant could not obtain a fair trial there.

Miss Wizenreid declares that she was the winner of first prize in a voting contest recently conducted by Mr. Thomas, but he refused to recognize her as such and insisted upon giving her second prize. The first prize was a free trip to San Francisco for the winner and a companion and the second prize was a free trip of the Astoria Centennial. The plaintiff asserts that the San Francisco trip for herself and friend will cost $150, and she is suing for this amount. She avers that she obtained subscriptions amounting to $200 for the paper. Mr. Thomas denies this.

Virtually the entire population of Milwaukie is interested in the suit, and the trial is expected to attract as large a crowd as a "Booster Day" celebration in the first capital of the state. Many of Milwaukie's fairest young women are expected to take the stand for Miss Wizenreid, and Mr. Thomas realizes that his defense will have to be strong.

It is said that the judges of the contest changed their decision, first deciding in favor of the young woman who took the trip to San Francisco and subsequently in favor of Miss Wizenreid.

SECRETARY OF INTERIOR WILL COME TO OREGON.

PORTLAND, Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Walter L. Fisher, Secretary of the Interior, will be in Oregon within the next few months to make an inspection of the Umatilla irrigation project and to consider other subjects over which he has jurisdiction. He gave promise of making such a trip to A. A. Morse, special representative of the traffic department of the O. W. R. & N. Company, who went to Boise last week to confer with him.

Mr. Fisher told Mr. Morse that he had included Umatilla in his original itinerary but that his delay in Alaska compelled him to forego his visit there on his present trip. Acting on instructions from R. B. Miller, traffic manager, Mr. Morse urged Mr. Fisher to retrace his steps and inspect the Oregon territory regardless of his other plans, but the secretary impressed upon him that the forthcoming session of Congress and other business made it necessary for him to hasten to Washington.

OREGON CITY FOLK TO ATTEND GRESHAM FAIR

Arrangements are being made by O. E. Freytag, to have a special car leave this city tomorrow to attend the fair at Gresham. This is Multnomah county's fair. Last year this fair was held about the same time as that of Clackamas county fair, and many persons of this city were unable to attend. If the required number can be obtained a car will be chartered for the trip. Multnomah county always has had exceptionally good fairs, and the one this year promises to eclipse all others. The car will probably leave this city in the forenoon and arrive in time for dinner.

BEAVERS TAKE CLOSE GAME FROM OAKLAND

PORTLAND, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—How those Portland boys are playing! As Sam Jones—not Billy Sunday, both are big leaguers in their profession—used to say, the Beavers are copping the games through stick-attiveness. When they went to bat today in the ninth inning the game stood 2 to 0 in favor of Oakland. The Beavers hammered out two runs in the ninth and got the winning one in the tenth. Harkness pitched for Portland and Ables twirled for Oakland.

SPORTSMEN MUST GET STATE LICENSES

Hunting or fishing upon receipts furnished by notaries and justices of the peace will not be allowed in the future, according to instructions just issued by State Board of fish and game Commissioners. Deputies all over the state have been told to arrest any hunter or fisherman who fails to show a regular fish or hunting license in his possession, upon demand. The holder of a receipt will be treated in every way the same as though he had never made application for a license.

"We have a fairly complete record of Notaries and Justices who have retained money belonging to the game fund," said Warden Finley, "and they are located all over the state. These men have actually accepted money for licenses and made no returns of it, nor have they secured licenses for those who have made application. By arresting those holding money receipts for licenses, we will shortly run down those who have been guilty of this fraud."

It is provided by law that any justice of the peace or notary in the state may receive money for the county clerk on application for hunting or fishing licenses, and the game warden has no disposition to place an obstacle in the way of hunters to thus easily secure their rights.

HATCHERY PLANNED FOR KLAMATH FALLS

Henry O'Malley, of the United States Board of Fisheries, has gone to Klamath Falls to look for a site for a government hatchery. He will confer with Charles P. Stone, State Fish and Game Commissioner, who has located a hatchery for the state at Klamath Falls. That section of the state is noted for its fish, especially rainbow trout, and it is the intention of Mr. O'Malley to see that all the creeks and other streams are stocked with the best fish. It is planned to equip the state hatchery at Klamath Falls as soon as possible, and the one to be located there by the government will be pushed to completion.

CANBY DRENCHED; TREE IS SHIVERED

The streets of Canby were inundated by rain which accompanied a thunder storm Saturday morning. The rain fell in torrents for more than three hours, and was the heaviest downpour the city has had for several years. Coroner Wilson, who was in Canby on business, says the streets were flooded, and the water was an inch or more deep on the sidewalks at one time. A big tree near Ad Fish sawmill was shivered by a lightning stroke, and the thunder at times was almost deafening. Only a slight damage to crops is reported.
