BABY BROTHERS, LOST, DIE IN CREEK

ALL NIGHT SEARCH BY PARENTS AND FRIENDS RESULTS IN FINDING BODIES.

MOTHER IS PROSTRATED BY NEWS

Sons of Frank Helvey, Who Lives Near Canby, Wander From Home—Parents at Head of Searching Party.

The bodies of Harold, four years old, and Frank Helvey, two years old, sons of George Helvey, a farmer living near Canby who wandered from home Thursday afternoon were found Friday afternoon in Milk Creek. It is believed that they were drowned early Thursday evening. When told that her babies were dead Mrs. Helvey who had searched all night with several neighbors swooned, and her condition is serious. It is thought that the children lost their way in the woods, and tried to wade the creek in an effort to find their home. Joseph Lutzen and Herman Wilson, who joined the searching party Thursday night, found the bodies in the creek one mile from the Helvey home. Frank's body was found first and about twenty yards further down the creek that of the other boy was discovered in drift wood. They were taken to the Helvey home and Coroner Wilson, of this city, was notified. He will make an examination this morning, and in the afternoon the bodies will be taken to Mount Angel, where Mrs. Helvey lived before her marriage, for burial at 5 o'clock.

The children were the youngest members of Mr. and Mrs. Helvey, who were idolized by their parents. They were barefoot when they left their home, and it is believed that it was their intention to go to the creek to wade. They had been gone only a short time when Mrs. Helvey missed them, and gave an alarm. A party of at least twenty men and women searched the woods all night and Friday. Tracks made by the children, which indicated that they had lost their way, were found early Friday, and they were finally traced to the creek. It is believed that they tried to cross the creek together, and perished at the same time.

Mrs. Helvey, when she missed the children, went to Adkins' mill, near their home, where they frequently played. She was told, however, that they had not been there during the afternoon. At her request a searching party was formed immediately with her and her husband in charge. After hunting for several hours Mrs. Helvey became exhausted and was forced to go to her home, leaving her husband in charge. Reports were made to her frequently during the night, and when the tracks leading to the creek were found, Friday morning she abandoned hope that her children would be found alive.

The brothers were inseparable, and in their rambles through the woods Harold always held the younger lad's hand. They knew the neighborhood pretty well, and it is supposed they remained out longer than they intended and became lost after dark.

BABIES FELL FROM BLUFF INTO CREEK

Coroner Wilson, who went to Canby Saturday to investigate the deaths of Harold and Frank Helvey, the little sons of George Helvey, who wandered from home and were drowned in Milk Creek, said that he was confident the children died at the same time.

"I think the children lost their way," said the coroner, "and while trying to find their home fell into the creek. It is believed they were walking along, hand-in-hand, as was their wont, when they tumbled off a bluff into the stream. The water at the place where it is thought they drowned is seven feet deep."

The bodies were taken to Mount Angel, Mrs. Helvey's former home, and the funeral will be held at 9 o'clock this morning. Dr. Dedman made an examination of the bodies for the coroner.

WIFE FREES MAN SHE SAID THREATENED HER

Pls of his wife, who had been instrumental in having him arrested, won J. C. Salsbury his freedom in Justice of the Peace Samson's court Saturday. After Salsbury had been arrested by Policeman Green on a charge of drunkenness his wife swore to a complaint that he had threatened to kill her. She said that he carried a knife concealed in his sleeve. After Mrs. Salsbury had withdrawn her charge she asked that her husband be freed, but Mr. Samson declined to do this until the costs had been paid. The money was furnished by a friend, and the justice, upon releasing Salsbury gave him a good lecture and informed him that he would be dealt with severely if he became intoxicated again.

FALL OPENING

Big Showing of the New Fall Garments

WE cannot recall the time when our announcement of the first showing of the new season's garments has given us such genuine pleasure.

In such points as correct style, high quality of workmanship, desirable models, snappy creations, perfect fit and full, complete values, we are abundantly able to please you. Fortunately for us, and for you, these garments all carry this label:

"The Palmer Garment."

For many years the reputation enjoyed by this line has not been equaled, and this reputation, secured through merit only, is guarded jealously. The garments are made in the best possible manner. Not only do the garments excel in style and fit, but they render the service so much desired.

We most cordially invite you to attend this opening exhibition of the new fall styles. And we want you to understand that the prime motive of this event is to show the goods—to have you come, inspect critically and pass your judgment. You are sure to be delighted with the beautiful showing that is ready for you.

HIGH SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY MORNING

Owing to a defect in the plumbing of the new high school, it was decided Tuesday evening by President Harding of the Board of School Directors and Superintendent of Schools Toose not to open the high school until Monday. It had been planned to open the school today. The plumbing will be given attention at once, and everything will be in readiness for the opening Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The attendance at the grade schools was largely augmented Tuesday, and the classification and other preliminary work was about completed. Superintendent Toose expects to obtain a complete list of the pupils today, and all other necessary information regarding the schools.

WORK OFFERED GIRLS SEEKING EDUCATIONS

Superintendent of City Schools Toose announced Friday evening that he could arrange for the employment of a large number of girls, who live in the country, but desire to attend the city schools and make their way while obtaining an education. It is planned for the prospective employers to furnish rooms and board in payment for the work done by the school girls. Superintendent Toose also announced that a boy had asked him to find him employment here so he could make his way while attending school. The superintendent urges all persons who desire help of this character to notify him, as there are many boys and girls in the county, who will be unable to obtain educations unless they can provide for themselves while attending school.

NOTED TEACHERS WILL SPEAK AT INSTITUTE

Superintendent of County Schools Gary announced Monday that Miss Montana Hastings, of the University of Oregon, and recently of Columbia University, New York; Edward S. Sisson, recently of the University of Washington, and now head of the Department of Education of Reed Institute, Portland; J. H. Ackerman, president Monmouth Normal School; L. R. Alderman, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Miss Maud Laughhead, of Albany; Helen T. Kennedy, of the State Library Commission, and representative of the Oregon Agricultural College were among the speakers at the Clackamas County Institute to be held in this city October 2, 3 and 4. Mr. Gary expects to complete the program in a few days and copies will be mailed to all the teachers. The law makes it compulsory that they attend the institute. Dr. S. Calvin White, of the State Health Department is expected to give a lecture illustrated with stereopticon slides.

PAPKIES GO FREE ON THREAT CHARGE

Justice of the Peace Samson Tuesday dismissed the case against Frank Cyclic and Carl, Herman and Henry Papkie, who Charles Hinze charged threatened to kill him at Mount Pleasant, August 31. All the defendants and several witnesses testified that the charge was untrue, while the testimony of Mr. Hinze was only substantiated by that of his wife. Gordon E. Hayes, who represented the defendants, called attention to the fact that Miss Anna Papkie, daughter of Carl Papkie, had filed suit for $50,000 for alleged defamation of character against Mr. Hinze in Portland. One of the defendants will be a witness in that case, and Judge Hayes said if he were held over to the Grand Jury it would prejudice the jury against him in the damage suit. Justice Samson said the evidence was not sufficient to hold the defendants.

EDITOR IS SUED BY FAIR CONTESTANT

Miss Nellis Winzenreid has filed suit for $150 in Justice of the Peace Samson's court against S. A. Thomas, proprietor of the Milwaukie Appeal. She alleges that she was the winner of first prize in a contest conducted by Mr. Thomas, but he refused to let her have the award. Miss Winzenreid says that Mr. Thomas started the contest in June, and agreed to give the girl obtaining the largest number of votes a trip to San Francisco for herself and companion. The plaintiff avers that she obtained $200 in subscriptions for the paper, and that the trip to San Francisco would cost $150. In his answer Mr. Thomas asserts that the plaintiff only obtained $133 for subscriptions and won second prize, which was a trip to the centennial at Astoria. He says he has repeatedly offered her the money necessary for the trip but she refuses to accept it. It is alleged that the judges of the contest first decided one girl was the winner of first prize and later decided in favor of Miss Winzenreid.

TAXPAYERS URGED TO SETTLE PROMPTLY

Sheriff Mass announced Tuesday that a record had been made for the payment of taxes due for the last half of the year. It is believed that there will be fewer delinquents than ever before. All persons who pay taxes prior to March 15 are given a rebate of three per cent. Those who do not take advantage of the rebate may pay half of their taxes prior to the first Monday in April and the other half prior to the first Monday in October and escape paying a penalty. It, therefore, behooves all property owners to settle with the sheriff as soon as possible.

HAIR THAT FASCINATES.

Who Wants Lustrous Hair Full of Life and Beauty?
Start now madam, September is just the month to begin to acquire a glorious head of hair of which you will be justly proud during the social events of winter time.
If you haven't used PARISIAN SAGE you aren't on the high road to hair beauty. PARISIAN SAGE is the most delightful preparation that destroys the dandruff germs and by so doing removes in a short time the cause of dandruff, falling hair, itching scalp, faded and lifeless hair.
Dandruff germs are obstructionists; they prevent the hair from receiving its proper nourishment by ravenously devouring the same nourishment. Use PARISIAN SAGE for one week and note the wonderful improvement. Huntley Bros. Co. guarantees it, 50 cents a bottle.

MRS. CARLEY TO SPEAK AT STATE COLLEGE

Mrs. George Carley, of Portland, who has been connected with the Sunset Magazine, and who has been attending the Oregon State fair, having had headquarters in the Clackamas county booth, has arrived in this city, and will remain here for the present, to represent the Farmers' Society of Equity and the Consumers' League, G. W. H. Miller, of this city, being the district organizer. Mrs. Carley has been invited to make an address at the Agricultural College in the near future, her subject to be, "How to Grow Two Dollars, Where One Grew Before." She will also talk at the Clarke County fair, Wash., which will be held this month.

Mrs. Carley will give two lectures in this city at the Shively opera house, the dates of which will be September 24 and 25, the subject for her first lecture to be, "Immortality, Brotherhood and Nature and World-wide Peace," and the second, "Why Portland is Going to be the Most Powerful City in the World." No admission will be charged for the first lecture, but a small admission will be charged for the last one to pay for the theatre.

The lecturer is the daughter of Mrs. Eliza Seward, sister of Chester A. Arthur, former President of the United States. Mrs. Seward's home being in Nebraska. Mrs. Carley, during her stay in the Clackamas county booth at the State Fair interested many of the visitors in the resources of this county.

MRS. OGLE VICTOR IN WEISMANDEL CASE

County Judge Beattie Wednesday refused to set aside the will of William Philip Weismandel, a prominent man of this city, who left the greater part of his property to Mrs. Ola M. Ogle, of Canby. The will was contested by Mrs. Nellie Lyons, Mrs. Rosa Howard, and Mrs. Emma Phillips, sisters of the testator, and his mother, Mrs. Sophia Weismandel. It was alleged that Weismandel, when a youth, was forced to leave home by his father, and that he lived for a number of years with the Ogle family. He died February 11, 1911, at the home of his mother. The will, which was executed December 19, 1910, named Mrs. Ogle as administratrix. Judge Beattie held that the evidence did not show the testator to be of unsound mind or that he had been unduly influenced. J. E. Hodges represented Mrs. Ogle.
