Never Out of Work.

The busiest little things ever made are Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, languor into energy, brain-fog into mental power; curing Constipation, Headache, Chills, Dyspepsia, Malaria. Only 25c at Jones Drug Co.

STAFFORD.

We are blessed with our share of sunshine and showers in this part of the world. The sunshine is very welcome but the showers help to crack the prunes before people can get them all dried as there is no sale for them in the towns, fresh from the tree, owing to the high price of sugar.

Mr. Weddle has rented the middle field of Mr. Gage and intends putting it into fall grain.

Mr. Thomas's son, Elmer, is being benefited by the medical baths in Portland, he thinks. He is a young man but suffering from muscular rheumatism.

On last Thursday Mrs. Powell received word by mail that her sister, living near Independence, was very low with quick consumption, or tuberculosis, and wished to see them and her little boy, whom they have cared for from infancy. They went on the morning train and arranged means were made to take the suffering woman to the hospital in Salem. A doctor friend of her mother's family offered to take her in his big touring car and make the journey of twenty miles as easy for her as possible, and leaving her in good hands they returned home on Sunday night, being detained on the road by a wreck. An engine of a train ahead of them broke down, but no one hurt.

Mr. Lucas has a friend from Washington visiting him for a few days and looking over the country.

A number of our boys and girls finished the ninth grade last year, and would be glad to take the tenth this year, but our school only takes them through the lower grades. Therefore, like thousands of other country boys and girls, we see them turned out as it were, gathering pebbles by the seashore, while the ocean lay unknown.

Unwisely

Sores, boils, eruptions, pimples, blackheads and all skin affections are very quickly cured by the use of Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve. 25c sold everywhere. Geo. A. Harding, Druggist.

BARLOW.

Barlow is the proud possessor, for the third time, of first premium at the county fair. The premium won is twenty dollars in cash and a plow. The committee in charge wishes to thank the many friends for their kind assistance in bringing Barlow to the front. A number of premiums were also won by individuals and we are also proud of owning the finest baby, who is Stanley Gilbertson, age five months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gilbertson, who won first prize. Mrs. Quint received first premium for a collection of hand made handkerchiefs. Mrs. Kinsey, sister of Mrs. Tull, won first premium on three different articles of hatterberg. Grandma Auerle first in hand made rugs and Mrs. Irwin won blue ribbon on best collection of roses. There were no doubt many premiums won by our citizens, but as I have no list I cannot give the names. Uncle Harry's snake cucumber; Mrs. Jesse's black potatoes and Mrs. Berg's pig full of wine were a source of attraction.

Miss Bessie Sheppard, of Portland, was visiting relatives and friends here Friday and Saturday of last week.

Is a mystery when Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure any cough. Look for the bell on the bottle. It marks the genuine. Geo. A. Harding, Druggist.

PLOWS

BUILT LIKE THIS LAST & GIVE SATISFACTION WHILE THEY LAST

THIS ad illustrates one strong reason for the popularity of the J. I. Case Plow. Note how well re-inforced this J. I. Case Walking Plow is, just at the points where reinforcement is needed. The J. I. Case solid steel frog securely binds the share, mouldboard, landside and beam together making a rigid frame. The point of the share is reinforced by a piece of high-grade solid steel giving this part of the plow great durability. These are only a few of the many reasons which cause farmers everywhere to say:

J. I. CASE PLOWS ARE GOOD PLOWS

Our J. I. Case Sulkies, Gangs and Walking Plows have valuable features which appeal to the intelligent and pocket book of every discriminating farmer. A request from you will bring our BIG ILLUSTRATED CASE CATALOGUE. Mention this paper.

The MCCASKEY SYSTEM

The One Writing Method of handling accounts.

With each purchase, our customer receives a sale slip showing the goods purchased, the price of each article and the balance previously owed—all added up. With the McCaskey System YOU ALWAYS KNOW WHAT YOU OWE.

Your account cannot grow over sight. You always have the opportunity of checking each item from your sale slip to see that everything has been delivered and that the price of every item is correct.

We furnish a slipholder to each customer. File the slip in this holder, the last slip at a glance will tell you what you owe. By preserving these slips you will have the same record of your account as we.

AND IN THE SAME HAND WRITING

We shall be glad to explain the McCaskey System to you.
