TWO TEACHERS NAMED FOR CITY SCHOOLS

Miss Edith A. Baker, of Eugene, has been elected a member of the faculty of the Oregon City high school and will start work at once. Miss Baker arrived here Thursday morning. She will assist in the language department. Miss Baker is a graduate of the June, 1911, class of the University of Oregon and Professor Schaefer, of that institution, waxed enthusiastic over her qualifications. Miss Katherine Montgomery has been elected to take one of the fifth grade classes and will be given a room in the Eastham building. Her selection will relieve the congested condition of the fifth grade, there having been enrolled 104 pupils, with only two teachers. The board of directors of the city schools has concluded to cancel its order for opera chairs in the auditorium of the high school building and substitute therefor suitable students' desks, using the auditorium for a study room. This plan will remedy the crowded situation of the study rooms in the high school and will not impair the use of the auditorium for the purpose for which it was originally intended.

ESTACADA SCHOOL HAS BIG ATTENDANCE

With 225 pupils enrolled on September 25, the Estacada school has started on what promises to be the district's banner year with an enlarged staff of instructors and much new equipment. The affairs of the district are in the best possible shape. Last year, the school's enrollment was 157. The present attendance is segregated by grades as follows: First grade, 41. Miss Hewitt teacher; second and one half of the third grades, 27. Mrs. Graham teacher; one half third and fourth grades, Miss Erickson teacher; fifth and sixth grades, 44. Miss Moebuko teacher; seventh and eighth grades, 27. Mrs. Altman teacher; and 26 in high school, Mrs. Devore and Principal James in charge. Three dozen new seats have been added this year and Principal James says more are needed. The greatest gain in any one grade is in the eighth, where last year only three pupils were in attendance and so far this year the attendance has reached twelve.

HISTORY OF CITY IS WRITTEN BY MRS. DYE

Another historical sketch has been given to the public by Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, Oregon City's noted writer, who is the author of "The Conquest," "McLaughlin and Old Oregon" and "McDonald of Oregon." Her latest article is a history of Oregon City, which has been published by the S. J. Clarke Publishing company as a part of Joseph Gaston's "History of Portland," just off the press.

Couple Gets License. A marriage license was issued Thursday morning to Jennie Peckay and Joseph Zaller. Both reside in this city.

TOLD TO HALT, HE FLEES HIGHWAYMEN

Three masked desperados made an unsuccessful effort to hold up Albert Kyle, who is employed in a butcher shop on the hill, about one mile from the city on the South End road Wednesday night. After Kyle, who was in a buggy, had refused to obey a command to stop, the men fired three shots at him. Upon arriving at his destination he called up the Wilson Livery stable where he had obtained the horse and buggy, and notified Mr. Wilson of the attempted hold up. Sheriff Mass and Deputy Sheriff Miles drove out on the road, but found no trace of the highwaymen.

MILLIONS OF TROUT LIBERATED HERE

FINGERLINGS, SHIPPED BY GOVERNMENT, ARE PLANTED IN MANY STREAMS.

SUPERINTENDENT O'MALLEY REPORTS

Excellent Fishing To Be Provided For Local Sportsmen And Tourists—Fingerlings Sent On Application.

The Bureau of Fisheries, under the direction of Superintendent Henry O'Malley, has been making a liberal distribution of rainbow and eastern brooktrout fingerlings, throughout Oregon and Washington. These fish have been liberated as fingerlings into the waters of this state, all the streams can be made to afford excellent trout fishing, not only for the local sportsmen, but also for the many tourists who visit our state yearly. The government does this work gratuitously and trout fish can be obtained at the proper season by making application to the United States Bureau of Fisheries, Washington, D. C., and giving a complete description of the stream for which the fish are desired.

- The following is a list of the streams supplied, together with the applicants, during the past summer: Rainbow Trout Fingerlings. J. H. Gallagher, Yamhill, Or., N. F. Yamhill River, 5,000. W. A. Alleging that her husband frequently struck her, and threw an alarm clock at her May 28, 1911, breaking her nose, Mary F. Mills Wednesday filed suit for divorce from F. A. Mills. They were married August 29, 1908, and the plaintiff alleges that soon thereafter her husband began to treat her cruelly. Mrs. Mills is represented by George C. Brownell and William Stone.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

COL. DYE SAYS TEXAS HAS GREAT FUTURE

Colonel C. H. Dye returned Friday from a trip to Texas and Iowa. Although he was gone only two weeks Colonel Dye passed through fifteen states. "Texas is a great state," said Colonel Dye, "and has great possibilities. In the northeastern part of the state land can be bought for $25 and $30 an acre which will produce from one half bale to a bale of cotton an acre. With cotton selling at $60 a bale the farmers are making money. However, the residents of the state are not nearly so industrious as the people of the north and northwest. The climate is the great drawback to the Lone Star state, and it is a question as to whether the disadvantage can ever be overcome. Even northerners are affected by the climate after being in the state a year or two." Mrs. Normile objects to the decree, declaring that her husband falsified when he declared in his complaint that he had been a resident of Oregon for a year preceding
