

RESOURCES REVEALED AT COUNTY FAIR

play was certainly a creditable one and large crowds were attracted to this booth. The club won second prize. The booth which was one of the most attractive in the pavilion, was arranged by B. Kuppenbender and W. F. Schooley, and the lettering was the handwork of E. R. Rhoades of this city. Near the main entrance was a fine display of apples, pears, plums and quinces that were grown by the residents of Clairmont. These were under the archway and on each side was an old English "C" in gilt lettering and in these were arranged an artistic design by Mr. Kuppenbender. The color scheme was red and white with festoons of red and white crepe paper, wreaths of Oregon grape. Near the main entrance under the archway was a display of apples, pears, plums and quinces that had been grown by the residents of Clairmont. This fruit was arranged forming an artistic design. In the center of the booth was a pyramid formed of jellies canned fruit, preserves and butter. Those who contributed to this booth were: Fred Wourms, Mrs. H. Kuppenbender, Mrs. B. Kuppenbender, Mrs. W. Kuppenbender, Mrs. E. C. Ryall and Fred Wourms. Mrs. Fred Wourms had on exhibit a fine display of vegetables as also did Fred Wourms, Mrs. B. Kuppenbender, Mrs. W. Kuppenbender and John Elliott. On the display of squashes, L. Sutherland, B. Kuppenbender, potatoes, John Gaffney; onions, Mrs. Ryall; beans, H. Kuppenbender; corn, J. Elliott; squashes, L. Sutherland; corn, white carrots, tomatoes, turnips, cabbage, oyster plant, rhubarb, W. Kuppenbender; some of the carrots in this collection were unusually large, measuring between ten and twelve inches in length, and cucumbers and beets exhibited by John Elliott also were large; potatoes, Fred Wourms; J. E. Downer, Mammoth sunflower, which is twenty inches in diameter. Fred Wourms, pear tomatoes; Dave Schearf; hops, wheat and oats, John Gaffney; oats, W. Kuppenbender; grapes, John Gaffney; vetch and corn exhibit, Fred Wourms. The vetch was harvested in the spring attaining a growth nine and a half feet, and after this was harvested corn was planted in its place and the latter was nine feet in height. Dr. T. E. Beard had a display of pears. Mrs. B. Kuppenbender and Miss Kuppenbender assisted in the display of fruits and vegetables in the Clairmont booth and also with the decorations.

Grange Exhibits Attractive. Two granges exhibited—Harding grange No. 122, of Logan, and Warner grange, New Era. This is the first time Harding grange ever exhibited at the county fair and hundreds of persons visited these booths to view the handsome display of fruits, jellies, grains, grasses, vegetables, etc.

Harding grange was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirchem. Miss Effie Kirchem, and much of the display was brought to the fair grounds by O. D. Robbins. The decorations of the booth were in pink and green, Pomona colors, and very artistic. The grains and grasses, with the red checked apples and beautiful pieces of fancy work were perfect. The grange arranged to have the regular sized space for granges, but owing to such a large display it was necessary to take twice the size, and even then it was necessary to crowd the vegetables. This booth had the largest collection of grains and grasses of any in the building, the background of the section in the northwestern corner of the pavilion was formed of these. Among those who contributed were the following: Mrs. H. W. Hageman, fancy work, including lotting, knit work, silk, and painted cushion covers, taxidermist collection, including silver gray squirrel; deer head quilt, white chipmunk, embroidery work; Mrs. Lulu Ward, point lace work, including collars, yoke, cushion top, center pieces, embroidery, including waists, baby's outfit; Miss Effie Kirchem, sofa cushion; Mrs. Lydia Robbins, pillow, made of premium ribbons of the grange fair. The domestic section included jellies, canned meats, cakes, jams, pickles, etc., and was arranged in the center of the booth. Those contributing to this were Mrs. William Kirchem, Mrs. O. D. Robbins, Mrs. H. W. Hageman, Mrs. Lydia Robbins, Mrs. F. B. Wilson, Mrs. Fred Riehoff.

Fruit Exhibit Excellent. The fruit exhibit was excellent. Mrs. B. Wilson had strawberries, Bartlett pears, petit pears and Italian pears; Mrs. Mahala Gill, Bradshaw pears, strawberry plants, with berries, grapes, Italian pears and dried pears; Mrs. Fred Riehoff, quinces; Mrs. Lydia Robbins, apples; Mrs. H. W. Hageman, cranberries. There were many others who exhibited fruit in this department.

The vegetables included every variety that is grown in the county and those having entries were W. P. Kirchem, squashes, five varieties potatoes; Early Rose, American Wonder, Empire State, Burbank, and tomatoes, green beans, tomatoes ripe and green corn, etc.; Mrs. A. F. Sloper, cucumbers, squashes, onions, red onions, white onions, pumpkins and white beets; F. S. Hutchins, onions, squashes, celery, parsnips, etc.; Arnold Mostel, squash, onions; Kohl Rabi, Louis Funk, potatoes and corn; O. D. Robbins, squashes and carrots; Mrs. H. S. Anderson, squash carrots; Mrs. H. S. Anderson, squash, two varieties beets; Harry Swales, carrots, parsnips, quinces and radishes.

Many of those exhibiting vegetables had fine samples of grain and grasses. Among them were W. P. Kirchem, Arnold Mostel, Louis Funk, Henry Babler, O. D. Robbins and A. F. Sloper. The grange made a good showing in thrashed grain exhibit, among those sending exhibits being A. F. Sloper, W. P. Kirchem and O. D. Robbins.

Fresh fruit—W. P. Kirchem, pears, apples (five varieties); Mrs. S. Byers, two varieties of apples; O. D. Robbins, melons. Among the members of the grange contributing to the display were Sam Gerber, Jake Durig, George Eades, Ned Hutchins, Arthur Cliff, Carl Falkert and Fred Garber.

Warner Grange Second. Warner grange, although winning first place at the fairs of 1909 and 1910, came in for second place at the fair this year. The booth was very pretty arranged. Mrs. J. Hoffman of New Era having charge of the arranging of the display. She was assisted by her daughters, the Misses Hoffman, Miss Lennie Snooks and Staver Company, was at the fair in charge of gasoline engines and Star windmills. The Milwaukee Nurseries, at the rear of the Enterprise booth, was in charge of N. B. Harvey, proprietor, and samples of fruit trees, ranging from different ages, were found there. The Oregon Nursery Company had an exhibit at the fair and was in charge of S. B. Reese. This company's headquarters are at Orenco, Oregon. Monroe & Crisell, of Portland, who were represented at the fair last year, also were at the fair this year. Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Spurgeon, of Portland, who had charge of the decorating of the Clackamas county booth at the State Fair, were at the County Fair and had a fine exhibit of jewelry. Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon have been engaged to decorate for the State Fair next year the Clackamas county booth.

RACES THRILL BIG THROUGH AT FAIR

FLORADORA Z WINS 2:20 TROT AND ROXY IS FIRST IN HALF MILE DASH.

AUTO EASILY BEATS MOTORCYCLE. J. M. Hollowell Awarded First Prize For Best Farm Exhibit—Enterprise Booth Wins For Second Time.

Canby day—Thursday—at the Clackamas county fair was a decided success, the schools being closed for the occasion, and the business houses of the city were closed for half a day. The day was an ideal one, and everyone who saw the good time, and all certainly had it. The peanut stands as well as the lemonade and popcorn stands did a rushing business, and even more business is looked forward to Friday morning when the Oregon City delegation will arrive on the train that leaves this city at 9:17 o'clock in the morning. At the closing of this year's fair will miss half of their lives, for it is the best fair that has been given. The music furnished by the Oak Grove girls' band was greatly appreciated by the large crowd, and the girls are receiving the highest praise for their work.

The judging took place Thursday, and those watching the races were jubilant and went home happy. For the best farm exhibit (individual) J. M. Hollowell, of Gladstone, was awarded first prize; George DeBok, of Willamette, second; Theodore Schaffenberger, of Canby, third.

Harding grange No. 122, of Logan, exhibited for the first time and won first prize, while Warner grange won second. Warner grange was awarded first prize in 1909 and 1910. Enterprise Gets First Prize.

The Oregon City Enterprise was awarded first prize for commercial booths and Huntley Brothers won second. The Oregon City Enterprise won first prize last year.

The best of order has been maintained at the fair. George Randall, of Oregon City, is marshal. He is assisted by O. G. Morris, of Aurora, and W. H. Calkins, of Gladstone. Every article in the building is looked after by Mr. Calkins, and there is no fear that any will be lost.

The races Thursday afternoon were the thrilling events of the day. The 2:20 trot caused much enthusiasm. Between heats of the races A. A. West gave exhibitions of roping and riding that won the crowd, and the contestants in the auto-motorcycle races that followed were wildly cheered every time they passed the stand.

The 2:20 trot was the prime event of the day's meet, with Floradora Z, winning again, in 2:21 3/4. Red Skin, Palmetto Jr., and Almaden D. entered. The first three horses ran. In the first heat Floradora Z won by a short margin with Red Skin and Palmetto Jr. neck and neck, in 2:21.

The second heat was more exciting. Red Skin being pocketed all the way by the other horses. Palmetto Jr. won this heat in 2:19 1/4 with both other horses close behind. Roxy Wins Dash.

At the start of the third heat Red Skin tried to nose the other horses out but was again pocketed, Floradora Z winning again, in 2:21 3/4.

There were seven entries for the half mile dash, the favorite being Harry, a little sorrel ridden by a youngster. Harry got a bad start, but finished second amid the tumultuous cheering of the crowd.

Roxy, ridden by an older and more experienced rider, had hard work finishing in 53 seconds, despite the fact that he held the lead from the start. Red Bull won third by a close margin.

Making the rounds of the half mile track at the county fair grounds five times while a four-cylinder Pierce motorcycle with Willard Cheney on the seat made four laps the "Spider" the special Ford racing car, easily won the two and half mile race at the fair Thursday before a large crowd of spectators. At no time did the motorcycle have a "look in" with the little gray flyer. The "Spider's" time was 7:45.

Since the opening of the fair the "Spider" has become a favorite with the fair visitors, owing to its enviable record on the track. It is the western representative of the company, and during the past summer ran several times on the Irvington track in Portland against autos, motorcycles and time. It won every race in sight in the Fourth of July races at Medford, defeated the White at Eugene, and ran against Ben C. Ely in his biplane at Salem. The car will be on the track at Canby again Saturday afternoon, when Chauncey Elliott will drive it in a ten mile race against a Waynes roadster, driven by Charles Hoyt.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. Grange To Entertain. Central Grange will give an entertainment and basket social at the Grange Hall at Beaver Creek, Saturday night. Charles Spencer is in charge of the program, and a good time is in store for those attending.
