PLOWS

BUILT LIKE THIS LAST & GIVE SATISFACTION WHILE THEY LAST

THIS cut illustrates one strong reason for the popularity of the J. I. Case Plow. Note how well reinforced this J. I. Case Walking Plow is, just at the points where reinforcement is needed. The J. I. Case solid steel fork securely binds the share, mouldboard, landside and beam together making a rigid frame. The point of the share is reinforced by a piece of high-grade solid steel giving this part of the plow great durability. These are only a few of the many reasons which cause farmers everywhere to say:

J. I. CASE PLOWS ARE GOOD PLOWS

Our J. I. Case Sulkies, Gangs and Walking Plows have valuable features which appeal to the intelligence and pocket book of every discriminating farmer. A request from you will bring our BIG ILLUSTRATED CASE CATALOGUE. Mention this paper.

Hullo there, friend! How you getting on?
Your harvesting done, eh, all in the dry?
Or are you forced to hold your nose?
Your wheat is fit for feed alone, eh? Your winter flour you'll have to buy—From the middle man, as you say eh? Who lights his cigar off a country guy?
How are your fruit trees, loaded too, eh?
With fruit, the most delicious kind. What, you don't say! The trees all so full.
That only green or golden leaves can find?
You would like to know the reason why, eh?
And somehow, friend, I can't tell—Why some of the big bugs as they're styled.
Want single tax a spell.
I s'pose it's cause they own no land, eh?
Upon which they've got to scratch—From early morn to setting sun, To rake and save a double tax.
Well, friend, we'll vote against it when we can;
But some how or other to us tickets read—
In such a way when we mean No. We sign NO yet YES it means and leads.
